Home And School Meets At Georgetown

The regular meeting of the Georgetown Home and School Association took place in the Council Room on November 8th. Twenty-seven members were in attendance. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

A motion was made to obtain a number of Home and School Creed cards from headquarters at Truro, also a President's Handbook. It was moved that the Association should lay a wreath on the memorial, and also march as a body during the Remembrance Day services.

A new social committee was formed: convener, Mrs. A. Stewart; assistants, Mrs. Nell White, Mrs. Florence Jenkins and Mrs. L. McCormack. Four members were appointed to the publicity and entertainment committee.

The guest of the evening was Mr. S. A. McInnis of the National Film Board. Mr. McInnis explained the new policy of the N. F. B. which consists rather in promoting the forming of local film boards, than calling on the Charlottetown headquarters for operators.

In connection with forming a local film board Mr. McInnis offered to teach a small class of interested persons the correct method of running a projector.
