The Supreme Court completed its sittings in this County yesterday.

JUST RECEIVED at the Agricultural Store, colored paper for Christmas Trees.—ROBERT MAY.—11

A FEW hundreds Island flour, from Mr. Acorn's mills, cheap for cash, only, at the Family Grocery.—R. K. BRACE.

HOT COFFEE is now served at the Railway Station to passengers by the out-going trains, and all others who may apply. A good idea.

"PRO BONO PUBLICO'S" letter, published yesterday, caused the illuminating of the Town Clock before dusk last evening. The Keeper of the building has nothing whatever to do with illuminating the clock.

Two inoffensive countrymen were set upon last evening on Pownal street by a gang of young ruffians and brutally beaten. The young scoundrels escaped without arrest, but it is to be hoped they will yet be punished for their villiany.

THE barkentine "Erema," John McMahon, master, with a cargo of 26,189 bush. oats, of 34 lbs. each, and 400 pes. deals, containing 11,000 feet, superficial measure, shipped by Peake Bros. & Co., cleared for Plymouth, G. B., for orders, on the 29th inst.

JOHN PATTERSON appeared at the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon, on complaint of Mr. Finlay. Patterson, it appears was intoxicated in the Market House, and used threatening language towards Mr. Finlay. He was fined four dollars or twenty days.

THE West River buoys, seven in number, were removed some days ago. This is a strange procedure in the face of the fact that four schooners are loading up the river, and others are expected up every hour. The steamer "Southport," besides making her regular trips on market days, makes extra trips through the week, to the great convenience of the tax-payers of West River. Why, then, should these buoys be taken up at this busy season? Will "Admiral Mitchell" please explain.—COM.

THE steamer "Carroll" sailed from this port for Boston at four o'clock this afternoon with a full cargo of produce. This is the last trip which she will make this fall. She has had a most successful season, having full freights as well as large passenger lists on all trips. We wish Captain Wright and his jolly crew a safe return next spring. The following ladies and gentlemen took passage by the "Carroll": Miss Lantry, Miss Kate Flynn, Miss A. E. Mitchell, Mr. H. J. Beales, Mr. J. M. Auld, Mr. S. Nicol, Mr. M. Griffin, Mr. Hugo Erickson, Mr. James Condon, Mr. John McMillan, Mr. D. McDonald, Mr. Jos. Carver, Mr. A. McPherson, Mr. Charles Morris, Mr. Robert Hurry, Mr. M. J. Beales, Mr. M. Stewart.

THE Rev. William Taylor, of world-wide missionary fame, we are glad to say, may be expected here by steamer this evening from Pictou, and will occupy the pulpit in Prince Street, Methodist Church, morning and evening to-morrow, and in the afternoon in the second Methodist Church, at 3.15.

This gentleman is well known everywhere as the "California Street preacher." He is an American by birth, but cosmopolitan by his evangelistic labors. He is at present making a hasty tour of these Maritime Provinces, in the interest of his great missionary work.

He will lecture on missions, on Monday and Tuesday evenings. The place to be announced to-morrow.
