CLEVELAND (AP) - Cleveland Barons won the American Hockey League playoffs by defeating Quebec Aces 3-2 Saturday night to sweep the best-of-seven Calder Cup series 4-0.

The Barons were unbeaten in nine straight playoff games, having swept their earlier series with Rochester Americans and Hershey Bears to reach the final.

It was the first time any AHL team ever won nine straight in the Calder Cup playoffs, although two other teams had swept through with eight straight victories before the playoff setup was changed two years ago.

The Barons had finished the regular schedule in third place in the Western Division. The Aces had coasted to a first place finish in the Eastern Division.

The Aces took an early lead when Wayne Hicks baited rebound past Cleveland goalie Jean Guy Morissette at 1:28. The Barons had only seven shots at the Quebec goal in the first period and were blanked by Lorne Worsley until midway in the second period. Then Jim Mikol dug the puck out from behind the Quebec nets, shot it to Len Ronson in front of the goal, and Ronson flipped it in over Worsley's shoulder at 19:49.

Fred Glover, Cleveland's veteran player-coach, backhanded another shot past Worsley late in the period. Again Mikol dug the puck out from behind the nets and passed out to Glover to set up the play.

This was the 47th playoff goal for Glover, the AHL's all-time leading scorer both in regular-season and playoff games. He has 49 playoff points, one better than Willie Marshall of Providence.

The Barons took a 3-1 lead in the third period on a fine effort by Ray Brunel and Guy Rousseau. Brunel missed a shot on the goal but skated behind the nets, recovered the puck and fired it out to Rousseau who beat Worsley with a 10-foot shot that proved decisive.

The Aces made it 3-2 when defenceman Jim Morrison fired a hard shot from the blue line that got past Morissette.

The Barons took the same on ice with two goals within nine seconds, at 17:31 and 17:40. After a faceoff Dick Mattiussi fired a long shot and Cecil Hoekstra, standing in front of Worsley, deflected the puck into the net. Bob Elliott scored the final goal on a pass play from Rousseau and Hoekstra.

Leafs Are Jubilant With 3 Straight Wins

By DAVE BETTS TORONTO (CP) - Dodging champagne corks, shutting doors on broken glass and shouting above the raucous voices of well-wishers, Punch Imlach tipped his hat back and lavished praise on his Toronto Maple Leafs.

"They acted like champions and they played like champions. Three of them went out there with their legs frozen. What more can I say—what more could I ask."

The joy was unconfined in the Leaf dressing room after Saturday's 4-0 routing of Detroit Red Wings for Toronto's third straight win.

Prime Minister Pearson shook hands all around and had a few special words for Red Wings scores of Toronto's third straight win and member of Parliament for York West.

Kelly, who suffered damaged knee ligaments when checked by two Red Wings in the last game in Detroit Thursday, was taken to hospital in a wheelchair after Saturday's victory. A spokesman said Kelly apparently aggravated the injury late in the game.

Detroit manager - coach Ed Abel, who was unrecognized in the throng, fought his way to Imlach and forced smiles as he posed for pictures.

Close behind him was Gordie Howe, Detroit's all-time great, who gave a big handshake and a friendly hug to shutout goalie Johnny Bower, a summertime friend of Howe's.

Imlach continued his praise. "They showed all the signs of true champions. Bob Baum, Carl Brewer and Red Kelly all had needles to deaden the pain of their leg injuries, and then they told me they all wanted to play."

RAPS BASEBALL: That's the difference between a hockey team and a baseball team. Did you ever hear of baseball guys going like that?

"I've never seen them up as high as they were before tonight's game. They clomped around here on their skates and hollered. Usually, you know, they just sit around and act casual. But tonight, boy, they were really going."

Andy Bathgate, who scored the first and winning goal, was almost mobbed by reporters, photographers, players, politicians, policemen and team officials.

"I've been around a long time waiting for something like this, said the former New York Ranger. "I didn't know I would take a trade to get me to the cup celebration but I couldn't be happier. This is."

Toronto goal tender Johnny Bower, with the assistance of John Jr., tries the Stanley Cup for size but finds plenty of room left over. Bower ended his hockey season Saturday shutting out Detroit Red Wings 4-0 in the Stanley Cup final in Toronto giving Leafs their third consecutive win.

Golf Season Approaching

Never mind, golf is just around a couple of corners, and there'll be added excitement this year because of the new fairways, some of which will probably be used before the season is over.

Plans will soon be made for the organization of softball and Baseball leagues, and we're certainly going to miss Canton Ferguson, the softball president, who will be moving to Halifax in the near future. We'll also miss Dunc Wheeler, batting coach last year, who has gone overseas.

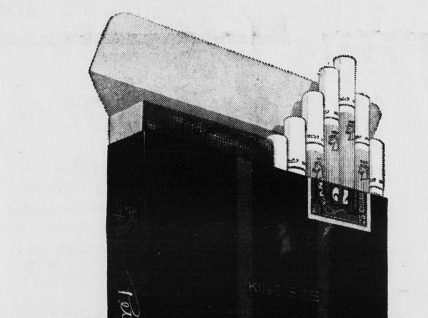

Track and field, which is getting bigger and better every year on P.E.I. will be a real attraction in Summerside this summer. The eastern Canadian finals which will be held here the latter part of July, should create a lot of interest and attract a large crowd. We enjoyed very much Geoffrey Dymos's address to the track and field coaches and athletes at Albion High School Friday evening. Besides knowing his track and field from A to Z, has the gift of making magic with words. A sort of speaker who could make a discussion on "the night life of the butterfly cocoon" interesting. Anyone listening to him could hardly fail to gain an added enthusiasm for track and field.
