AN INFANT TALKS WHEN ONLY THREE MONTHS OLD

[From the St. Charles (Minn.) Herald]

From the following letter, written and vouched for by Dr Sudduth, one of our most respectable and successful physicians our readers will see that we have in our midst one of the many wonders of the world. Several parties, since the knowledge of this came to light, have visited the family, and all agree in pronouncing it true in every respect, and beyond their comprehension:—

Mr Editor: I wish to make known to the public one of the most remarkable, indeed wonderful, instance of infantile precocity in the line of talking that I ever heard of. I doubt, indeed, if anything like it is to be found in any of the records of strange things. I was called upon a few days ago to attend a sick child a daughter of William and Mary Jane Hearsay, living in the southwest part of St. Charles township. I found the child, aged a few days under five months, very ill. After administering medicine to the child, I was startled to hear it say very distinctly, "Mamma baby dont want any more." Completely nonplussed, I inquired of the mother how long the babe had talked. As though it were no unusual occurrence, she cooly said it commenced talking a few days before it was three months old! Deeply impressed with this unheard of and premature development, I watched the child with the greatest interest. It does not prattle, as is usual with infants when first trying to walk, stumbling upon and stranning at words. It speaks distinctly and coherently a regular sentence that clearly expresses its thoughts or ideas. It seems to think and then expresses its thoughts calmly and clearly. It seems to note the anxiety and wishes of others. A little four-year brother was out of the house, and several members of the family inquired where he was. He soon came in, when the baby seeing him, said to the mother: "Otty has come home." It will lie quietly in its cradle while its mother is at work, and when it is hungry will say "baby wants dinner," or "mamma take baby up," as plainly as a child of five or six years of age. I may as well mention the fact that another of the children commenced talking at eight months old. Altogether I consider it a phenomenon worthy of public record, nor do I think it any the less incomprehensible that this talking wonder is a girl.

J. H. SUDDUTH, M. D.

WHAT CAME OF BORROWING GENTLEMAN TURKEYS.—In former days there dwelt in the Co[?]eraker State, in close proximity to each other, a young buxom, and wealthy widow, and a bachelor of scarcely more than her own age. Both had inherited their property and were comparatively strangers to each other. But their plantations joined, and many were the acts of neighboring kindness that passed between them. Well, as somebody sang to the witching Widow Machree the time had arrived when the "birds go in pairs," and the widow found that, although she had plenty of hen turkeys, she had none of the other persuasion, they having mysteriously disappeared. But she knew that her neighbor had plenty of a rare breed, and so she sent Sambo over to borrow a couple. In due time he came back with a large gobbler under either arm, and a broad grin on his face.

"Well?" asked his mistress.

"Massa said," was the answer, "dat he send dem turkeys, and dat if dey didn't answer, he'd jest come ober and gobble his own self."

"Go back and tell him to come," commanded the widow with cheeks like peonies.

The negro did as he was commanded—the horses of the bachelor were hitched that night until a late hour at the post in front of the widows door—and there was a wedding within three months.

A SMART COUNSEL FLOORED.—In one of the courts, a few days since a very pretty young lady appeared as a witness. Her testimony was likely to result unfavorably for the client of a pert young lawyer who addressed her very superciliously with the enquiry:

'You are married, I believe?'

'No, sir.'

'Oh! only about to be married?'

'No, sir.'

'Only wish to?'

'Really I don't know. Would you advise such a step?

O certainly! I am a married man myself.'

'Is it possible, I never should have thought it. Is your wife blind or deaf?'

It is scarcely necessary to add that the discomfitted attorney did not vouchsafe a reply.

AN OLD BUT GOOD STORY.—The Rev. Newman Hall tells the following story in the course of a lecture in Sheffield, on his recent visit to America. An illiterate negro preacher said to his congregation: 'My bredren, when de fus man Adam was made, he was made ob wet clay and set up agin de paling to dry.' 'Do you say,' said one of the congregation, 'dat Adam was made ob wet clay an set up agin de palins to dry?' 'Yes, sar, I do.' 'Who made de palins?' 'Sit down, sar,' said the preacher sternly, 'such questions as dat would upset any system ob theology.'

AN ELDERLY GENTLEMAN, accustomed to "indulge" entered the room of a certain tavern where sat a grave Friend by the fire. Lifting a pair of green spectacles upon his forehead, rubbing his inflamed eyes, and calling for hot brandy and water, he complained to the Friend that "his eyes were getting weaker and that even spectacles didn't seem to do them any good."—"I'll tell thee, friend," said the Quaker, "what I think. If thee were to wear thy spectacles over thy mouth for a few months thy eyes would get well again."

A CLERGYMAN had taught an old man in his parish to read, and had found him an apt pupil. After the lessons were finished he had not been able to call at the cottage for some time, and when he did, he only found the wife at home. "How's John?" said my friend.—"He's canny, sir," said his wife.—"How does he get on with his reading?"—"Nicely, sir."—"Ah, I suppose he'll read his Bible very comfortably, now."—"Bible sir! bless you, he was out of the Bible and into the newspaper long ago."

A CHEAP WATCH.—A sailor went to a watchmaker, and presenting a small French watch to him, wished to know how much the repair of it would come to. The watchmaker, after examining it, said. "It will be more expense repairin than its original cost." —"I dont mind that," said the tar; "I will even give you double the original cost, for I gave a fellow a blow on the head for it, and if you repair it I will give you two."

GEORGE I. having given a handsome sum towards repairing the town hall at Coventry, it was remarked at its inauguration that the inscription over the centre doorway read "Anno Domini." Queen Anne being dead some time, the corporation suggested an alteration, when it was unanimously resolved to replace it by "Georgio Domini," which they considered more appropriate.

THE RULE OF THE MAJORITY.—An Irishman, being about to join a company in the Confederate army during the late American war, was questioned by one of the officers. 'Well, sir, when you get into battle, will you fight or run?'—'Ay,' faith,' replied the Hibernian, 'I'll be afther doin' as the majority uv ye does."

NO EQUIVALENT.—'You've destroyed my peace of mind!" said a lover to a young lady who had jilted him.—'Then I'll give you a piece of my mind,' she exclaimed; and she did but the young man didn't consider it an equivalent for the destruction of his own.

WHAT DO YOU MEAN MADAM?—"What do you mean by humbugging, madam?" asked a homely lawyer of an old lady whom he was cross-examining.—'I don't know as I can exactly say, sir; "but if a lady were to say to you that you're a handsome man, that would be it."

AN old offender was lately introduced to a new county justice as John Simmons, alias Jones alias Smith.—"I[']ll try the two women first," said the thick headed justice. "Bring in Alice Jones."

A poor Scotchman put a crown piece into 'the plate' in an Edinburgh church, on a late Sunday morning, by mistake for a penny, and asked to have it back but was refused. In once in forever. 'Aweel, aweel, grunted he, 'I'll get credit for it heaven.' 'Na, na,' said the doorkeeper; 'ye'll get credit only for the penny ye ment to gi'.'

The Quincy Whig is responsible for the following: An Irish girl in the employ of one of the first families was sent by the lady of the house one day last week, to a dry goods store, with instructions to bring home a bed comforter. She returned after a short absence with one of the clerks.

BLACKSMITHS AND CARPENTERS.—We have ever found that blacksmiths are more or less given to vice. Carpenters, for the most part speak plainly but they will chisel when they can get a chance. Not unfrequently they are bores, and often annoy one with their old saws.

ROTHSCHILD said one day he always knew, when people were talking about his fellow Hebrews, whether the latter were rich or poor. Upon being asked how he came to know that he replied, 'Why, you see, when people are talking about a wealthy man of my creed, they call him an Israelite, but if he is poor they call him a Jew."

"I AM come for my umbrella," said the lender of it, on a rainy day to a friend—'Can't help that,' said the borrower; "don't you see that I am going out with it?'—"Well, yes," replied the lender, astonished at such outrageous impudence; "yes, but—but—but what am I to do?"—"Do!" said the other, as he opened the umbrella, and walked off, "do as I did—borrow one."

VERY GREEN.—"As soon as you get there, my boy," said a countrywoman to her son, as he was leaving her for London, "you must send me a letter."—When the youngster reached London, he said to his master "Sir, if you've got an old letter that's good for nothing, I wish you'd give it to me."—"What for?" asked his master.—"For my mother, sir; she told me to send her a letter as soon as I'd got to London."

WHAT is that which a man may have never possessed and yet leave behind him?—A will.

A DASHING and fashionable widow says she thinks of suing some gentleman for a breach of promise so that the world may know she is in the market.

"SUPPOSE you were to see the sun rising in the middle of the night, what would you call that?" said a teacher to a ploughboy pupil, whom he was examining on miracles. "The mune, please sir.'—"But suppose you knew it was not the moon, but the sun, and you saw it actually rise in the middle of the night what would you think?"—"Please sir, I should think it was time to get up!"

CARTER'S

COMBINED WRITING & COPYING

INK!

THIS COMBINATION INK has been awarded the HIGHEST PREMIUMS over all others in the United States and pronounced by the most celebrated Chemists the best Ink ever offered to the public

It is used by many of the largest Commercial houses, Banks, Railroads and other Corporations and gives perfect satisfaction.

The Advantages of this over other Inks are:

FIRST.—It flows freely from the pen, and does thicken by exposure to the air.

SECOND.—It will give a perfect and instantaneous copy

THIRD.—It will not mould.

FOURTH.—Being equally as good for Copying as for Book-keeping, it entirely does away with the use of two kinds of Ink.

FIFTH.—It is more permanent than common Inks

SIXTH.—The color, when first written, is a beautiful dark green, but in a remarkably short time it changes to a BRILLIANT JET BLACK—not a brownish black.

SEVENTH.—It is admirably adapted to the most delicate writing, and ALWAYS "makes its mark"

This Ink is warranted to flow as freely as any other Writing Fluid now in use; to give as perfect a copy as any Copying Ink; and not to mould.

The Most Reliable Friend!

Holloway's Ointment,

Its Searching & Healing Properties are known and recognized throughout the World.

The number of years this invaluable Ointment has stood the test of public opinion, (and the longer known the better appreciated) is a testimony of itself more convincing than anything that could be written in praise of its truly wonderful healing properties. In the cure of bad legs, bad breasts, sores, wounds, and ulcers, its effect is marvellous. For ring-worm, scald-head, scrofula, and diseases of the scalp generally, there is no remedy to be compared to it. When assiduously rubbed upon the skin (previously well bathed in warm water this Ointment is quickly absorbed into the system, and cleanses, in its passage, every part to which it is applied.

Glandular Swellings, Mumps Bronchitis, Quinsey, Sore Throats and Diptheria.

In any of the above diseases, immediate and permanent relief is obtained by effectually rubbing this detergent Ointment, twice a day, upon the neck, chest and back. Its acts upon the very mainsprings of life; for through the glands pass all new matter required for the body's reparation and all old particles detrimental to its preservation. The Ointment, used conjointly with Holloway's Pills, will act so searchingly and certainly as to effect cures in the most hopeless cases.

Rheumatism, Lumbago, Contracted and Stiff Joints.

Many thousands of martyrs from the above complaints have found life almost unsupportable; yet, if Holloway's Ointment be briskly and perseveringly rubbed upon the parts affected, ease may be safely guaranteed, especially if the pores of the skin by previously opened by fomentations with warm water The gross humors require expulsion from the system; it is therefore necessary to have recourse to Holloway's admirable Pills, which, by purifying and strengthening the system, greatly assist the operation of the Ointment and facilitate and confirm the cure

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, and Ulcerations of all kinds.

There is no medicinal preparation in the world which may be so thoroughly relied upon, in the treatment of the above ailments, as Holloway's Ointment. Nothing can be so simple or safe as the manner in which it is applied, or its action on the body, both locally and constitutionally. The Ointment, rubbed around the part affected, enters the pores just as salt enters meat. It quickly penetrates to the source of the evil and drives it from the system.

Erysipelas and Scrofulous Sores

In all irritations of the skin, sores, ulcers, burns or scrofulous enlargements of any kind, Holloway's Ointment presents a ready and easy means of cure. It manifests a peculiar power in restraining inflammation, removing stagnation, cooling the heated blood, and checking all acrimonious and unhealthy discharge.

Diseases attendant on Childhood.

Diseases incident to early life fall more under the management of the mother than the medicine man. Holloway's Ointment should therefore be regarded by her as a "Household Treasure," as it never fails in bringing out the rash in measles and scarlatina; and for the removal of all skin diseases its effect is miraculous. In cases of whooping cough and croup, this invaluable Ointment should be rubbed twice a day upon the throat and chest, and the youngest invalid will derive therefrom the most soothing relief. Two or three of Holloway's famous Pills, reduced to a powder, will augment the curative powers of the Unguent.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bad Legs	Corns (soft)	Rheumatism
Bad Breasts	Cancers	Scald Heads
Burns	Contracted and Stiff Joints	Sore Nipples
Bunions		Sore Throats
Bite of Moschetoes and Sand Flies	Elephantiasis	Skin Diseases
	Fistulas	Scurvy
	Gout	Sore Heads
Coco bay	Glandular Swellings	Tumours
Chiego-foot		Ulcers
Chilblains	Lumbago	Wounds
Chapped Hands	Piles	Yaws
