THE Halifax Herald says there is considerable doubt as to the correctness of the death of James S. McDonald, ex-M. P. P., for King's. It is now said that after a silence of many weeks, his family received letters from him next before last, dated on the 16th inst., from a small town in Washington Territory, U. S. A.

It is the testimony of all men who have tried it that "Myrtle Navy" tobacco has the most delicious flavor of any tobacco in the market, and that it leaves none of the unpleasant effects in the mouth which most tobaccos do. The reason of this is the high and pure quality of the leaf, which is the finest known in Virginia, and the absence of all deleterious matter in the manufacture.

THE Presbytery of P. E. Island will meet in St. James' Hall, Charlottetown, on Thursday, 1st April, at 11 o'clock, a. m. Business: Call from Cow Bay, Cape Breton, to Rev. Wm. THE old warehouse on Queen's wharf was slightly damaged by fire yesterday forenoon. The fire originated in the cooper shop, and caused by a spark from a stove-pipe which did duty as a chimney, falling on the roof and igniting it. The alarm was sounded and a general turnout of the fire department ensued, but their services were fortunately unnecessary as the fire was extinguished before it had done any more serious damage than burn a slight hole in the roof of the building.

On Friday night last, two unsuccessful attempts were made to enter and burglarize the store of John Mackenzie, Chaucer Tailor, Water Street, Summerside. About 11 o'clock three men made their way to the rear of the store, broke a pane or two of glass, and were only prevented from getting into the shop by the hostile demonstrations of one of the workmen, who was employed later than usual that night. Finding they could not get in at that time they went away, but returned again in half an hour and renewed the attempt. They were again frightened off by the same valiant "knight of the needle," and took their departure, uttering imprecations upon the head of that worthy.

THE Stipendiary Magistrate's Court was thronged this morning, and much interest was manifested in the proceedings. The Scott Act cases of H. B. Smith, Mrs. Offer and P. P. Gillis were dismissed, the latter with costs, and the case of John J. Trainor stands over till Wednesday next. The two Brown boys—John and Andrew—charged with stealing an overcoat from Dr. Bagnall, were sent up for trial in the Supreme Court, while the charge preferred against Frank O'Hare, for stealing Policeman Steele's coat, was dismissed. A young man, charged with malicious destruction of property, was fined $2.50 and costs; two young women suspected of keeping a house of ill-fame at the western end of the city were cautioned and discharged, and three drunks were disposed of.

We understand that some of our young men are about forming an Aquatic Club, with the special object of encouraging yachting, rowing and swimming by the athletic youth of this city. A timely idea! Although yachting, of late, has held its own, rowing is by no means so far advanced as it used to be. Most of our best oarsmen have left the Province, whilst those who remain have lost their "old fire." We wish to see it again resume its former place, so that the public may enjoy some of the old-time regattas. The Hillsborough affords as fine a place as any in the world, not only for yachting and rowing, but also for swimming. With regard to the latter it is not creditable to the city that the stringent, but weakly enforced, laws against bathing within certain limits have not yet been repealed, so that many of our law-abiding citizens are deterred from enjoying the "healthiest of all sports." Here we have all the conveniences for bathing, without necessarily exposing ourselves to public view; but because some old-fashioned laws have not been repealed we are shut out from that health-giving recreation, excepting at a cost of time and trouble, quite incompatible with the result. Cleanliness comes next to godliness, and the attainment of the former should be placed within as easy reach as the latter now is.

Since the Salvation Army, under Captain Dougherty and Cadet Wilson, began storming the strongholds of sin, in this city some two weeks ago, the barracks have been crowded at every meeting and many persons were unable to obtain admission. Capt. Cook and Cadet Griffiths, lady officers, arrived in this city and took charge of the barracks on Thursday, Capt. Dougherty leaving for Summerside to resume the work there. Under the guidance of the new staff the meetings were continued and the barracks soon became too small to accommodate those who sought admission. It was then determined to try the Market Hall. Capt. Southall and Capt. Griffiths, the celebrated Welsh minstrel, with his consecrated violin, crossed over in the Northern Light to Georgetown on Saturday and drove from there to town, arriving here about two o'clock Sunday morning. Sunday afternoon at three o'clock the whole army under the command of Capt. Southall, made a grand assault upon the enemy's fortifications in the Market Hall. The hall was literally packed long before the assault began and the large audience was very well conducted. The implements of war were the consecrated violin of the Welsh Minstrel, the tambourine manipulated by Cadet Wilson, the relation of war testimonies by officers of the army and some local converts, prayers by the officers, and singing by the audience. The large audience thoroughly appreciated the performance, and were very sorry when it was brought to a close. At 8 o'clock in the evening another meeting of somewhat the same nature was held in the hall. The house was overcrowded and many could not obtain admission. At each service a handsome collection was taken up. Captain Griffiths left on the afternoon train to-day for Summerside, where he performs to-night. He will return to town in a day or two, and spend about a week in the city. The meetings will be continued to-night at the barracks.

Another Drowning Accident.

An unusually large number of people are being drowned by falling through the ice in Cape Breton this spring. The North Sydney Herald says: "A sad drowning accident occurred on Saturday night in McKinnon's Cove, Boularderie, by which Alexander McNeil, of Big Pond, lost his life. He had been at North Sydney during the afternoon. He had crossed from Little Bras d'Or to McKinnon's Cove, the usual crossing place, but had kept out from the Boularderie shore upon arriving within the Cove, when horse and sleigh fell through the ice, both McNeil and the horse being drowned. McNeil's dog which had accompanied him, went home on Sunday, and it was thought so very strange of the dog coming home without his master that a search party went out, fearing that McNeil had fallen through the ice. He was found in the hole with the horse and sleigh, both floating on the water. McNeil was a widower and leaves one child."

Mangled in a Saw Mill.

At Greenhill, N. S., on the 26th inst., Daniel R. Stewart, a well known farmer of West River, near Durham, was cutting wood with a circular saw driven with horse-power, when the saw flew to pieces. One part struck him on the forehead, making an awful gash. He fell instantly, and did not speak. He was breathing at 11 o'clock, but the doctor said it was not possible for him to live, and it is not at all probable that he is living now. Mr. Stewart was about 45 years of age, married, and has a family of four. He was a very popular man, and his untimely end will be much regretted by the large number who were fortunate enough to have made his acquaintance.

While playing with a revolver on Monday, Miss Trotter, daughter of the manager of the Banque du Peuple, Montreal, accidentally shot her three-year old brother in the head, causing his death a few hours afterwards.

A Cruel Monster.

William McLure, formerly of St. John, arrested in Boston for monstrous cruelty to his little daughter, has been given three years in the house of correction at the latter place. The child will be placed in some infant asylum to recuperate and the mother, who is an invalid, will be cared for in the House of the Good Samaritan until she recovers. The Boston Herald says: There were three separate charges against McLure. The evidence showed that he would crowd a raw potato in his mouth, and in some instances it had been made to eat its own vomit. Many other brutal and heartless things were brought out in evidence, and the child was produced. It was a sickly and puny one. Its face was all discolored, and the flesh on the inside of the mouth was almost putrid. On the top of its head was the sore spoken of. It is as large as two silver dollars. This was all caused by the father's fiendish work. After the evidence was all in, the judge stated that he had never heard of a case before that better deserved the full merits of the law.

Arrested for Wife-Beating.

Patrick Kenny, the Secretary of the London Laborers' Union—at whose call the Trafalgar Square meeting (which caused the recent riots) was convened—has recently been hobnobbing with peers and aristocrats as the workmen's member of the Mansion House Committee to relieve the unemployed. He was arrested on the 23rd inst., on a warrant charging him with brutally beating and kicking his wife. Kenny has lately been much petted by the aristocracy, and has given himself insufferable airs.
