

Summerside regionaires Bast north river 3 Hockey honours

FFFT By NICK FILLMORE

Plante Stalls Les Habs

Jacques Plante had a good weekend. — Good enough to drop the Montreal Canadiens into second place in the NHL standings.

The guy who brought the mask to big league hockey and then for his young style in his younger years, Plante, came up with 38 saves Saturday night in Montreal to edge the Canadiens 3-2, and made 39 stops in Sunday night game in New York to keep pace with Charlie Hodge as the club fought to a 0-0 draw.

Montreal's inability to score on the fired-up Plante dropped them two points behind Chicago Black Hawks. Billy Reay, who won an important one point game over Toronto Sunday, took over the two goal effort of Kenny Wharram.

The weekend performances of Plante and Wharram could give the Habs a first place finish and an extra top spot since they select players so sparingly here. If so, the Chicks would receive their first in history NHL title.

There are only 16 games remaining in the league's regular schedule and the Habs will get their first chance to move back to first place when they visit the fighting-rod-third-place Toronto Maple Leafs tomorrow night. Billy Reay, however, has Toronto's best record in the league with 10 wins and 10 losses. He is an excellent one on a head on clash between the two clubs in Montreal Saturday night.

Plante's record in the NHL is 10-10-10. The big match will be televised by the CBC.

In the National Lacrosse's other big battle, for third place, both Toronto and Detroit won and lost a game over the weekend. The season-long stunner Maple Leafs and New York Rangers met in Detroit and the Red Ice tomorrow night. Detroit would still win it with them with a win over Boston as they come Thursday night.

After The Brier Was Over

Prince Edward Island's holding of the Centennial-come-homeside Macdonald Brier, a very successful holding, is now history. Irvell Dagg and his British Columbia trio are back home to the round holders, the world's most competitive curling event.

Dominion Curling Association officials, press, radio and TV personalities can take sighs of relief, having fought through one of their more horrendous events of the year.

Dagg's record second in popularity to the Island's Burke took the consolation prize. He was considered only second rate to the famous Richardson's of Saskatchewan, but showed excellent control and determination throughout the event.

The Richardson's 8-3 in the big match and taking P.E.I. as an extra end in their final game to stay out of a championship playoff with the Saskatchewan team.

Jack Staff's team for the title at the beginning of the week was captained by Marvin Moss from Montreal, who gave the rest of the country a lesson in curling.

Ernie Richardson and Saskatchewan were big disappointments in several respects. They were supposed to win — But as for the Island team of Art Burck, Alan Smith, Bobby and Len Layton, they finished with a better standing, 8-5, than we thought they would, and but for a few hot shots here and there, could have made a serious bid for the Tankard.

It was a pity that the Brier was held in a place that did not think this year's curling was as good as in past years — not because the curlers were poor, but because of the low calibre of the rink, said Baldwin, but still been near the edges. "If you had a rink that was as good as the rink in Montreal, for example," he said, they would have difficulty in finding the right night because of the low variation.

Dominion Curling Ass'n Needs Professionalism

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Staff Editor

The Dominion Curling Association didn't surprise anyone the other day when it shelved the touchy code of ethics regarding professionalism in the sport. It has been dodging this issue for years.

This August body knows which side its bread is buttered on. If it outlaws professionalism it knows as well as anyone that the pros will certainly ruin their own tournament and the Canadian championship will be ruined.

The DCA would suffer. Take a look at hockey. In 1951, the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association established what it called the Major Series with hand-picked senior clubs competing for the newly established Alexander Cup. In that one stroke the CAHA downgraded the Allan Cup, symbol of the Canadian senior championship since 1900, to the status of an intermediate event. NEVER RECOVERED.

The Alexander Cup went out of business in two years, but the Allan Cup hasn't been able to recover from its loss of prestige.

The DCA is the governing body of the sport in Canada, and this code, that is,

Antigonish S.N. (CP) — Judicial statistics released Monday show Wayne Synchall's 30th birthday. The Antigonish S.N. (CP) picked up 10 points in Maritime Intercollegiate Hockey League. The Antigonish S.N. (CP) moved into a tie for the individual scoring championship with McMillan of St. Dunstan's.

Both players ended the season 30 with 30 points. McMillan had led the circuit for most of the schedule.

McMillan scored 25 goals, most in the league — and added 11 assists for his total, which Synchall had only 10 goals but a league-leading 27 assists. The Antigonish S.N. Graduate Hollahan of St. FX, a Linemate of Synchall, scored 21 goals and 13 assists to finish third in the score and with 39 points.

Former member of the high-scoring line for the X-men, Gary McLeod, ended the year in fourth with 20 points on 11 goals and 19 assists.

The line unofficially finished the season with the highest cumulative intercollegiate forward unit in Canada. The three players amassed 107 points in the season. FX ended in third place in league play.

University of New Brunswick was awarded the league championship by the Antigonish S.N. (CP) with St. Dunstan's.
