

After a Little While.

There is a strange, sweet solace in the thought that all the woes we suffer here below...

No more roaming, but hath certain end; Though far into the ocean spaces grey...

Oh, when our cares come circling thick and fast With more of anguish than the heart can bear...

The Grace of Self-Love.

Women especially need an education to the unpraised grace and neglected duty of self-love. Self-sacrifice may become pernicious to him who practices it...

Mr. Froude in his new volume of the Life of Carlyle says:—"Taking Carlyle altogether there never was a man whose conduct throughout his life could better bear the fiercest light..."

The Sun's cable special says that the majority of Londoners are busy with the many sensations which the world of literature and art are supplying them with rank luxuriance.

The ruins of a recently discovered pyramid in Mexico have a base of 1,250 feet and rise to the height of 750 feet. The winding roadway by which the top is reached is said to be twenty-three miles in length.

"As you grow in art," said Gounod to a young poet, "you will judge the great masters of the past, as I now judge the great musicians of former times..."

A talking walrus is one of the curiosities of a Philadelphia Museum. It utters a few words with great distinctness. Heretofore the power to articulate among beings other than human has been supposed to be confined to birds of the parrot family.

MRS. SOPHIA POTTER'S Bone Rheumatic Liniment

IT is a fact worth knowing that Mrs. Sophia Potter's Bone Rheumatic Liniment cannot be excelled for removing pain and soreness. It is no worthless trash, as some may suppose, simply because they have been imposed upon by others but is positively the "King of Pain." Sore throat cannot stand before its power.

All we ask is a trial that you may be convinced of the truth of our statement. Our experience is that one bottle tried also sells many more.

See circular for particulars and testimonials, and try a bottle—it will not fail to do all that is promised.
