OPENING NIGHT

Old Home Week and Provincial Exhibition will be officially opened at 8.00 Monday evening, August 10th.

HARNESS HORSE RACING

Always the major attraction, the Harness Horse Racing Meet Old Home Week bids fair to top all previous records both from the standpoint of entries and competition offered.

There will be six nights and three afternoons of racing. Some of the highlights will be:

MONDAY NIGHT—FREE-FOR-ALL PACE

TUESDAY NIGHT—FREE-FOR-ALL TROT

THURSDAY AFTERNOON—FREE-FOR-ALL PACE

FRIDAY NIGHT — FREE-FOR-ALL TROT

Outstanding horses including Free-For-Allers not entered in published list will be given an opportunity to race in overnight events, weather permitting.

The track at the Charlottetown Driving Park is lightning fast and records have been toppling with some of the fastest miles in the Maritimes being recorded.

Climaxing as it does the horse racing season in these seaside provinces, Charlottetown will be the mecca for racing enthusiasts from near and far Old Home Week.

DON'T MISS AN AFTERNOON OR NIGHT!*BRITISH CONSOLS TROPHY

SQUARE DANCING

An innovation to this year's program in front of the main grand stand will be a Square Dance competition sponsored by Canada Packers and the Exhibition Association.

The performances will get underway each evening at 7.30.

This form of entertainment has "caught on" in other cities and towns and interest here in the old-time square sets is at a high pitch.

At the Royal Winter Fair and other such gatherings Square Dancing has proved immensely popular and young and old should derive great pleasure from the performances to be staged Old Home Week.

LIVE STOCK

Live Stock enthusiasts will really have something to "oh and ah" about in this year's exhibits. Without doubt they are representative of the finest specimens in the Province. Many new breeders are showing and judges will have a difficult time in deciding the "best of the show."

The judging always attracts keen interest and its a sure bet this year that the stand for spectators at the Judging Ring will be crowded to see the cream of Island Live Stock on parade.

Once again we take pride in the fact that our encouragement coupled with that of the Dominion and Provincial Governments, has brought our standard of quality so high that we are known throughout the length and breadth of the American continent as among the best producers of special types of Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Swine and Poultry.

We want everyone to take an interest and lend encouragement to this very important side of our Old Home Week program. Our exhibitors are in know small way contributing to the prosperity of the Garden of the Gulf.

We invite and urge the public to visit the numerous Live Stock barns which will be crowded with cattle valued at many thousands of dollars.

VAUDEVILLE PROGRAM

A variety of entertainment will feature the Vaudeville again this year. Seven acts are on the program and they run the gamut of thrilling aerial acrobatics to the astonishing performances of trained seals.

Here are reviews of some of the acts:—

THE SILVER CONDORS

One of the most awe-inspiring thrill acts will be the Silver Condors, a young, fearless team of aerial acrobats.

The Silver Condors use a completely non-conventional rigging that reaches high into the air. Their performance aloft is completely non-conventional, too, for, disdainful of danger, and without benefit of safety devices of any kind, The Silver Condors disport themselves on high in a most dazzling display of skill and utter nervelessness. In rapid succession, they perform incredible feats on trapezes, rings and tight wire, and court disaster on the slender and treacherously limber sway pole located at the topmost part of their rigging. In a demonstration of their masterful flair for showmanship, The Silver Condors intermingle with their gasp-provoking stunts the ultimate in mirth-provoking comedy. It's a refreshing blend of entertainment that is altogether thrilling and delightful.

ROSALES SISTERS

The Rosales Sisters, Aida and Tela, do an acrobatic shoulder perch act. This consists of one of the girls, known as the understander, supporting and balancing a flexible 30-foot pole on her shoulder. The other girl is perched at the very top of the pole where she performs an intricate set of acrobatic and contortionistic maneuvers.

Few women have managed to fill the difficult role of understander which requires superlative muscle and strength plus a perfect sense of balance. No other woman has succeeded in supporting a partner performing at the top of a 30-foot perch.

Contrary to the logical assumption, the Rosales Sisters are youthful, comely and shapely. If anything, they say, their grueling physical routine has a tendency to keep them in the best physical shape. To see them work in perfect synchronization is to believe them.

ROLAND TIEBOR'S SEALS

Capt. Roland Tiebor's seals will hold the spotlight during one of the featured performances.

Capt. Tiebor, who is an up-state New Yorker, learned his unusual trade from his father, who was one of the first men to train a seal. When performing their routine to the Captain's spoken commands, it really seems as though they realize how fortunate they are to be under the kindly care of Capt. Tiebor instead of adorning the frame of some Broadway chorus girl, like many of their less fortunate brothers and sisters. No one seal can be given more attention than the other or have more tricks to perform during the routine. If the Captain shows more affection for any one of the seals, then the other immediately becomes jealous and the act goes to pieces.

MORRISON SISTERS

The Morrison Sisters, "Sweethearts of Harmony", are remembered as child entertainers, who made their professional debut in 1941 in Hartford, Connecticut, where, at the ages of 7, 10, and 11, they were the youngest harmony singing trio in radio, broadcasting regularly over the National Broadcasting Company station in that city. From that beginning they branched out with personal appearances all over New England and graduated to the nation-wide ranks under direction of the Al Martin Agency of Boston, which is responsible for their bookings at county and State fairs, amusement parks and other outdoor spots.

POULTRY

The Exhibition will be a mecca for poultry enthusiasts. The best of the live ones will be on display in the special Poultry Building. Now a big business, interest in poultry extends from one end of the Province to the other.

Exhibits will include handicraft and home-cooking and preserving, etc. In addition there will be a display of flowers and attractively arranged booths.
