Hampton And Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bennett, Moncton, N.B., and bonny wee son, who have been enjoying a holiday visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Calbeck, left on return to their home, by car, on July 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyman Falconer have left on return to their home following an enjoyable visit among relatives and friends, guests of Mrs. Falconer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dixon, DeSable.

Sympathy of the many friends of Mrs. MacPherson is extended to her in the sudden death of her sister at Reeds Ferry, N.H., with whom she resided for many years. This sister suffered a fall resulting in a broken hip, and other injuries from which she failed to recover.

Veteran mechanic and garage operator Mr. Jim Campbell has been greatly missed during his illness, an attack of virus pneumonia. Best wishes are extended for his early recovery.

It is pleasing to learn that the condition of Mr. Reginald Thomas, and Mr. True Gillis, who have been hospitalized through injuries received, the former by car, the latter in Ives' Mill, are gradually recovering, and are anticipating an early return to their respective duties. It has also been reported that the illness of Mrs. Alex Dawson has reached the turning point, and that she is now convalescing.

The weather man speaks favorably for haymaking operations, and notwithstanding some gloomy predictions, all signs point to an abundant harvesting of all crops. The dearth of farm help is greatly facilitated by the co-operation of farmers with the use of modern implements and machinery, and the desired end to redeem the 1953 setback, will be favorable weather conditions and good markets.

The parable of the Good Shepherd was inspiringly set forth as a guide to all at the services of public worship, in the churches here on July 11 and, like Phelix, are saying: "This is not a matter for immediate attention: Go thy way." Consideration of the young people of the district possessing musical and vocal talents, that they may be organized to form a junior choir which would serve to improve this important part of the church services, from time to time, is being given.

The July meeting of Hampton-DeSable W.M.S. was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Petersen, DeSable, on July 6. The president, Mrs. Dixon, conducted the meeting. A visiting former member, Mrs. Ella MacPherson, was warmly welcomed and in an earnest address, inspired the members to greater concentration of time, talents and opportunity for service. The president invited the members to her house for the August meeting. Lunch was served by Mrs. Petersen and committee, and an enjoyable social period spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Falconer, accompanied by Mr. Jack Dixon, had an enjoyable motor trip on July 6, briefly, visiting Wood Islands, Montague, and Souris. At Souris they were courteously shown through the fine modern plant of the Eastern Fisheries Ltd., where in the various departments a large staff of workers were busily processing the usual large daily delivery of fish at this plant for market requirements, the largest market being in the U.S.A. It would be of advantage to many to visit this plant and gain first hand information concerning the modern processing work, being daily carried on therein, and find a courteous management staff ready to give detailed information to visitors as they are being shown through.

Somewhat suddenly, yet not without warning to those left to mourn, Emma, beloved wife of Mr. Harry MacKenzie, for 12 years an invalid, after having battled gallantly during her illness, passed away recently. A message of comfort to the bereaved, and encouragement to the living, was heard by the large assembly of relatives and friends, in the Church at Hampton, and at the cemetery assembled to express tributes of love and respect for a faithful devoted wife, mother and friend. An augmented choir sang the favorite hymns of the deceased, and pallbearers were Messrs. Joseph Dunford, Homer Provencher, Melville Higgins, Harry Dunford, Hector MacNevin, DeSable, and Hector MacNevin, Bonshaw, bore all that was mortal to her last resting place. Interment was in Orsaud Cemetery.
