Major W. Poole Dies In Hospital

The death of Major William Herbert Poole, O.B.E., of Charlottetown occurred at the Prince Edward Island Hospital Monday morning. He was 64 years of age.

The late Mr. Poole was born in Montague, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Poole. He was a former president of Poole and Thompson Limited of Montague and at the time of his death was electrical inspector for the provincial government, a position he held for 18 years.

A veteran of the First World War, Major Poole served with the Royal Canadian Regiment in France from 1915-1919 as a lieutenant. He served from 1921-31 with the P.E.I. Lighthorse Regiment, rose to the rank of major and commanded "C" Squadron in Montague.

A past president of the Montague branch of the Canadian Legion, Major Poole was also sonic Lodge. A keen sportsman a member of the Hillside Mahe was a member of the P.E.I. Rifle Association and an ardent fisherman.

Survivors include his wife, the former Florence Brown of Wood Islands; four sisters, Crete, Mrs. Edward Hazen, Regina, Sask.; Della, Mrs. George M. Schurman, Yarmouth, N.S.; Sybil, Mrs. S. C. MacLean, Montague, P.E.I. and Eileen, Mrs. Lloyd Flaitz, Rutland, Vermont.

Ladies Hospital Auxiliary Meets

MONTAGUE — The regular monthly meeting of the Kings County Hospital Ladies Auxiliary was held at the nurses residence Friday evening with thirteen members and one visitor present.

The president, Mrs. Byron presided and the meeting opened with the Lord's prayer in unison.

The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. E. H. Stewart, who also presented the financial report.

A bill for mending and one for having the piano tuned were presented and ordered paid.

The president reported for the ways and means committee. Plans were finalized for holding a chain of social affairs in aid of the hospital, the particular form of entertainment to be left to each individual member.

At the close of the meeting a sale of articles was in charge of Mrs. Robert Machon and a substantial sum was realized. Lunch was served by the president, assisted by Mrs. Callum Bruce. Pianists during the evening were Mrs. E. H. Stewart and Mrs. Archie Hume.
