MISCELLANEOUS BRITISH AND FOREIGN NEWS.

The following detachments have been placed under orders to proceed from Chatham to Liverpool on Wednesday next, there to embark on board the mail steamer for conveyance to Canada, viz:—Fifteen non-commissioned officers and men of the 3d brigade Royal Artillery, four men of the 4th brigade Royal Artillery, 13 men of all ranks of the Royal Engineers, two officers and 70 non-commissioned officers and men of the 30th Regiment, 50 non-commissioned officers and men of the 29th Regiment, one officer and 72 men of all ranks of the 1st battalion of the 15th Regiment, and two officers and 91 non-commissioned officers and privates, of the 1st battalion of the 22nd Regiment, with three soldiers', wives and nine children; total, 315 men of all ranks, and 12 women and children.

Several of our London contemporaries, understand that H. R. H. the Duke of Cambridge has received commands from Her Majesty to make arrangements for a grand review of regular troops in Hyde Park towards the end of this month. With this view some regiments will be brought from Aldershot, and artillery from Woolwich and elsewhere. The total number of men of all arms is likely to reach ten thousand. Her Majesty, it is said, has signified her intention of being present in person. It would seem as if the comments of the press upon her Majesty's continued seclusion had not been without effect.

Queen Isabella has determined to hasten her visit to Paris, and will be there, it is now said, on July 1st, and will go to Rome subsequently. In that case she will miss the grand fetes which are just about to commence in the latter city.

No fewer than 136,000 persons visited the Paris Exhibition one day this week. The crowd was so enormous that forty ladies fainted or became otherwise indisposed, and had to be taken to the medical bureau attached to the Exhibition.

Garibaldi is ill in the neighbourhood of Florence. His designs upon Rome are, to say the least, adjourned. The Pope will be allowed to receive his episcopal visitors in peace. The only signs of life which the Party of Movement now give here to spread reports of the appearance of cholera in the Eternal City, by way of frightening their reverences.

Directly the news arrived that Maximilian was to be tried by court-martial, the French Government, and it is believed the English also, sent urgent despatches requesting that the life of the Emperor might be spared.

The blockade runner Arkadi, which runs between Greece and Crete, had a narrow escape from capture on her 13th voyage. She had embarked a number of wounded and sick off the coast of Sphakia, when a Turkish brig hove in sight and opened fire on the Arkadi, being then in Greek waters. The latter vessel returned the fire, and an engagement followed, which lasted for three hours. Other Turkish vessels then appeared, and being outnumbered, the Greek disembarked her passengers and took refgue in a small creek, where she was blockaded for two days. On the night of the second day she escaped unseen, and when morning dawned the Turks were very much surprised to find the intended victim gone. They were angry. The affair, it is said, will not end here, inasmuch as the Turks fired upon a Greek vessel in Greek waters, and thereby violated the law of nations, Greece and Turkey being not formally at war.

Europe is very anxious to restore the blessings of peace—more anxious than South America is to receive them, apparently. Active negociations are going on between the diplomatists of France, England, Spain, and the United States, for bringing about arrangements between Spain and the two Republics of Chili and Peru, on the one hand, and between Paraguay and Brazil and her allies, on the other.

The French papers mention as a noticeable fact that Mr. Bancroft, when leaving the United States for his new post as Minister at Berlin, embarked on board a German vessel. They say that the United States Government has given instructions against English vessels being used by American officials.

The Cologne correspondent of the Liberte declares that on that side of the Rhine the Paris Exhibition is looked upon as only a temporary guarantee of peace, and that in Germany politicians forsee war, and military men expect it without desiring it. The same writer says that the defences of Strasburg are being carried on night and day.

THE GREAT GATHERING AT ROME.

Rome, June 27.—There are more arrivals here of persons to witness the ceremonies in honor of the coronation of martyrs. Four hundred Bishops and thirty thousand clergy are in the city; among these are five American Archbishops, one from each of the following cities: Baltimore, St. Louis, New Orleans, Cincinnati and Philadelphia; also, twenty-two American Bishops. When the Pope received the American clergy they presented to him $200,000 in gold. The model of the yacht Henrietta in silver, laden with gold coin, was presented by Archbishop Wood. The Pope, in lifting the model from its case, said, smiling, "Non Eun Vapore," (not all steam,) alluding to the golden cargo. To the clergy he said he had only pleasant things to say of Americans, and complimented them upon the progress of the church in America. He also spoke in the highest terms of Gen. King, and of his father, Professor King, who now lies at the point of death. Archbishops Spaulding and Purcell are on the committee to prepare a reply to the Pope's allocution. The Council will probably meet in November. Archbishop Purcell will occupy the post of honor on the right of the Pope at the ceremonies on Saturday. Every attention has been shown to Americans.

Rome, June 27.—The public consistory was held to-day, and was attended by some four hundred Bishops from all parts of the world. The Pope, in his allocution, praised the zeal they had exhibited in coming to Rome, and their attachment to the See. He said the example of the union of the church to celebrate the canonization of Martyrs and of the 18th centennial of the Martyrdom of St. Peter, would show its enemies the immense power of the church. The Pope also confirmed the condemnation of errors of Oct. 29, 1865, and expressed a desire to convoke at an early day a Council to repair the evils which oppress the church. The allocution closed by a bestowal of the benediction upon the Bishops.

New York, June 30. A special cable dispatch from Rome says the religious ceremony in the celebration of the eighteen hundredth anniversay of St. Peter's martyrdom, and in reverence of St. Paul and the canonization of the twenty-five Dutch, French and Spanish martyrs in Japan as saints, was one of the most gorgeous witnessed in the world, since the days of King Solomon. The observances commenced with a general illumination of the city. St. Peter's shone like a great church on fire.

At 7 A. M. a grand procession of prelates, priests, monks and soldiers proceeded from the Vatican to St Peter's. The pope was carried on his throne. St. Peter's was magnificently decorated with cloths of gold, silver tapestries, paintings and 200,000 yards of crimson silk, lighted with many millions of wax candles.—One hundred thousand people were inside the church, including the ex King of Naples, Foreign ministers, 500 Cardinals, Archbishops and Bishops, many thousand clergymen, friars and monks, nuns and soldiers from all parts of the world. The Pope celebrated the Gregorian mass in Latin and Greek. Two interruptions occurred, viz, the curtains of one of the windows took fire, which was promptly extinguished, and a man became crazed by the splendors and cut his throat. The Pope at once reconsecrated the church stained with the blood of the suicide. Litz composed the extra music for the grand mass, which was accompanied by a chord on the dome of St. Peter's and cannon at the castle of St. Angelo. The observances will continue a week.

A Brilliant Idea but a Strange One.—A truly "brilliant" idea has been started by a French chemist in the Gazette Medicale de Lyon. His theory is that all dead bodies of human beings are at present wasted, when they might as well be utilised for illuminating purposes. He remarks: "Coal is being exhausted, and since the human carcase is capable of supplying a gas of good illuminating power, why should it not be employed to this end? By a process of combustion in retorts a corpse of common dimensions may be made to yield twenty-five cubic metres of illuminating gas, which, at a cost of twenty-five centimes per cubic metre would give a value of about eight francs for a body of ordinary size." We have never despaired of obtaining a perpetual supply of fuel, but we must confess that we had looked to a different source for the street-lamps of the future. In Bombay a proposal was seriously made some time ago that the bodies of the dead Hindoos should each day be cast into a properly constructed furnace, and that the city should be lighted with the gaseous result. The device would be profitable, simple, and salubrious; and although the conception of sending one's rich uncle, say, to the gas-works, just as the Sunday "joint and potatoes" are now sent to the baker's oven, is somewhat bizarre, there would be a charm, nevertheless, for well-disposed people in the prospect of being useful after their dissolution. Even the dull might take great comfort in the certainty that their gas, at least, would be as brilliant as that of the wittiest. Moore would have discerned a highly poetical fancy in the plan of lighting up a ball-room with the body which had erst danced there while "all alive"—in our being "turned on" when death turned us off. Had the bard but survived to read the Gazette Medicale, without doubt he would have written, "When in death I shall calm recline, O take my corpse to the gas-works, dear!"

McKenzie's Confectionary Establishment.—Last spring we had occasion to invite a public examination of Mr. Watson's newly opened Drug Store, Victoria Building. We have a similar duty to perform now, and we do it with equal pleasure, in reference to Mr. Alexander McKenzie's Confectionary establishment in the same block. Mr. McKenzie's shop is the same size as Mr. Watson's, and with the exception of the gilding on the edges of the shelves, &c., is finished in the same tasteful manner. At night, when its gas burners are all lit up it looks really beautiful with its tiers of glass bottles exposed to view, reflecting the various colors of their contents. Mr. Watson's place of business is the neatest of the kind we have ever seen; it is not going too far to say that his neighbor, Mr. McKenzie, owns the handsomest Confectionary establishment in the British Provinces, and what is of at least equal importance, its shelves are always filled with the cheapest and best articles in his line of trade.—Patriot.

CITY COUNCIL.

July 2d, 1867.

His Worship Theophilus DesBrisay, Esqr., on taking the chair as the newly elected Mayor of the City, said, that since the preceding meeting of that Board his fellow-citizens were pleased to elect him Mayor of this his native City. The high honor thus conferred on him he neither sought for nor solicited; his election, therefore, might very justly be termed the free choice of a free and independent people. He observed that though he possessed the experience of a great many years as a Magistrate, and had been for nine years a member of the City Council Board, it was with no small degree of timidity he assumed the important duties of Chief Magistrate, feeling as he did that he was but a very unworthy successor to their late lamented Head, who was universally acknowledged to be, in every way, preeminently qualified for the office of Mayor. Relying, however, on the advice and assistance of the Council, which, as was his duty, he would always with pleasure seek, touching all matters affecting the material interests of the City, and supported as he trusted he would be by their able advice and assistance, he hoped their united labors would conduce to the welfare and prosperity of the City. He had no doubt that the unanimity and good feeling which had hitherto prevailed at the Council Board would continue to characterize the proceedings of the City Council. His Worship concluded his remarks by stating that he had taken the necessary oaths, as prescribed by law, and had caused advertisements and precepts to be issued and published relative to the vacany at the Council Board caused by his promotion to the Mayor's Chair.

The Council Board then congratulated His Worship on his elevation to the office of Mayor of the City of Charlottetown.

Minutes of previous meeting was then read by the Clerk and approved. Leave of absence for one month was granted to his honor the Recorder, he being about to proceed on an excursion to the United States and the New Dominion of North America.

Tenders for finishing the upper Hall in the New Market House were then opened, when the tender of W. D. Galloway for the Plastering, and that of W. & D. Fraser for wood work, being the lowest, was accepted.—Ordered that the sum of £50 be paid to M. Butcher, Esq., for his Services as Superintendent of the building of the New Market House, and a further sum of £14 7s 6d for Plans as architect of the said building.

Arsenault, Esq, M P P, of Egmont Bay.

A New Cunard Steamer—A splendid addition has been made to the fleet of Messrs. Cunard, the fine screw steamship Russia having lately arrived in the Mersey from the Clyde, where she was built by Messrs James and George Thomson. She is a very handsome, as well as a very strong vessel, 370 feet in length over all; beam, 43 feet; depth of hold, 29 feet; tonnage, 3100. She is propelled by a screw fan of great power, driven by engines capable of working up to over 3000 horse power. On her trial trip the Russia gave great satisfaction to the Admiralty officials, running over the Admiralty measured mile, both with and against the tide, and giving a mean speed of fully 15 knots per hour. The Russia is, we believe, the largest screw steamer in the possession of the Cunard Company, and is one of the most magnificent of that wonderful sisterhood of vessels. She has ample accommodation for 300 first-class passengers.

Another Attempt at Burglary.—About 5 o'clock on Monday morning, Mr. Alexander McKenzie, confectioner, discovered a fellow busily engaged with a crow-bar endeavoring to break into his shop on Kent street. The sweet-mouthed thief—who had paid two similar friendly visits on former occasions, and abstracted a lot of pound-cake and confectionary on each visit.—took the alarm, and, in his hasty retreat, left his crow-bar behind him. Although hotly pursued by Mr. McKenzie, the would-be burglar succeeded in making his escape. We trust, however, that justice will yet overtake him, and accord to him his proper deserts.

(Since writing the foregoing we learn that the burglar, whose name is McLeod, has been captured by Policeman McKinnon.)—Her.

Holloway's Pills.—Diarrhœa and Bowel Complaints.—These maladies are ever present, and if left unattended frequently terminate fatally. It should be everywhere known that both cholera and diarrhœa depend on the presence of some undigested substance in the stomach or bowels, or some deleterious matter in the blood, and that Holloway's Pills can expel either with ease and expedition. They concentrate in a surprising degree purifying, alterative, regulating and strengthening qualities, and thus exert over every internal organ the wholesomely, controlling influence so necessary for subduing excessive action in the human frame. Holloway's medicine may be advantageously taken as a means of keeping the blood pure and the body cool—the only practical plan for maintaining health in youth, manhood, and old age.

A Montreal despatch reports that every city, town and village in the Dominion agrees in the unanimity and heartiness with which Confederation Day was celebrated. No previous event in the history of the country has called forth such rejoicing.

Thomas Hughes, aged 23, a native of Summerside, P. E. Island, was drowned from on board the brig Union, at Mayagandavie, N. B.

Died,

At Mount Pleasant, Lot 12, on the 22nd of June, Mr Alexander McDougald, aged 51 years, after a severe stroke of sickness of four days, which he bore with Christian fortitude. He has left a disconsolate wife and ten children to mourn their irreparable loss. He was a man of great moral rectitude and sterling virtue; at the time of his decease he was W. C. T. of the I. O. of Good Templars, of Hope Temple, M. P.

Thus passed away a soul with virtue fired,
As ever yet by force of death expired;
In every respect which my pen could scan
He was the type and pattern of an honest man.

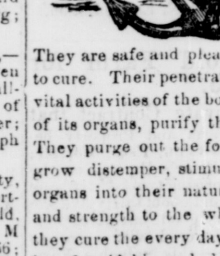
Ayer's Cathartic Pills



Are the most perfect purgative we are able to produce, and, as we think, has ever yet been made by any body. Their effects have abundantly shown to the community how much they excel the other medicines in use. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart tone and strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every day complaints of everybody, but formidable and dangerous diseases. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and, being purely vegetable, are entirely harmless. Cures have been made that would surpass belief, were they not substantiated by men of such exalted character, as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians certify to the public the reliability of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurance of their conviction that our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of our afflicted fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use of these medicines and certificates of their cures of the following complaints:—

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Diseases which require an evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred disorders arising from a low state of the body, or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations on which they make more profit. Demand Ayer's and take no others. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co, Lowell, Mass. and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere.

Lloyd's Register of British and Foreign Shipping.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

NOTICE IS HERBY GIVEN, that in pursuance of Resolutions passed by the Committee of this Society, the Rules and Regulations for the Building and Classification of Wood Ships have been amended, as under, viz:

Section 39 has been amended, as regards the fitting of diagonal iron plates on the frames of Ships constructed with long and short armed floors, and in this respect will be altered as follows:—

Ships of great length in proportion to their breadth or depth.

All Ships, the length of which (measured from the fore part of the stem to the aft part of the stern-post on the range of upper-deck) shall exceed five times their extreme breadth, or eight times and under nine times their depth, shall have diagonal iron plates closely inserted outside the frame.* The said plates to extend from the upper side of upper tier of beams to the lower part of chocks at first foothook heads amidships, and to the same perpendicular height forward and aft, measured from the lower part of the keel. When Ships are constructed with long and short armed floors, the said plates are to extend to half way between long floor heads and first foothook heads; the size of the plates not to be less than as follows, viz:—

In Ships of 100 tons and under 200 tons, 3½ by seven-sixteenths inch.
In Ships of 200 tons and under 400 sons 4 by ½ inch.
In ships of 400 tons and under 700 tons, 4½ by ⅝ in.
In Ships of 700 tons and under 1000 tons 5 by ⅝ in.
In Ships of 1000 tons and under 1500 tons 5½ by thirteen-sixteenths.
In Ships of 1500 tons and under 2000 tons 6 by ⅞.
In Ships of 2000 tons and above, 6½ by ⅞ in.

and to be fastened with bolts, one at each alternate timber, not less in diameter than the size given for "through butt bolts" in table D. The plates to be well protected by proper coating, likewise the timbers to be coated in the scores which are to receive the said plates.

Section 62 has been also altered in accordance with the above.

Section 46 has been amended, as regards treenails, by requiring that in all cases they shall be "efficiently caulked or wedged."

Table A has been amended by reducing the period of classification of White Cedar for third foothooks and top timbers, to the five years' grade, and omitting this material altogether for main pieces of rudder and windlass.

* Parties objecting to fit the iron plates on frames, as prescribed above, are at liberty to submit through the resident Surveyor, for the Committee's consideration and approval, such compensation as will, in their opinion, render the introduction of the iron plates unnecessary.

By order of the Committee,
GEORGE B. SEYFANG, Sec'y.

MANNY'S Reaping and Mowing MACHINES.

THE Subscriber would inform the Farmers of P. E. Island that he has now on the way to the Island a goodly number of those CELEBRATED MACHINES. Also, a number of the far-famed UNION MOWERS, together with quite a number of WHITCOMB'S PATENT HORSE RAKES—the same he sold here the last season, and that has given so much satisfaction to those that used them, which they will fully confirm and agree to when asked by any of you—and would also state that he has ordered a number of the BUCKEYE REAPING and MOWING MACHINES, which will soon be here.

As money seems to be quite an article here at this time, and very difficult to get hold of, the Subscriber would beg leave to say, that those parties who may wish to pay money for any of those Machines he will make a liberal deduction from last year's prices, while to those who may wish a long credit on the Machines may be assured of the same libera terms as usual, say from one to three seasons, divided into equal payments, as the parties may agree upon at the time of purchase.

NEW TRIUMPHS OF ROGERS' MEDICINES.

Run your eye over them and tell your affected neighbour about it.

Pugwash, June 8, 1863.

Messrs. Rogers & Co.,

Dear Sirs—I beg to inform you that your medicine has effected a complete cure of the Tumour or Cancer on my lip. It had existed about one year, and continued to grow worse continually, until I got your salve; which cured it in about six weeks.

I also was troubled with an ulcer on my ear, which was occasioned by having my ear frozen about twenty years ago, and never could get any medicine to heal it. The doctors told me it never could be healed; but your medicine cured the cancer so effectually, that I was induced to try it on my ear, and it cured it in a very short time, and has since continued well.

WILLIAM FRASER.

Pugwash, May 29, 1863.

Messrs. Rogers & Co.:

Gentlemen—I think it a duty I owe to you and the public, to state the following facts, as well for the benefit of humanity as in justice to yourself—although it should have been done long before this; but better late than never.

About four or five years ago I had a cancer in my breast, which had been coming on for a long time before; but at last it became very painful, with sharp and severe pains darting through it at certain times. I being afraid to submit to the operation, and hearing that you had cured many cancers, I, as you know, applied to you, and submitted to your treatment, and used your medicine, and in a few months was thoroughly cured, and have been in perfect health ever since. I would wish this to be made public, for the benefit of others.

Yours with much gratitude,
ELIZABETH RYAN.

We know of no worse case—judging from the description given by letter—than that of a son of W. B. Weldon, Esq., of Kouchibouguac, N. B. He was reduced to a mere skeleton. He suffered most intense pain for many months. His leg was ulcerated, and the bone diseased, a large ulcer on his chin and face. Medicine and skill utterly failed, until all hope of saving his life was gone. Mr. Weldon's was a sorrowful house, no doubt, until our wonderful medicine dispelled the gloom. The lad is now nearly well, smart, cheerful, and happy. The parents, too, look more cheerful, and have lighter hearts, we judge, by the cheering tone of their letters. It is refreshing to us to be thus the instruments of good to afflicted humanity. What care we for the slanders of the unprincipled! One motto is onward. Our business is to save human life, and cause the suffering and sorrowing to to rejoice; and to make money, you will add. Yes, certainly, we respond: and do you not think we deserve some of the large sum annually sent to brother Jonathan for useless articles.

Mr. Thomas Faulkner, of East River, Pictou, N. S, is cured of a sore leg of nineteen years standing. The best physicians in the Province, after exhausting their skill, recommended amputation as the only remedy. His health was very much reduced, but is now completely restored.

Mrs. Hannah Balmain, of Wickham, N. B. after using our medicine for over one year, for an ulcerated cancer of the breast, writes us under date of Oct. 15, 1863 as follows:—

"My breast is doing well; there is but one small lump on it now. It only discharges from one ulcer; the rest are all healed up. I have not enjoyed such good health for several years, as I do now. I have only received three bottles of your Syrup since I last wrote. Being a poor woman, it is out of my reach, or I would be entirely well before now."

It would occupy too much space to give a full history of this case. It was a bad one, however. She was preserved, and the result will be a final cure, we judge. Let no man say in future that ulcerated cancer cannot be cured.
