HE TELLS IT HIMSELF.

A West Oxford farmer Narrowly Escapes Premature Burial—The Causes of his Threatened Fate and Lucky Escape.

INGERSOLL, Oct. 8.—W. H. Bailey of West Oxford township, claims to have only narrowly escaped premature burial a short time ago. He had had kidney disease for four years back and so badly at times that he was completely laid up. Many doctors treated him, but their treatment, in Mr. Bailey's, opinion, made him worse rather than better. His escape from a premature grave was effected by the use of the infallible Dodd's Kidney Pills. Three boxes of these cured him completely. Mr. Bailey claims to be able now to do a bigger day's work than his twenty-four year old son.

Munich sets an example to the civilized world. The city requires all persons to close their windows while playing on the piano.

A Comfort Sometimes.

When health is far gone in Consumption, sometimes only ease and comfort can be secured from the use of Scott's Emulsion. What is much better is to take this medicine in time to save your life.

Clara—Dear me! Those toilet things I ordered have'nt come.

Maude—Then I don't suppose you'll have the face to go to the ball to-night.

In some industries and enterprises it is enough to mention a name to inspire immediate confidence. Priestley's dress fabrics are known throughout the world. They are chiefly made in black, plain or fancy, and black and white. They are exquisite in beauty, and drape with a soft harmoniousness of ensemble which no other dress fabrics can equal. These goods are now on sale in Canada by first-class dealers. The trade mark is "The Vanished Board" on which these goods are wrapped.

Tailor (to collector who has just returned from a dilatory customer)—Well, did he seem very much annoyed to see you?

Collector—On the contrary he asked me to call again.

The most palatable preparation of Cod Liver Oil in the world is Miller's Emulsion and is now been taken by invalids with astonishing success. Millers is the kind that cures coughs,colds,broncitis and all throat and lung troubles. Every bottle warranted. No oily taste like others. In big bottles, 50c. and $1.00, at druggists.

A Sad Mistake.—Mr. Fondparent—It's a pity that boy ain't twins.

Mrs Fondparent—Because we might name them Cherubim and Seraphim for they continually do cry.

Nervousness may well be describded as a national disease in this age of rush and worroy. Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic is the greatest restorer of wasted nerve force.

Mrs Green—A woman has to marry a man to find him out.

Mr G—Then she finds him out a good deal, doesn't she?

For chilblains, frosted feet and all cuts and pain, use Pond's Extract. Genuine in bottles only.

At school.—Ella—Did you know, Lizzie, that we are in half-mourning?

Lizzie—No. Is anyone half-dead in your house?

Have you ever stopped to think how perfectly needless it is that one out of a hundred of those who now die in early life as a result of Lung troubles, should do so? If, when first threatened with weak Lungs, a few bottles of PUTTNER'S EMULSION OF COD LIVER OIL WITH PANCREATINE AND HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA, were judiciously administered to the invalid, in nine cases of ten, an early and permanent restoration to health and vigor would result.

The age of a tree can be estimated by counting its rings, but it isn't so with a woman.

There is a magic in the perfect costume It makes beauty more powerful than the sovereigh. It is the brilliant setting for beauty; and for those who have not the conquering power of looks, it lends the illusion of them. Some ladies say: "It is not so much the material as the make up.' But the right material must be there, or you cannot have a creation. Priestley's dress fabrics are noted for the beautiful result they realize in the hands of the modiste, draping and fitting the figure with exquisite grace. The trade mark is "The Varnished Board.

"Doctor," said Mrs Weeds, "I can't get it out of my head that possibly my poor dear husband was buried alive."

"Nonsense!" snorted Dr. Peduncle, "Didn't I attend him myself in his last illness!"

For Over Fifty Years.

AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winsloe's Soothing Syrup has beed used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures the colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasnt to the taste. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winsloe's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.—m. w. f. wkly—l y

Obedient.—Mother—Where were you during that thunder storm?

Boy—Over in that field with a big tree in it.

Mother—But I have told you distinctly many, many times never to stand under a tree during a thunder-storm.

Boy—I didn't. I sat down.

The Freisinnige Zeitung says: "We are drifting into a customs war with America. If German agrarians succeed in getting Chancellor Von Caprivi on their side and the United States refuse to modify its sugar tariff, reprisals by Germany will mean an increase of the grain duty from 35 to 50 marks. Counter reprisals by the United States will follow, which will damage German commerce ten times more than did the Russian tariff war."

Kitty—I don't see why you need be so careful. Nice girls won't sue you for breach of promise.

Tom—But you can't find out whether they're nice or not until they bring the suit.

Dr. Manning's german remedy has cured hundreds of cases of rheumatism when all other remedies have failed. Fifty cents a bottle. All druggists sell it.

Berlin is to have an international matrimonial newspaper printed in three languages. Who says that love knows but one language?

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 11.—The annual conference of the Archbishop's Houses was held yesterday in the residence of Archbishop Ryan, of this city. The sessions were secret, the prelates were not inclined to talk but state that they had decided to recognize the Ancient Order of Hibernians as a most admirable society.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—Percival R. Neale, the Canadian customs officer who was arrested here on Sept. 18, charged with absconding with $6,000 belonging to the customs department of the Dominion of Canada, was committed at Bow street police court to-day for extradition to Regina, Assiniboia, Northwest territory.

Priestley's Dress Goods

A good name is more potent than thrones and kingdoms. In business a good name is vital. The name of Priestley is a synonym for what is delicate, durable and beautiful in Black Dress Goods. In England it is a household word. Priestley's dress fabrics are worn by the well dressed women of Great Britain, while on this side, they have attained to general favor. Ladies should buy no other black dress goods till they have seen Priestley's. They add to an unequalled durability, a beautiful draping quality. Women of taste understand what that means in the success of a costume.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ar

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
