Mr. O'Connor came to his death by falling between the cars of the train on which he was at work breaking. The accident occurred at 5 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, and Mr. O'Connor lived until Sunday morning at 7.

A WARNING TO OTHERS—The Summerside Farmer says: Mr. Elijah Linkletter came nearly being killed at the station here last Monday evening. As the express was backing up to the platform he made an attempt to board the train, but instead he got between two of the cars and only that Baggage-master Burns saved him he would undoubtedly have been severely injured—perhaps killed.

MASONIC BAZAAR—The Masonic Bazaar, which will be held in the Market Hall this (Thursday) evening, will be well worth attending. Don't fail to attend and bring a friend with you.

MARRIAGE BELLS—Mr. George S. Pearson, foreman of THE EXAMINER job printing establishment, and Miss Annie Gaudet, were united in marriage last evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Grafton Street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John B. Gough, in the presence of a number of the friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Pearson left this morning on a wedding trip to Boston. THE EXAMINER joins in the congratulations.

A NEW FOX TRAP—A few days ago, as Mr. Pierce, of Mann's Road, was walking around a neighboring field, he saw a fox leading her whelp through the fence on the opposite side. The vulpine brood consisted of three red and two black ones. He sat down beside the fence and waited till they gained the centre of the field. Then pulling off his boots, he jumped the fence and gave chase. The foxes at once turned for the woods, with a start of about fifty yards; but Mr. Pierce gained rapidly on them, and just as he overtook them stumbled and fell on a black one. The rest escaped. The little fellow is a good specimen and seems to be contented on bread and milk.—COM.

THIS CORNER
 is devoted to facts. Fiction and fancy are well enough in their place, but nothing suits the readers of advertisements like plain facts.

THE SILVER QUESTION
 is just now occupying a great deal of attention. Our impression is that such was the case last year and the year before—possibly previous even to that at our Store.
 A dollar in silver will buy a very hard some Summer Dress. We opened the goods yesterday, and never have we offered a better Cambrie for the money. The patterns are very desirable for both Dresses and Blouses.

THOSE GLOVES!
 There is only one opinion about those 29c Silk Gloves, viz, that they are an unprecedented bargain. Of course we have more expensive makes—and our Glove Department is always up to date with the latest novelties in Kid Gloves.

What Ails the Ancient Companies?

This is what ails them: The FEAR of CHANGE, which Milton says used to perplex monarchs when they saw a long tailed comet in the sky. The CHANGE is HERE; not heralded by a comet but by the New Yost, the perfect writing machine.

UNEQUALLED IN
 Principle of Construction,
 Operation and Alignment,
 Speed and Noiselessness,
 Beauty of Work & Manifolding,
 Clearness of Letter Press Copies.

NEW FEATURES:

- No Ribbon,
- No Shift Key,
- No Dirty Type to Clean,
- No Old-Fogy Ideas.

The history of the introduction of the Yost has been marvellous since its very inception. Never did a radical newcomer so rapidly replace its established rivals. Its long awaited improvements, however, gave it a hearty welcome, and to-day its following is world-wide and enthusiastic. Thousands of operators have tried and preferred it, and thousands of others—who lack the courage of their convictions—stick to the old machines for force of habit only—already acknowledge it as THE typewriter. And all of this wonderful success of the past has been won with the early model of the Yost, upon which the NEW YOST is a vast step in advance.
