

MR. AND MRS. JOHN SUTHERLAND AND ATTENDANTS

Double Ring Ceremony Joints Happy Couple

Baskets of white lilac and snow-lily with purple lupin created the real setting in the Summerside Presbyterian Church for a pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon when Sylvia Kaye, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bishop, Summerside, became the bride of John Sinclair Sutherland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Sutherland, Sea View.

"We Lift Our Hearts, O Father," during the signing of the register. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by her sister, Miss Helen Bishop, as bridesmaid. Little Miss Lynn Sutherland, niece of the groom, was flower girl. The groom was attended by Bryce Adams, Messrs. Gordon Sutherland, brother of the groom and Merrill Bishop, brother of the bride, ushered the guests to the pews which were marked with wedding bells and lancelot bows.

arrangement of Shasta 'mums and lighted tapers, was centred with a three-tier wedding cake encircled with lancelot and rosebuds. Mrs. Gordon Sutherland was in charge of the guest book. For a honeymoon trip to points of interest in the Eastern United States, the bride wore a sheath dress of pink linen with matching hat and shoes. Her corsage was of pink pinocchio roses, and she carried a white woe coat.

LEN'S DIARY

Bridge At Alderlea Is A Proposed Work Of Repair

Today, so summery and pleasant, bore our farmers off to an endeavour that had been for some time in prospect. After the crop is in they turned in the springtime, "we attend to that bridge."

This is the one which in the spans the millstream. Before began to sigh over this. How pretty that was in its Spring-lights, placidly quiet summer, full of the mingling, and colors of autumn, or in winter-white. Summer's there were silver paths of night and stars to catch in mory's seine. Winter often turned into a fairyland with hoar-frost.

While the bridge had been stoutly constructed to allow fairly heavy vehicles to pass, it nevertheless had not kept the times. We smile now to think of the conveyances and is once considered heavy horse-drawn, farm-wagons, carts and sleighs bringing in the farm its seasonal requirements, bearing off our potatoes pork.

An Ambassador Visits Prince Edward Island

Another of these most active career girls visits our province. Most of these glamorous (and clever!) girls have been tall but the recent visitor in the exquisite petite class, she was Miss Claudia Vincent, will ambassador for the Sal Shiff-Horsey Co. With Miss Vincent was Mr. Claude Lorange, her diplomatic person for his party. He has the dual qualities of being completely bilingual.

Miss Vincent's great gift was her very lovely speaking voice. The clarity and directness were pleasantly noticeable. The lack of any particular standard cosmopolitanism. Her good speaking voice is not wondered at because Miss Vincent holds a master's degree from the University of Toronto. There she had studied Dr. Gladys Borchers.

Miss Vincent was born in Wisconsin and came to this country at the University and career days. She is only child and her parents retired and still live there. She stayed for years in the Home Economics department. Then she took a year to be the Wisconsin Goodwill Ambassador also called Alice in Wonderland. What did this entail? It meant that she must prepare food products (especially of Wisconsin) and that she do lots of public speaking. We were all kinds of speaking engagements at clubs Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions, meeting state gov-

KINGSTON W.M.S.

The monthly meeting of the Kingston Women's Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. Alton Newman on Tuesday, July 1st.

The meeting opened with the worship service led by Mrs. Owen Younker. The opening hymn was "O For a Thousand Songs to Sing." The scripture reading, which was from John 1-42, was read in unison. PAINTS 'N' BRUSHES

Composition Is Perfect In "The Last Supper"

Do you ever think of the picture that you are struggling to make, as a composition? For that is what it is, just as a piece of music is a composition, or a poem. When you were at school you possibly had to write a composition each week. You chose a theme carefully, and that theme was developed through each sentence, each paragraph, and all tied up through a series of events to the climax.

RIGORS OF LIFE

Ultra-exclusive Denstone College boys' school Wednesday began preparing senior students for the rigors of adult life by bringing in a Halifax, N.S., businessman, David Duggdale, to lecture in the fine art of wine drinking.

Much sympathy is being expressed to the Bell family who have been called upon to undergo three bereavements in a very short space of time. Miss Joan Bell, a granddaughter and Mrs. John Bell, the grandmother died in April within two days of each other.

Thursday Mr. Percy Bell died very suddenly in Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bell, Mrs. W.G. Bruce and Mrs. (Dr.) Corrigan, left for Boston to attend the funeral.

Mr. A.N. Heartz of Saint John New Brunswick, is on a business trip to this province. Mr. Heartz is accompanied by his wife and his sons, Roderick and John.

Miss Helen Cushing Wilson of Saint John is visiting Mrs. J.H. Stevenson, 5 Grafton Street, Charlottetown.
