

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

MANTLES A SPECIALTY.—Beer Bros.

MASONIC.—The Brethren of Victoria Lodge, A. F. & M., will please remember the special meeting this evening to confer the first degree.

EXCURSION.—A daily number of excursionists left in the Jacques Cartier this morning for Pictou and New Glasgow. They will return this evening.

PAID THE FINE.—Fred E. Rowe, fined $50 and costs a few days ago for violating the Canada Temperance Act, contrived $54.15 to the city treasury this morning.

THE TREE.—The races at Amherst begin on Wednesday, and will be continued on the two following days. P. S. Brown left this morning with Hatawa and Goodwin.

'Twas NOT BROKEN.—Some person struck the large plate glass pane in Geo Carter & Co.'s show window with a good-sized stone this afternoon. But the glass was good and strong, and was not broken.

CRICKET.—The match between the Phoenix and Cabot clubs did not take place on Saturday as expected. Instead, a friendly game was played. The match will likely take place after the shooting at Ottawa.

COST OF THE STRIKE.—Bradstreet's estimate of the losses occasioned by the recent railway strike in the United States is above $80,000,000, of which the workmen, who instituted the strike, have to bear $5,000,000.

OF COURSE NOT.—The following lines which we find in one of our exchanges do not apply to any of our local fishermen: I like to sit and think and fish, And fish and sit and think, And think and fish and sit, I had another like.

KEEP ON SAILING.—The St. John Gazette says: A Prince Edward Island farmer has been detected scattering parts green in a neighbor's field for the purpose of poisoning his cattle. When a warrant was issued for his arrest he took an open boat and put to sea. It is hoped he will keep on sailing till he reaches the Canadian Islands.

WILL SEE FOR DAMAGES.—Capt. Coonan intends to institute proceedings, in an action for damages, against the Harvey and Havelock railway for injuries to his daughter, Miss Ethel Coonan, received last June. It will be remembered at that date two passenger cars went through the bridge over Shepody River, when Miss Coonan was badly injured. The amount claimed is $2,000.—St. John Telegraph.

TO BE SURE.—Why don't you run a newspaper like that? A groceryman said to a reporter the other day, throwing out a Chicago daily. "For the same reason that you don't run a grocery store like that," the reporter replied, "turning to an advertisement of a Chicago house-sweeping in a twelve-story building. The grocery man looked attentively at the picture a moment and said: I never looked at it that way before."—Ex.

A VALUABLE PRESENT.—The Montreal Transcript says: Rev. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Brewer were this morning the recipients of a handsome silver ice-cream pitcher from their friends Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wellier, of Charlottetown. The pitcher is a very handsome one, nicely designed and bears the following inscription: "Presented with kind regards to Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Brewer on their departure from Charlottetown, 1894, by Mr. W. W. and Mrs. Wellier."

AUSTRALIAN BUTTER IN CANADA.—An Ontario paper says: In many western towns Australian butter is used. It is stated that from Vancouver east along the line of the C. P. R., even to Sudbury, in Ontario, the traveller finds Australian butter on his table, chiefly, of course, in the C. P. R. dining car and refreshment stations. This seems almost an insult to Canadian butter, or Canadian dairymen, for no better butter can be made than in this country, if Canadians will.

UNITED STATES ILLITERATES.—The statistics of illiteracy in the United States are given for the first time in the abstract of the eleventh census. It is shown that of a total population of over ten years of age, 49,413,559, there are 6,324,702 illiterates, or over 13 per cent. The percentage of illiterates in the white population is over seven and a half, and of the colored population almost 57, the latter being over 60 per cent. in the Southern States. Of the total population the percentage of illiterates in the state groups are: North Atlantic, over six; South Atlantic, almost 31; North Central, almost 6; South Central, almost 30, and western, over eight.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon Richard Thorne was fined $50 and costs or two months imprisonment for violating the Canada Temperance Act by selling intoxicants on the street. Mr. Johnson, Thorne's counsel, gave notice that he would carry the matter to a higher court. The charge against John Wencout was dismissed. In this case a male lawyer was present, which the two witnesses examined swore did not have an intoxicating effect. The charge against William Hertz was further adjourned for one week, owing to the inability of a material witness to be present. Andrew Corish for being drunk and fighting on the streets on Saturday evening, was fined $2 and costs or 10 days' imprisonment.

LAIN TO REST.—The body of the late Rev. Malcolm Ross was laid to rest yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The Rev. C. W. Cury conducted the funeral service at the Baptist church, assisted by Rev. G. C. H. Palmer, J. C. Spurr of Cavendish, G. M. Campbell of the First Methodist church, and Rev. Donald MacNeil. The pallbearers were Messrs Nathan Davies, Wm. Boyle, G. Scantlebury, Ronald McMillan, Samuel Melia and A. B. MacKenzie.

The funeral of the late Mrs. John Murray took place yesterday afternoon, and the cortege was one of the largest seen in Charlottetown for some time. The service at St. Dunstan's Cathedral was conducted by Rev. D. B. Reid, assisted by Rev. Curran officiating at Tracadie. The pallbearers were Messrs P. Blake, J. B. Macdonald, F. McElroy, Geo. H. Toombs, Arthur S. Johnson and Walter P. Donli. The floral offerings were large, and showed the esteem in which the deceased was held.

A pretty pair of CHENILLE PORTIERES hung across the lower end of your hall would improve the appearance of it more than you would think, and a pair draped on that doorway that is always open would look very nice. If you would like to see the effect, send to Beer Bros. for a pair and try them.

We have a splendid range of CHENILLE CURTAINS and PORTIERES in prices from $3 to $13 a pair.
