

"Covers Prince Edward Island Like The Dew"

Department, CHA" OTTAWA, CANADA, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1963.

NOT MORE THAN SEVEN CENTS

14 PAGES

Abortion Hearing Sought Id Backing Sen T of Test Ban In U.S. Vote

SCHOLARSHIP WINNER MEETS PREMIER

Holder of a Rhodes scholarship, Frederick J. Arsenault, met Premier Walter R. Shaw yesterday. Mr. Arsenault flew to Montreal Wednesday where he joins 11 other Canadian scholarship winners for the trip to Oxford, England. He is the choice of Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick for the scholarship. Premier Shaw said he was "very proud" that a scholarship had been awarded to a resident of this province, "particularly a young fellow from our Acadian section."

Drastic Action Is Urged For Two Fronts By Dief

By JAMES NELSON
OTTAWA (CP) — Opposition Leader Diefenbaker urged the government Monday to take drastic action on two fronts when Parliament resumes next week after summer recess. He said at a press conference the Liberal administration of Prime Minister Pearson must act to put warring Great Lakes unions under a federal truce, and to expand credit facilities for foreign buyers of Canadian machinery and heavy equipment.

Underwriters Launch Pension Plan Probe

By DON HANRIGHT
OTTAWA (CP) — The Life Underwriters Association of Canada Monday it has a vigorous campaign to get a "thorough" look at the Pension Plan before it is introduced. The association's president, told a press conference that the industry should be carried out by a parliamentary committee to resolve "conflicting professional opinions" on the proposed wage-related contribution pension plan. "We are confused by the confusion of the experts," he said. The life insurance and trust companies on one side and the government on the other were defending their particular positions at this stage and "you don't get truth that way."

Direct Loans On Winter Homes Are Announced

OTTAWA (CP)—Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation will make direct loans to builders who continue to build homes during the winter months. Rev. James H. Garland, Minister of National Revenue, announced Monday. Previously, CMHC had such loans only if the houses were sold under contract. Mr. Garland's announcement said the plan will support the government's winter housing building incentive program. Applications from builders will be considered any time up to Dec. 31, he said. Detailed instructions would go to CMHC's offices this week.

Negro Arrested At Ole Miss Carrying Gun in Pocket

By DAVE McINTOSH
MEMPHIS (AP)—A Negro student was arrested Monday after carrying a .38-caliber handgun in his pocket. The student, James H. Meredith, was arrested at the University of Mississippi. He was carrying the gun in his pocket. He said he was arrested when it fell from his pocket. The student was arrested on charges of carrying a deadly weapon. The student was arrested on charges of carrying a deadly weapon. The student was arrested on charges of carrying a deadly weapon.

Injured Man Is Flown To Halifax

HALIFAX (CP) — Donald MacWilliams, 56, of Belfast, P.E.I., was flown to Halifax here Monday by an RCMP Dakota aircraft from Greenwood. The aircraft picked up MacWilliams in Charlottetown. He was suffering from a broken spine and other injuries.

Brothers Charged In Plaque Theft

QUEBEC (CP) — Brothers Jean-Paul and Rene Matte were ordered for trial Monday on charges of receiving a plaque stolen from the Plains of Abraham. The brothers were first charged with stealing the plaque, which commemorates the visit of the late King George VI and Queen Elizabeth to Canada in 1939, but they were freed of this charge. Three plaques disappeared from the plains. Police said they found one in the car driven by the Matte brothers.

NATO Official Arrested As Spy

PARIS (Reuters) — A French NATO official, Georges Paques, has been arrested on a charge of revealing French national defence secrets, sources close to the state security organs said Monday.

Indonesians Aid British In Guarding Vault Secrets

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Indonesian police Monday aided British diplomats to guard a vault containing atomic secrets. The vault is located in the British Embassy in Jakarta. The vault contains atomic secrets. The vault contains atomic secrets.

Haiti Accused Of Shelling Dominican Town

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — President Juan Bosch's government accused Haiti of shelling the Dominican border town of Dajabon Monday. The official Dominican report said Bosch threatened a retaliatory raid on Haitian President Duménil's palace in Port-au-Prince.

Only Few Hours To Avoid Disaster

By RALPH CAMERON
The agreement averted a new crisis in relations between London and Jakarta, where President Sukarno is pursuing a policy of hostile confrontation of the British people that is far as time is concerned and we have all the British tourists you can handle. Indonesia severed trade ties Saturday with Malaysia, which is made up of Malaya, Singapore and the Borneo territories of Sarawak and Sabah (North Borneo).

MME. NHU MAKES A POINT

Mrs. Nho Dinh Nhu makes a point as she holds a press conference Monday night at the Viet Nam embassy in Rome. Italy. The sister-in-law of President Ngo Dinh Diem said she has confidence in the U.S. goal will despite what she called "exposure of a Central Intelligence Agency plot to overthrow the Saigon government." Italian demonstrators picketed nearby.

British Tourists Here Suggested By Author

By RALPH CAMERON
had seemed too great a crossing for travellers from the British Ocean is only another ditch so far as time is concerned and we have all the British tourists you can handle. The widely known British writer, here on a brief tour to prepare an article for the Sunday supplement of the London Times was the guest of the P.E.I. Tourist Association at a reception and dinner.

INSIDE TODAY

- Announcements, notices 13
- Births, deaths 13
- Classified 13
- Comics 11
- Editorials 6
- Entertainment 13
- Finance, markets 13
- Health 13
- City, Queens 13
- Summerside 13
- Prince Edward Island 13
- Women's 7

Northern Lights Hint At Trouble For NORAD

By DAVE McINTOSH
OTTAWA (CP) — The northern lights have been seen in strange shapes. The quester they ever did view. The night of the test at NORAD's radar station on the radio line in DEW. The flashing display of the northern lights Saturday and Sunday nights heralds communications troubles for the North American Air Defence System in the coming year or two.

Pre-emptive Action Blocks Amendments

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate smashed Sen. Barry Goldwater's Cuban reservation 75 to 17 Monday and went on to smother all other proposed amendments to the resolution for ratifying the limited nuclear test-ban treaty. Defeat of the Arizona Republican's proposal and the others was a solid victory for the Democratic and Republican leadership, which teamed up to push the resolution through unchanged. The lopsided margin of the vote indicated that the pact will easily win ratification day even though Monday's defeat was not surprising. A lineup of those for or against the pact. Ratification will take a two-thirds majority—67 senators if all 100 vote at 10:30 a.m. EDT, 11:30 a.m. ADT, the window hour agreed to after two weeks of debate. Voting on the reservations was by simple majority. The first one taken up was by Goldwater, a potential Republican nominee for president next year, to delay the effect of ratification until Russia removes all of its nuclear forces from Cuba. RUN INTO FIGHT The Senate leaders had smooth sailing until the final reservation was offered when they ran into a stiff, unbroken

Diplomatic Action Blocks Amendments

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate smashed Sen. Barry Goldwater's Cuban reservation 75 to 17 Monday and went on to smother all other proposed amendments to the resolution for ratifying the limited nuclear test-ban treaty. Defeat of the Arizona Republican's proposal and the others was a solid victory for the Democratic and Republican leadership, which teamed up to push the resolution through unchanged. The lopsided margin of the vote indicated that the pact will easily win ratification day even though Monday's defeat was not surprising. A lineup of those for or against the pact. Ratification will take a two-thirds majority—67 senators if all 100 vote at 10:30 a.m. EDT, 11:30 a.m. ADT, the window hour agreed to after two weeks of debate. Voting on the reservations was by simple majority. The first one taken up was by Goldwater, a potential Republican nominee for president next year, to delay the effect of ratification until Russia removes all of its nuclear forces from Cuba. RUN INTO FIGHT The Senate leaders had smooth sailing until the final reservation was offered when they ran into a stiff, unbroken

Bridesmaid Is Heroine At Brother's Wedding

HAMILTON, Ont. (CP) — A wedding day usually belongs to the bride. But in St. Mary's Anglican Church, scores of women cried openly and wept bitterly as they fervently as a 20-year-old bridesmaid took the most agonizing walk of her life. To Audrey Speight, wearing braces and supporting herself with crutches, the altar where her brother and his bride would exchange vows seemed a mill away. But as the congregation silently urged her on, the young girl, dragged her feet over the floor and, smiling triumphantly, took her place beside her bride.

Pre-emptive Action Blocks Amendments

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate smashed Sen. Barry Goldwater's Cuban reservation 75 to 17 Monday and went on to smother all other proposed amendments to the resolution for ratifying the limited nuclear test-ban treaty. Defeat of the Arizona Republican's proposal and the others was a solid victory for the Democratic and Republican leadership, which teamed up to push the resolution through unchanged. The lopsided margin of the vote indicated that the pact will easily win ratification day even though Monday's defeat was not surprising. A lineup of those for or against the pact. Ratification will take a two-thirds majority—67 senators if all 100 vote at 10:30 a.m. EDT, 11:30 a.m. ADT, the window hour agreed to after two weeks of debate. Voting on the reservations was by simple majority. The first one taken up was by Goldwater, a potential Republican nominee for president next year, to delay the effect of ratification until Russia removes all of its nuclear forces from Cuba. RUN INTO FIGHT The Senate leaders had smooth sailing until the final reservation was offered when they ran into a stiff, unbroken

Pre-emptive Action Blocks Amendments

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate smashed Sen. Barry Goldwater's Cuban reservation 75 to 17 Monday and went on to smother all other proposed amendments to the resolution for ratifying the limited nuclear test-ban treaty. Defeat of the Arizona Republican's proposal and the others was a solid victory for the Democratic and Republican leadership, which teamed up to push the resolution through unchanged. The lopsided margin of the vote indicated that the pact will easily win ratification day even though Monday's defeat was not surprising. A lineup of those for or against the pact. Ratification will take a two-thirds majority—67 senators if all 100 vote at 10:30 a.m. EDT, 11:30 a.m. ADT, the window hour agreed to after two weeks of debate. Voting on the reservations was by simple majority. The first one taken up was by Goldwater, a potential Republican nominee for president next year, to delay the effect of ratification until Russia removes all of its nuclear forces from Cuba. RUN INTO FIGHT The Senate leaders had smooth sailing until the final reservation was offered when they ran into a stiff, unbroken

Pre-emptive Action Blocks Amendments

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate smashed Sen. Barry Goldwater's Cuban reservation 75 to 17 Monday and went on to smother all other proposed amendments to the resolution for ratifying the limited nuclear test-ban treaty. Defeat of the Arizona Republican's proposal and the others was a solid victory for the Democratic and Republican leadership, which teamed up to push the resolution through unchanged. The lopsided margin of the vote indicated that the pact will easily win ratification day even though Monday's defeat was not surprising. A lineup of those for or against the pact. Ratification will take a two-thirds majority—67 senators if all 100 vote at 10:30 a.m. EDT, 11:30 a.m. ADT, the window hour agreed to after two weeks of debate. Voting on the reservations was by simple majority. The first one taken up was by Goldwater, a potential Republican nominee for president next year, to delay the effect of ratification until Russia removes all of its nuclear forces from Cuba. RUN INTO FIGHT The Senate leaders had smooth sailing until the final reservation was offered when they ran into a stiff, unbroken

Pre-emptive Action Blocks Amendments

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate smashed Sen. Barry Goldwater's Cuban reservation 75 to 17 Monday and went on to smother all other proposed amendments to the resolution for ratifying the limited nuclear test-ban treaty. Defeat of the Arizona Republican's proposal and the others was a solid victory for the Democratic and Republican leadership, which teamed up to push the resolution through unchanged. The lopsided margin of the vote indicated that the pact will easily win ratification day even though Monday's defeat was not surprising. A lineup of those for or against the pact. Ratification will take a two-thirds majority—67 senators if all 100 vote at 10:30 a.m. EDT, 11:30 a.m. ADT, the window hour agreed to after two weeks of debate. Voting on the reservations was by simple majority. The first one taken up was by Goldwater, a potential Republican nominee for president next year, to delay the effect of ratification until Russia removes all of its nuclear forces from Cuba. RUN INTO FIGHT The Senate leaders had smooth sailing until the final reservation was offered when they ran into a stiff, unbroken

Pre-emptive Action Blocks Amendments

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate smashed Sen. Barry Goldwater's Cuban reservation 75 to 17 Monday and went on to smother all other proposed amendments to the resolution for ratifying the limited nuclear test-ban treaty. Defeat of the Arizona Republican's proposal and the others was a solid victory for the Democratic and Republican leadership, which teamed up to push the resolution through unchanged. The lopsided margin of the vote indicated that the pact will easily win ratification day even though Monday's defeat was not surprising. A lineup of those for or against the pact. Ratification will take a two-thirds majority—67 senators if all 100 vote at 10:30 a.m. EDT, 11:30 a.m. ADT, the window hour agreed to after two weeks of debate. Voting on the reservations was by simple majority. The first one taken up was by Goldwater, a potential Republican nominee for president next year, to delay the effect of ratification until Russia removes all of its nuclear forces from Cuba. RUN INTO FIGHT The Senate leaders had smooth sailing until the final reservation was offered when they ran into a stiff, unbroken

Pre-emptive Action Blocks Amendments

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate smashed Sen. Barry Goldwater's Cuban reservation 75 to 17 Monday and went on to smother all other proposed amendments to the resolution for ratifying the limited nuclear test-ban treaty. Defeat of the Arizona Republican's proposal and the others was a solid victory for the Democratic and Republican leadership, which teamed up to push the resolution through unchanged. The lopsided margin of the vote indicated that the pact will easily win ratification day even though Monday's defeat was not surprising. A lineup of those for or against the pact. Ratification will take a two-thirds majority—67 senators if all 100 vote at 10:30 a.m. EDT, 11:30 a.m. ADT, the window hour agreed to after two weeks of debate. Voting on the reservations was by simple majority. The first one taken up was by Goldwater, a potential Republican nominee for president next year, to delay the effect of ratification until Russia removes all of its nuclear forces from Cuba. RUN INTO FIGHT The Senate leaders had smooth sailing until the final reservation was offered when they ran into a stiff, unbroken