

The MacDonald-Reid Preview

by Yvonne MacKean

Each year the UPEI Debating Society takes on Holland College in the MacDonald-Reid Debate. The debate is sponsored by UPEI Alumni. The debate follows a slightly different format than the UPEI debaters normally follow. The debate is prepared with the topic agreed upon by both sides in advance, so that some research may be done. Each school alternates in hosting the event, with it taking place at UPEI this year. The UPEI squad has held the title for the last three years and are anxious to continue this streak.

On Monday, January 22, there was supposed to be a debate-off to choose who would be representing UPEI, but there was no need, so the event was a practice debate. The resolution for the debate is a Maritime political and economic union is fundamentally essential for the survival of the Maritime provinces. Debating the affirmative were Garry MacDonald and David Saunders, and in opposition were Robert McNevin and Chris Burns. Although the affirmative had some good points, the opposition was given the victory by guest judges David Simms and Henry Srebrnik. The judges also gave some suggestions for the actual debate.

The MacDonald-Reid Debate will take place on February 7, in Lecture Theatre A at the AVC, at 4:00 pm. The issue of Maritime union is a timely one, and the arguments by both sides should prove to be very interesting. Special judges are invited to the debate, and this year's panel includes Pat Mella. Please come out and support the UPEI debaters as they embark on winning the cup for the fourth year in row.
