

NOT NOW.

Not now, my child—a little more rough tossing, A little longer on the billow's foam, A few more journeyings in the desert darkness, And then the sunshine of thy Father's home.

Not now, for I have wardens in the distance, And thou must call them in with patient love; Not now, for I have sheep upon the mountains, And thou must follow them where'er they rove.

Not now, for I have loved ones sad and weary, Wilt thou not cheer them with a kindly smile?

Sick ones, who need thee in their lonely sorrow; Wilt thou not tend them yet a little while?

Not now, for wounded hearts are sorely bleeding, And thou must teach those widowed hearts to sing;

Not now, for orphan tears are thickly falling; They must be gathered 'neath some sheltering wing.

Not now, for many a hungry one is pining; Thy willing hand must be outstretched and free;

Thy Father hears the mighty cry of anguish, And gives his answering message to thee.

Not now, for dungeon walls look stern and gloomy, And prisoners' sighs sound strangely on the breeze—

Man's prisoners, but thy Saviour's noble freemen, Hast thou no ministry of love for these?

Not now, for Hell's eternal Gulf is yawning, And souls are perishing in helpless sin; Jerusalem's bright gates are standing open Go to the banished ones and fetch them in!

Go with the name of Jesus to the dying, And speak that name in all its living power; Way should thy faltering heart grow chill and weary?

Canst thou not watch with me one little hour? On: little hour, and then the glorious crowning; The golden harp strings and the victor's palm; One little hour, and then the hallelujah! Eternity's long, deep thanksgiving psalm!

A Beautiful Legend.

There is a legend connected with the site on which the Temple of Solomon was erected. It is said to have been occupied in common by two brothers, one of whom had a family but the other had none. On the spot was a field of wheat. On the evening succeeding the harvest, the wheat having been gathered in shocks, the elder brother said to his wife: "My younger brother is unable to bear the burden and heat of the day. I will arise take of my shocks and place them with his, without his knowledge."

The younger brother, being actuated by the same benevolent motives, said within himself: "My elder brother has family and I have none. I will contribute to their support. I will arise take of my shocks, and place them with his without his knowledge."

Judge of their astonishment when, on the following morning, their respective shocks were undiminished. This course of events transpired for several nights, when each resolved in his own mind to stand guard, and if possible, solve the mystery. They did so, when, on the following night, they met each other half-way between their respective shocks with their arms full. Upon ground hallowed by such associations as this was the Temple of King Solomon erected—so spacious, so magnificent, the wonder and admiration of the world.

Alas! in these days, how many would sooner steal their brother's whole shock than add to it a single sheaf.

The cheapest and most effective disinfectant and deodorizer for purifying and destroying sewer gas, foul air and sulphide of hydrogen and ammonium, generated in sewers, sinks, cesspools, and on board passenger ships—the main cause of so many fatal fevers and epidemics—is a solution of chloride of lead. To prepare this solution on a small scale for use, take one-eighth of an ounce of lead and dissolve it in one quart of boiling water, dissolve an ounce of pure common salt in about five gallons of water. Mix the two solutions, and when the sediment subsides pour off the clear solution and keep in a demijohn for use. A cloth dipped in this solution and hung up in a sick room, or a little of it dashed into a foul sink, will instantly dispel all offensive odors, by uniting with and neutralizing it.

Illustration of a plaster and text: CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS. The Greatest Medical Discovery since the Creation of Man, or since the Commencement of the Christian Era.

There never has been a time when the healing of so many different diseases has been caused by outward application as the present. It is an undisputed fact that over half of the entire population of the globe resort to the use of ordinary plasters. DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS are acknowledged by all who have used them to act quicker than any other plaster they ever before tried, and that one of these plasters will do more real service than a hundred of the ordinary kind. All other plasters are slow of action, and require to be worn continually to effect a cure; but with these it is entirely different: the instant one is applied the patient will feel its effect. Physicians in all ages have thoroughly tested and well known the effect of Capsicum; and it has always been more or less used as a medical agent for an outward application; but it is only of very recent date that its advantages in a porous plaster have been discovered. Being, however, convinced of the wonderful cures effected by DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS, and their superiority over all other plasters, they now actually prescribe them, in their practice, for such diseases as rheumatism, pain in the side and back, and all such cases as have required the use of plasters or ointment. After you have tried other plasters and ointments, and they have failed, and you want a certain cure, ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER. You can hardly believe your own convictions of its wonderful effects. Although powerful and quick in its action, you can rely on its safety for the most delicate person to wear, as it is free from lead and other poisonous material commonly used in the manufacture of ordinary plasters. One trial is a sufficient guarantee of its merits, and one plaster will sell hundreds to your friends. Ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER, and take no other; or, on receipt of 25 cents for one, $1 for five, or $2 for a dozen, they will be mailed, post paid, to any address in the United States or Canada. THE above interesting book is for sale at all the Bookstores on the Island. Col. Many lyrics in the author's best style are interspersed in the dialogue, which is, in general, quaint and sparkling. Price: Paper cover, 50 cents; in cloth, 75 cents. Summerside, Jan. 25, 1879—
