THOMAS ALLAN BELL

"In the midst of life we are in death" is an oft repeated quotation, that implies as it should a very sobering thought. Particularly is this true in the death of young Thomas Allan Bell who was killed in a highway accident on the night of August 7th, 1964.

Tommie, born February 22, 1948, was the youngest of a family of three sons born to Roy Bell and his wife Sadie Bell (nee Gosbee) of Murray Harbor.

Besides his sorrowing parents, Tommie is survived by two brothers: Lee, engineer, with the P.E.I. Highway Department, Charlottetown, and Roger, student, at Dalhousie University, Halifax; grandmother, Mrs. Minnie Bell, Murray Harbor; grandfather, Mr. Thomas Gosbee, Beach Point, and many other relatives and friends.

The largely attended funeral services which were held on Monday, August 10th, from the Murray Harbor United Church were conducted feelingly and appropriately by the pastor Rev. David Barwise. Hymns "Lead Kindly Light" and "Rock of Ages", were solemnly sung and the many beautiful flowers bore silent but eloquently expression to the deep affection in which Tommie was held and markedly so, by his school friends.

Interment was made in the Murray Harbor cemetery by bearers, all young friends of the deceased: James Richards, David Hume, David Murdock, Friend Herring, Garry Herring and Robert Herring.

The flower bearers were: Garry Harris, Allan Richards, Sandy Williams, Kenneth Nicolle, Gerald MacKay and Donald Beaton.

The months may change from year to year
And friends from day to day,
But the memory of a loved one
Will never fade away.

The many relatives and friends who contributed flowers were:

Mom and Dad.
Roger and Lee,
Grandfather Gosbee and uncles.
Grandmother Bell and family.
Robert Bell and family,
Orrin Bell and family.
Aunt Sadie Bell and Mae Bell.
Helen and Byron Burns.
Mrs. McKenna, Virginia and Helen.
Mrs. Ladner.
Sheldon, Sharon and the Beaton family.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks for the kindness shown us by so many neighbors, relatives and friends who helped us in so many ways during our recent sad bereavement. To those who sent cards, flowers and letters, to Rev. David Barwise, Mrs. Carl Richards, the Murray River Funeral Home and also to all those who called to express their condolences.

DANIEL J. MacCORMACK

The death occurred in the Charlottetown Hospital on August 25th of Daniel J. MacCormack in his 59th year, after a lengthy illness. Born in Georgetown, he was the son of the late Hugh and Selina (King) MacCormack, and had spent the earlier years of his life in Chatham, N.B., but later moved to Charlottetown where he was employed as Stationery Engineer at the Charlottetown Hospital and later at Saint Dunstan's University, except for four years spent with the Canadian Army overseas.

He is survived by his wife, the former Angela Campbell of Little Pond, and three sons, Lieutenant Noel with the Canadian Army at Camp Gagetown, Donald, a teacher at Charlottetown Regional High School and Alan, a student at Birchwood Junior High School. Also left to mourn are one brother, Joseph, of Logieville, N.B., and three sisters, Frances, Mrs. James R. MacDonald of Glace Bay, Muriel, with the Department of Mines and Technical Resources at Ottawa, and Isobel, Mrs. Frank MacKinnon of Ottawa. A younger brother, Hugh, was killed in action in Normandy during the Second World War.

The funeral was held from the Hennessey Funeral Home to St. Dunstan's Basilica, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rt. Rev. George MacDonald, Rector of Saint Dunstan's University. Seated in the Sanctuary were Rev. Clarence MacDonald, Rev. Richard Ellsworth, Rev. James Smith, Rev. Wilfred Pineau and Rev. Thomas MacLellan. The Sisters of Saint Martha and the staff of Saint Dunstan's University attended in a body. The pall-bearers were Siegfried Reymond, Adolph Vessey, Frank MacDonald, Ernest Connolly, Joseph Burke and Arthur McQuaid. Services at the grave were conducted by Rev. Thomas MacLellan and the legion Service by Harry Mortimer.

The Last Post was sounded by William Blanchard.
