Magnificently Acted 'Mudlark' Triumphant

Warm, human and absorbing, "The Mudlark" is one of the high quality attractions of any film year. Irene Dunne creates a screen characterization of Queen Victoria that will rank with the immortals. Alec Guinness brings to the screen acting ability the like of which has not been seen in a relatively newcomer in years, and Andrew Ray vests the title and pivotal role of the kid who wanted to sit on a queen's throne with artistry far beyond his years. It is a memorable and distinguished film that Darryl F. Zanuck is presenting us with in Twentieth Century-Fox's "The Mudlark", for the special Christmas program at the Prince Edward Theatre, starting today.

Disraeli... who turned an escapee into a great triumph.

The Irish Rose... who tried to hide the Kid.

The Queen... the Mother in a little boy's heart.

The Scot... who took one too many, the wrong night.

The Lieutenant... leader of the palace guard.

Addressed Canadian Club Of Boston

The following news item has been received from Mr. John D. Mitchell, of the Boston Globe: The Hon. James P. McIntyre, senator from Prince Edward Island, and the Hon. Hughes Lawson, P. C., Minister of Veterans Affairs, were the principal speakers at the annual banquet and ladies' night of the Canadian Club of Boston in the Harvard Club, Dec. 19.

The club honored, on this occasion, one of its outstanding members, Mr. Alfred C. Fuller, president of the Fuller Brush Co. of Hartford, Conn., a native of Nova Scotia, who maintains a summer home and farm at Yarmouth.

Senator McIntyre, speaking extemporaneously, captivated his audience with some humorous stories of his experiences, and, in a more serious vein, told of the contributions Prince Edward Island has made towards the development of Canada.

Mr. Lapointe made an eloquent presentation of Canada's place in the world of nations. Predictions have long forecast, he said, "that the 20th century would bring to Canada its greatest development, and the prediction has all the indications of approaching realization."
