POOR EASTERN ATHLETES — PRAGUE, May 31 — (AP)—A Czechoslovak newspaper complained today that when "people's democratic sportsmen" go West to take part in international tournaments, they are "judged by unjust bourgeois referees."

ation organ Mlada Fronta, also contended that the West uses sports and physical education for spying and war-mongering. When Eastern athletes go to the West to play, said Mlada Fronta, "they are denied visas, given rooms in the worst hotels and their efforts are judged by unjust bourgeois referees."
