Isaiah Horne's Famous Remedies.

Dear Sir,—My son strained the muscles of his arm some time ago, and suffered violent pain until treated with a rubbing of your "Wagie Discovery," which gave relief at once. Also my other son struck his knee against a log and it pained him so that he could not sleep. He got out of bed and rubbed his foot with the remedy and fell asleep and was all right the morning. I think it is a grand remedy.
Yours truly,
WILLIAM NEIL,
Rustico Road.

Nervous Prostration

It is now a well established fact in medical science that nervousness is due to impure blood. Therefore the true way to cure nervousness is by purifying and enriching the blood. The great blood purifier is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Read this letter:
"For the last two years I have been a great sufferer with nervous prostration and palpitation of the heart. I was weak in my limbs and had smothered sensations. At last my physician advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla which I did, and I am happy to say that I am now strong and well. I am still using Hood's Sarsaparilla and would not be without it. I recommend it to all who are suffering with nervous prostration and palpitation of the heart."
MRS. DAIROS, 56 Alice St., Toronto, Ontario. Get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the Only
True Blood Purifier
Prominently in the public eye today. It is not what we say but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does that tells the story.

MONEY IN MUTTON.

THE IMPORTANT ART OF RAISING SHEEP FOR PROFIT.

How it is Done in England—Meat Should be the First Consideration and Wool a Secondary Matter With the Farmer Who Expects His Flock to Pay.
The best time to buy sheep is in late summer or fall. It will soon be in order to couple sheep, and as early lambs add largely to the profit the management of sheep in the fall is as important as during any other season. The ram should be pure bred and produced from a flock where the sheep are thrifty. All ewes that are not robust, or which show the least evidence of unsoundness, should be discarded. By careful selection and bringing the ewes into the winter in good condition they will have no difficulty in withstanding the cold and their lambs will be strong and thrifty in the early portion of the year. Dogs can be kept from sheep by judicious use of barbed wire, the lower strand being on the ground, or buried two inches beneath the surface, and the next strand four inches above it. The dogs do not often receive injury from barbed wire, the wool being a protection. If dogs can be kept from sheep they can be raised with but little labor, and will partially support themselves while plants are growing, both weeds and grass being consumed by them, and they will enrich the soil with their droppings, which are evenly distributed and trodden in.

GLAD TIDINGS OF GREAT JOY.

There could be no gladder tidings than those of a cure for consumption. Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil cures consumption and every disease of the lungs and respiratory organs. Why? Because it supplies new blood to the exhausted system, thus giving a new lease of life. Miller's Emulsion is made from the Oil of the Norwegian Cod Liver, and in conjunction with hypophosphites of lime and soda forms the greatest vitalizer of the age. Miller's Emulsion is the great nerve strengthener and blood maker, and cures Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Scrofula and all Lung Affections. In big bottles, 50c. and $1. at all Drug Stores.

Strange, but True

The child that cannot digest milk can digest Cod-liver Oil as it is prepared in Scott's Emulsion. Careful scientific tests have proven it to be more easily digested than milk, butter, or any other fat. That is the reason why puny, sickly children, and thin, emaciated and anemic persons grow fleshy so rapidly on Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphites when their ordinary food does not nourish them.
Don't be persuaded to accept a substitute.
Scott & Bown, Belleville. 50c. and $1.

Are You Dependent?

Has ill health or overwork made you dependent? Has your nervous system been overworked? If so you need a thorough course of Hawker's nerve and stomachic. You will find it exactly what you need. It restores health and strength and hopefulness. And it does it in the most natural way in the world. It improves digestion, stimulates the appetite, affords new vitality to the blood, and so leads to a rebuilding of the weak and wasted tissues of the body the result of which is a complete renewal of health, and a vigorous mental activity. Its power is irresistible. The formerly dependent sufferer feels the thrill of a new vitality, and work is no longer a dreary task, or pleasure merely a thing to be endured. Hawker's nerve and stomachic is sold by all druggists and dealers at 50c. per bottle or six bottles for $2.50, and is manufactured only by the Hawker Medicine Co. (Ltd) St. John, N. B., and New York City.

Montreal aldermen have lifted the city debt from $1,500,000 to $25,700,000 in six years.

The process has been easy. Large investments have been made in the purchase of property for street widening, an improvement desirable in some respects, but not necessary if it is to be costly. According to the Montreal Witness certain of the aldermen have speculated in the expropriated property. They have bought it at a low rate, and have sold it to the city at a high rate. Now the citizens have to pay the piper.

MERRY MOMENTS

People are having the same trouble they used to have. If their horse got out of wind they had to walk; now it's the same with the bicycle.—Boston Courier.

Tommy—Paw, what sort of prices are fabulous prices? Mr. Pigg—Well, actors' salaries as published in the papers are usually that kind.—Indianapolis Journal.

Edith—What? Mr. Worth asked you to be his wife? Everybody says he is a woman hater. Kate—Yes, but I don't seem to be the woman.—Boston Transcript.

Physician—And you have felt this way for several days? Hunt—Let me see your tongue. Patient—It's no use, doctor; no tongue can tell how I suffer.—Boston Transcript.

Bertie D'Gote—When old Gold-bee married Flo, why did she say that she was only twenty-four? Sybil—Well, you see, she made a discount for cash.—Sydney Bulletin.

Bumpus—Say, McSmith, I am acquainted with the president of this town. McSmith—Oh, that's nothing; I am acquainted with the porter on this train.—Brooklyn Eagle.

"It seems to me," groaned the sufferer, apprehensively the reflection of his aching teeth in the looking glass, "that for as small a customer as you are, you have lots of nerve."—Chicago Tribune.

Amateur Artist—I should like to present the last picture I painted to some charitable institution. Now, which would you recommend? "Crude Lady friend—the blind asylum."—New York Journal.

Customer—Bring me some lobster salad and some cucumbers. Waiter (bringing pen, ink and paper)—Please write your name and address before you tackle that order.—National Hotel Reporter.

Kath (in the museum, viewing the Venus de Milo)—Sepp, see here; they have knocked both arms off this woman. Sepp—Come, let's get out, or they'll knock us off of having done it.—Fillegende Bladeter.

Mary—I'm going to marry Mr. Quickblood. Quickblood—Cousin—Good heavens! Mary—Why do you say that? He's well off. Old Bachelor—Cousin—Yes; he's well off as he is; but he doesn't know it.—Philadelphia Record.

"Jame," sharply called out his mother, "you've been loafing all day. Satan always finds some work for idle hands to do. Take this basket
