

NEWS of the WORLD in PICTURES

"Don't pick up baby just because he cries," says Mr. S. W. Picknells, whose famous Huttonville, Ont., triplets celebrate their first birthday soon. They are Linda Jane, left, Barbara Ann and Mary Lou. Mother says they have never been ill and claims she has never lost a night's sleep with any of them. Her recipe is to stick to a routine with children.

Blonde, blue-eyed Theresa Nugent, centre, 23-year-old income tax division clerk at Ottawa, has been crowned "Miss Civil Service". The smiling queen of the carnival-beauty pageant which capped two weeks of "peach picking" throughout various federal departments, is seen with two of her princesses, Margaret Skuce, left, Janie Watters.

Two-alarm fire roared through this garage on Wellington St., Ottawa, recently, causing damage estimated at $30,000. Firemen, seen fighting the blaze, were handicapped by heavy smoke on upper floors of building, and danger of exploding paint stocks.

One of the kindergarten band from North York, Ont., is five-year-old Beverley Briggs, tambourine player. The band, formed three months ago, had its debut at the Kiwanis Music Festival in Toronto.

Music circles in Europe are agog over Anna Maria Alberghetti, who at the age of 13 seems to be well on her way to fame as an operatic soprano. She made her debut on concert stage in 1943 at the age of seven. This Italian girl had a brief North American tour in March.

LAST CALL — Peter Voutov, the Bulgarian charge d'affaires in Washington, leaves after his last call at the State Department. Voutov was informed that the United States had broken off diplomatic relations with Bulgaria. Among the galaxy of stars at the Rose Garden Ice Follies in the Memorial Arena of Georgetown, Ont., were Helen McGill, left, and Inez Scott, members of the Georgetown Girls' Pipe Band which presented the program. Event was sponsored by the University Skating club.

Coal gas fumes in Scarboro, Ont., home overcame three children and two women. Firemen worked with inhalators for over an hour. Two of victims, Mrs. Doug Merriweather and her baby, Norman, three months, are seen. Leaky gas was cause.

Playing on ice on way back to Lakeview, Ont., school, Ken Hillgariner, left, and Jack Hall, both 12, drifted a quarter mile into Lake Ontario on ice floe, had to be rescued. Dog "Shep" looks happy. Both boys were shaken by experience, but vowed they had not been "scared." Scene where they were brought to shore from broken ice is shown by Richard Goodfellow. Ken's mother said "I lived a lifetime of agony."

Facial foliage is sprouted by Thorold's fire department men. Beard contest opened month ago, culminates at this Ontario town's centennial celebration July 1. Mrs. Jack Farnsworth sizes up whiskers of Bob Gillies, left, Jack Farnsworth, James Fenton, John Smith.