The following cities will hold their Queen's Birthday celebration on the 26th: Hamilton, St. Catharines, Brantford and Cobourg.

The Brooklyn Presbytery at its meeting on Monday refused to take any action with regard to Talmage's manner of preaching.

The Indian Government has offered a loan of £5,000,000 at 4 1/2 interest. Nine-tenths has been taken at 94, principally by Indian bankers.

The retirement of the Hon. Mr. Masson from the Ministry is again spoken of as imminent, and Mr. Coursol, of Montreal East, is freely spoken of as his successor.

A Paris despatch says it is reported there is a possibility of the marriage of the Archduke Rudolf, Crown Prince of Austria, to the Infanta Maria del Pilar, King Alfonso's sister.

Phosphate mining is being again vigorously carried on in the rear of Frontenac, Ont. The price of the article is said to be again advancing; it has been very low for a long time.

It has been discovered that persons who work in petroleum if they have any bronchial troubles, are at once relieved of them; pulmonary affections also yield before the same influence.

Dr. Newman, in replying to the Consistorial messenger announcing his elevation to the Cardinalate, made a long speech, the gist of which was that he would hereafter, as he had in the past resist with all his power the spirit of liberalism in religion, the doctrine that there is no positive truth in religion, that one creed is as good as another, and that this is the teaching which is gaining substance and force daily. It is inconsistent with the recognition of any religion as true.

AN OLD MASONIC DOCUMENT.—Says the Amherst Sentinel:—We have been shown a very old masonic document, dated 1784, and in the year of masonry 5784, being a dispensation granted by the Grand Lodge of Halifax, John George Pyke, Grand Master, and J. Peters, Grand Secy., to William Allan, jr., to form a lodge in Cumberland. It is not known whether a lodge was formed under that dispensation, or not, but there are few older lodges in Nova Scotia than the Amherst Lodge.

Lord Beaconsfield, in his speech in the House of Commons on the 29th ult., on the distress enquiry motion, said:—"I think it cannot be denied that a state of great national prosperity is quite consistent and compatible with this country being in favour of protection of native industry. That is a position that was years ago denied; but I think that the experience we have around us, with the experience we have of France and the United States of America, the two most flourishing countries now existing, it cannot for a moment be maintained that the protective system is not consistent and compatible with its flourishing condition."

The Talmage case is likely to occupy the attention of the Presbyterian Ecclesiastical Courts for some time to come. The recent trial of D. Talmage was on the charge of falsehood and deceit. It is known that some of those who voted in his favor at the recent trials are severe critics of his sermons, and he may not get through the Presbytery without censure. His adversaries, who are dissatisfied with the result of the trial, will take an appeal to the Synod of Long Island, which is composed of two Presbyteries outside of Brooklyn, numbering about eighty members, and the members will try the appeal, as the Brooklyn Presbytery will be regarded as a party. This trial cannot take place before the annual meeting next October.

Offices.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—The New Era and Herald are hard on our city representatives—Messrs. Pope and Brecken—agent the Railway and other Dominion offices. Perhaps it would not be amiss—and it would certainly be amusing—if these gentlemen favored the public with the number of applicants for each office supposed to be at their disposal. Many an office-seeker—though he may not have one solitary qualification for the office he covets—thinks his claim the only one entitled to consideration. And yet the largest share of the accidents that are daily happening on railways, etc., are clearly the result of carelessness or incapacity. The lives of the travelling public cannot be entrusted to men who are ready, rashly, to undertake the performance of duties which can only be acquired by long practice and carefulness. For my own part, I would rather, when travelling by rail, etc., put my safe keeping into the hands of a practical and experienced (though case-hardened) Grit, than trust to an inexperienced, though well-intentioned, Liberal-Conservative.

True it is that to the Grits we owe the sentiment, "To the victors belong the spoils"; and it would be only justice to the men who have borne the heat and burden of the fray, that they should reap whatever benefit may accrue from the advent of their Party to place and power. But a certain amount of discrimination is at once allowable and necessary. Though a wholesale removal of the Grit innocents might be acceptable to many, yet it might not, perhaps, in regard to public interests, be altogether a prudent move. The recent dismissals of the heads of departments is a beginning which foreshadows to the subordinate offices as vacancies or opportunities may occur. The old Scotch gentleman's advice to the young Hotspur who sent him a challenge, "Dae naething in a hurry but catching fleas," was a sage advice, and applicable in many cases besides his own.

No one can, for a moment, doubt Messrs. Pope and Brecken's eager readiness and willingness to favor their political friends. But these gentlemen are not in the position of dictators nor autocrats of the Dominion. They can only have their say on matters in general, and can have but little in their power in matters of detail, and, doubtless, at times must waive their own wishes and opinions in deference to those of their colleagues.

Like the fable of the countryman and his ass they are to be pitied if they attempt the hopeless task of trying to please everybody. But they are too old campaigners to do that. Yours, etc., A LIBERAL-CONSERVATIVE.

The Death-rate of

Our country is getting to be fearfully alarming, the average of life being lessened every year, without any reasonable cause, death resulting generally from the most insignificant origin. At this season of the year, especially, a cold is such a common thing that in the hurry of every day life we are apt to overlook the dangers attending it and often find, too late, that a Fever or Lung trouble has already set in. Thousands lose their lives in this way every winter, while had Boshee's German Syrup been taken, a cure would have resulted, and a large bill from a doctor been avoided. For all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Boshee's German Syrup has proven itself to be the greatest discovery of its kind in medicine. Every Druggist in this country will tell you of its wonderful effect. Over 950,000 bottles sold last year without a single failure known.

204 HORSES were shipped from Montreal to the United States last week, for which the Americans paid $16,400.

CATARRH.

Constitutional Catarrh Remedy

CURES CATARRH.

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.:—DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your "Constitutional Catarrh Remedy" was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be "too good to be true."

I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long. I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite cured of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head. A sense of duty to sufferers from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unsolicited, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper. Yours truly, W. TINDALL, Methodist Minister. Port Elgin, Ont., Aug. 24, 1878.

Ask for Littlefield's Constitutional Catarrh Remedy and take no other. T. J. B. HARDING, Dominion Agent, Brockville, Ont.

For sale by all Druggists at only one Dollar per bottle.
