MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM HANS

Chapel Of Donlands Church Holds Candlelight Ceremony

A candlelight ceremony in the chapel of Donlands United Church, Toronto, was performed when Rev. J.G. Perkins officiated at the marriage of Lillian Vandierstraen to Mr. William Hans.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Vandierstraen, Murray Harbor, P.E.I., chose for her wedding a cashmere suit of winter white with blue accents. Her corsage was of red roses.

Miss Pearl Vandierstraen, bridesmaid for her sister, wore a suit of soft green with white accessories and yellow corsage.

Mr. James Hans, brother of the groom, acted as best man. A reception followed at the home of Mrs. D. Jackson, Snowdon Street, Toronto, where the bride and groom were toasted and in traditional manner, they cut and served the three-tier wedding cake.

A trip to Buffalo, N.Y. (continued) Mr. and Mrs. Hans have established residence in Willowdale.

ELLEN'S DIARY

The Road We Travel Made Blossomy By Kind Deeds

"There is no turning back, we go this way but once" someone reminds us. There can be no turning back, we go this way but once, Oh nevermore Can we go back along the self-same way To get more out of life, under the wrongs, Or upon love's words we knew but did not say.

We go this way but once. Then let us make The road we travel blossomy and sweet. With helpful, kindly deeds, and loving words, smoothing the path for bruised and tender feet.

Monday - Diary - Good night.

Chapter Recalls National Meet

The National IOOE meetings held in Charlottetown last year will be remembered as many women from across Canada expressed their appreciation for the friendly hospitality extended to them not only by all our Island IOOE members but by the entire people of the province. Besides sharing in this event the work of the British Ladies' Chapter was faithfully carried out.

Students from British East Middleburg, Ontario, and the British West Indies taught us about their way of life while we were learning a Canadian way. Magazines, treats and a visit were made to Beach Grove Convent, where we sent to the British Save the Children Fund and to the local welfare Bureau.

Other highlights included attendance at citizenship ceremonies, being invited to Local School openings, sponsoring a marathon bridge and Rose Day sales and many other interesting world cup affairs.

A total of eight meetings were held. To the acting Regent, Mrs. E. C. Baker, a special thank you was extended for taking in charge of the Chapter in an efficient manner, on rather short notice.

The 1963 officers are: honorary vice president, Mrs. F. Walter Hyndman, honour regent, Mrs. J. Longworth, regent, Mrs. B. Earle MacDonal, 1st vice regent, Mrs. W. A. Thien, 2nd vice regent, Mrs. S. D. Irvine, treasurer, Mrs. W. R. B. MacNeill, secretary, Mrs. Stewart Ives, standard bearer, Mrs. A. W. Rogers, editor, Mrs. J. Longworth, reporter, Mrs. Fuller, Echoes secretary, Mrs. James Walker, Councilors Mrs. B. S. C. A. Mrs. R. A. Praught, Mrs. S. K. Todd, Mrs. A. A. Scales, Mrs. T. J. MacLeod, Mrs. Lloyd Cox, Mrs. Lillian Murley, Mrs. J. Frank Pellerin, Mrs. Jennie Lewis.

SHOOT STRIKERS KARACHI, Pakistan (AP) - At least six persons were killed and many injured in a riot on about 7,000 demonstrating mill workers in an industrial estate on the outskirts of Karachi. The mill workers, demanding a rise in wages, had been demonstrating for several days and were forcing other mills to be closed.

What are you having for supper? The quest, survey, I spread table.

"Oh, I see! Date squares. Mind if I try one? Mmm! Now, as Gran daddy would say, 'Now, but not bad at all!' she smiled, "how did you make it?"

"The recipe? Cream is cup each of shortening and white sugar. Add two eggs, salt, teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon baking powder and one and a half cups flour, mix together in this in a 9 by 9 greased pan. Spread it with a cup of cooled, cooled dates and raisins, topped walnuts. Over this, beat and spread the two eggs, whites. I know brown sugar, a pinch of salt and vanilla. Bake in a moderate oven. When cool you mix it with your favorite icing and sprinkles crushed walnuts or nuts, or on top - or maybe add a cup of nuts, or a cup of raisins."

"An easy recipe" she nodded. "I must try it some day. Now the winter leads toward, it is before the snow. I have spent, we think that Alex, or Mick, eyes sharp, and attentive to catch such delights, will find a robin hereabout, trying out his notes in a tribute to Spring.

Meanwhile we follow our varied routes, some of us with some concern or resort to both, happily, each day is so dear. And as we go, be it to the party, we remind ourselves, "We go this way but once, Oh nevermore."

Why do we make the journey? Why do those who travel a wish us.
