Breadalbane and Vicinity Mr. William Newsome, Rose Valley, was a visitor to Breadalbane last week. Mr. D. MacLure, Dixon Road, made a business trip to Charlottetown on Thursday. Mrs. Ivan Kennedy was hostess for the March meeting of the Presbyterian W. M. S. on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Bismark Cousins, Breadalbane, recently had a pleasant visit in Moncton. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Stewart, Inkerman, were visitors to Charlottetown on Thursday. Mr. Allan Hickox is in Charlottetown this week, where he is employed during the session of the Legislature. Mrs. Harry Craswell, Charlottetown, was a recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milage MacLeod. Mr. Sheldon Abbott, Granville, made a business trip to Breadalbane this week. Mr. Gerald MacQuaid was a week-end visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O'Malley. Friends are pleased to know that Mr. James Cousins has improved in health sufficiently to return to his home in Breadalbane Village. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. James Hickson in the death of her sister, Major Olive Hiscot of the Salvation Army. Miss Inez Gass, who has been the supply teacher in Granville School, during the illness of her sister, Miss Roma Gass, has now returned to her home in Cornwall. Breadalbane hockey team played two games in Kensington rink this week: the first one was with Long River when the score was 3-2 in favor of the Breadalbane team; the second one was with Norboro when the score was 9-4 in favor of Breadalbane. It was with sincere sorrow that the citizens of Breadalbane and vicinity learned that Elliott MacKay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan MacKay, had been killed in Korea. Mr. and Mrs. Allan MacKay lived in Breadalbane for a number of years, and are well-known to many of the folk here. Heartfelt sympathy is extended to them in the death of their eldest son. The March meeting of the "Crawford Memorial" Christian Church W. M. S. was held on Thursday the 8th at the home of Mrs. Geo. Anderson. Mrs. Cuyler Matheson presided over the meeting, which was opened with the singing of the hymn "Rescue the Perishing", followed by the reciting of the Missionary Creed. Mrs. George Anderson read the minutes of the February meeting and called the roll, to which the members responded by repeating

HOME AND SCHOOL ASSOCIATION MEETS - The Kensington Home and School Association met in the music room on Wednesday night, March 7th. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Ralph MacMillan presided and opened the meeting with the singing of "O Canada." It was decided to have a supper, date to be decided on by the ways and means committee. A pleasant feature of the evening was the reading of essays, the title being "Who Stands If Freedom Falls" read by the following pupils: Brewer Auld, Beryl Woodside, Rebecca Jardine, Helen MacMillan, Margaret Crozier, Reggie Pendergast. Several piano selections were rendered by Mrs. R. S. Humphrey and Mrs. Fred Parker on the new piano recently purchased. A delicious lunch was served by the committee in charge, namely, Mrs. Keir Clark, Mrs. Janet Saunders, and Mrs. Gordon Cook. BAPTIST CHURCH W. M. S. - The W. M. S. of the Summerside Baptist Church was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. F. MacNeill, the Vice-President, who conducted the meeting. The opening hymn "Beneath the Cross of Jesus" with Mrs. Harper at the piano was followed by roll call by a splendid attendance of members who responded with a Bible verse containing the word "Cross". It was decided to send a letter of sympathy to Mrs. Jack MacLeod in the recent passing of her mother in Amherst, N. S. Also get well cards to Mrs. A. W. Leard and Mrs. J. Johnston. Mrs. Robert Palmer reported on the shipping of a White Cross (Hospital Supplies) box to India and Mrs. J. F. Taylor reported on the sending of a box to Mrs. Davison, representative for D. P.'s at Halifax. A poem "From Bethlehem to Calvary" was read by Mrs. Harper and the Scripture lesson in Mark 16 was taken by Mrs. C. B. Jelly. Mrs. Harper related the story of The Holy Grail, also the story of the life of Jesus, how his whole life had led to the Cross-to the giving of his life for others. Mrs. MacNeill conducted the study period and was assisted by Mrs. Taylor who gave a paper on Leprosy; Mrs. S. Parlee read an article on the New Field of Missionary Work opened up in India; Mrs. Wilfred Inman read the life of Pastor David, a native missionary of India; Mrs. Palmer's paper on the National Christian Council; and Mrs. Chester Palmer presented an Easter message, in poem. Prayer by Mrs. MacNeill closed the meeting after which delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Inman and Mrs. W. G. Ellis. -S

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ALICE E. WILKINSON Many friends in Prince Edward Island and elsewhere learned with regret of the passing of Mrs. Alice E. Wilkinson on Feb. 19th, in her 79th year. In delicate health for some years, Mrs. Wilkinson was stricken seriously eleven months ago. After five months in the Prince Edward Island Hospital she came strong enough to go to the home of her daughter for a time. In October she again fell ill and entered the Prince County Hospital where death came after a long and trying illness. Until poor health prevented her from doing so, Mrs. Wilkinson was always active in church and community work. At Miminegash she was Sunday School Superintendent and teacher for a number of years. Going to church was always one of her greatest joys. It may be truly said, also, that she was a good mother, no task was ever too great for her to perform in caring for her children. Born at Miminegash, she was a daughter of the late Robert and Margaret (Ramsay) MacInnis. Her husband, the late Albert B. Wilkinson died twenty-eight years ago. After his death she moved to Alberton with the younger members of her family, then to Charlottetown, and later to Cornwall where she made her home with her daughter, Eva. The surviving children are two sons and three daughters: A. Carlyle, Boston, Mass.; John A. Sydney, N.S.; M. Pearl (Mrs. W. H. K. Davies), West Medford, Mass.; V. Edith (Mrs. Allison Rayner) Enmore, P.E.I. and Eva R. (Mrs. Stanley Hyde), Cornwall, P. E. I. One son George R. G. predeceased her in 1918 (being killed in action in France in World War I). Surviving also are six grandsons and the following brothers and sisters, George MacInnis, Summerside, P.E.I.; Margaret (Mrs. A. Bowen) Pasadena, California; Cora (Mrs. J. F. Morton), Pasadena, California; Nettie (Mrs. K. G. Stewart), Grand Pre, N.S. Funeral service was held on Feb. 22nd at the Business Funeral Home, S'ide, conducted by Rev. K. G. Sullivan, of Trinity United Church, assisted by Rev. M. K. Charman of Cornwall United Church. During the service Mrs. L. M. Calbeck sang very beautifully "The Christian's Goodnight", with Miss Mary Geldard at the organ. The pall bearers were Messrs. W. E. Brooks, C. T. Moore, Milford Noye, Norman MacFadyen, Colin MacPhail, and Gordon Boyle. Thence the funeral cortege wended its way to Miminegash United Church where service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. S. Egan. Favourite hymns of the deceased were sung with the choir under the direction of Mrs. Redley Palmer. Many friends and acquaintances of earlier days attended this final farewell. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. Interment was at Miminegash Cemetery. "The peace of death can be a lovely thing, Enfoldng weary one with gentle care; While we to precious memories still may cling, The spirit rises to a Long, all-true, fair, The peace of death; God's promise after life, An end to pain and grief and worldly strife."

Interesting School Parade Program

The second program of the second section of Schurman School Parade was heard over CJBW on Friday evening. The first part of the program included many talented performers representing the following schools: Crapaud, New Annan, St. Eleanors, Summerside Elementary and High School, St. Mary's Academy. The second portion was the interscholastic school spelling contest which brought together two schools in the one to three classroom division, Wilmot Valley and Springhill. Wilmot Valley was represented by Jean Agnew, Ruth Agnew, Stanford Husets, Dorothy Clark and Marion Casely. The Springhill school team consisted of Elwood Eaman, Robert Diamond, Lorna Grigg, Alton Diamond, Ethel Frost. Wilmot Valley started strong and took an early lead but in the fourth round Springhill school caught up and moved ahead and defeated Wilmot Valley by a score of 24-20. There were seven rounds of spelling. This is a weekly program sponsored by the M. F. Schurman Co. Ltd.-S
