AGENTS:—MONTAGUE: Harold F. Landry, Mrs. Byron Stewart. AGENT GEORGETOWN: Waldon Lavers.

The Guardian may be bought at the following places in Montague: Blue Dome Restaurant, and Guardian Office; in Georgetown: The Post Office; in Souris: The Snack Bar.

..CORONATION MEDAL—His Worship Mayor B. H. Yeo, Montague, is receiving congratulations from his many friends on receiving the Coronation medal in recognition of his services to the development of community interest and progress in the town of Montague.

..MONTAGUE Y. P. S. MEET—Miss Thelma Stewart presided at the regular meeting of the Presbyterian Y.P.S. at the church hall, Montague, on Tuesday evening. The meeting opened with the hymn "O Come All Ye Faithful". The scripture was read by Audrey MacDougall. Phyllis Reid led in prayer. Roll call was answered by 21 members. The gifts were presented to each member by David MacKinnon. A period of games followed, led by Elvira MacKenzie and Margaret Johnson.

..CHRISTMAS PARTY — The First Montague Cub Pack enjoyed a Christmas party at their regular meeting in the cub room on Tuesday night. The meeting was under the direction of leaders Danny Murray, Robert Vandierstine and Colin Landry. A period of games and contests proved entertaining. The little boys were overcome with the unexpected arrival of Santa Claus, who after speaking briefly on the good work which the Cubs are doing, and the excellent training which they are receiving, passed out treats to all the kiddies. The meeting closed with a sing-song around the campfire.

Miraldes - Gee Wedding

The Shawomet Baptist Church in Shawomet, R.I., was the scene of the wedding of Miss Beatrice Maxine Gee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max F. Gee, Warwick, R.I., to Mr. Archie Walter Miraldes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Miraldes, Apponaug, on Friday, November 27 at eight p.m. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wesley B. Drollette.

Organist was Mrs. Clinton Phillips. Solos, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were rendered by Mr. Arnold Carpenter. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of imported venetian lace over candlelight satin, with Peter Pan collar edged with lace, long mitt sleeves also edged with lace. Her veil, made of pure silk, fell from a crown of satin and lace. She carried a spray of white roses and stephanotis, with green fern. Attendants were maid of honor, Janice Parker of Warwick; bridesmaids Miss Jennie Frost of Warwick; Miss Dorcas MacGregory of Springfield, Mass.; Elaine MacWilliams of Rosindale, Mass.; and Mrs. Dorothy Wheaton of Amherst, Mass. Flower girl was Margo Malone of South Hamilton, Mass., and ring bearer, David Pettusson of Thompsonville, Conn. The maid of honor wore a pastel blue gown with contrasting picture hat and accessories to match. Bridesmaids' gowns were light pink, with deep purple accessories. The flower girl wore a yellow gown with matching accessories and carried a small basket of cut flowers. The ring bearer wore a tuxedo, with a rosebud boutonniere.
