BARGAINS to-night at the Diamond Bookstore.

THE lowest prices on record for boots at the Dominion Boot and Shoe Store.

NEW GOODS.—A choice lot of magic lanterns and fancy goods at the Diamond Bookstore.

REMEMBER the cheap sale of boys' clothing at J. B. Macdonald's if you have to buy this evening.

YOUNG LADIES' JOURNAL.—The September number of this popular monthly is at the Diamond Bookstore.

WE regret to hear that Mr. John Dawson of North Tryon had his leg accidentally broken a few days ago.

POLICE COURT.—This morning a woman was fined $2 or eight days for using abusive and profane language on the streets.

WHILE some remedies are harsh and drastic in their action, all admit that Everybody's Pills are mild, safe and certain.

THE NEWEST.—A big stock of Brown's Child's Speech Books, Nos. 1 to 4, the best books for juveniles, at the Diamond Bookstore, Cheapside.

ANOTHER pair of spectacles have just been shown us which a party in town paid the itinerant $5 for, he stating they were pebbles; they were not, we sell as good a spectacle for $1.50, and real pebbles at $2.50 to $4 a pair. E. W. Taylor.

THE RIFLE.—The keg of tobacco won by Captain Hooper at the recent competition was kindly presented by Mr. Thomas B. Riley, instead of by Mr. Nicholson, as stated yesterday. The keg won by Captain Crockett was presented by Mr. Nicholson.

M. P. P.—The M. P. P. Co., of Truro, has issued a compact little circular of testimonials received by them in praise of Malto Peptonized Porter. There can be no doubt now of the success of this wonderful medicine and as successful directions from a patient's sterling worth our readers may be certain that M. P. P. is a first class thing.

PICNIC.—Everybody should attend the grand tea party to be held at St. Ann's, Lot 65, on Monday, 22nd August. A good time is assured, no pains are being spared by the committee in charge to make it the tea of the season. Remember the date, Monday, 22nd August. Come!

POTATO BUGS MOVING.—There was a migration of potato bugs across West Grafton, St. yesterday. They moved in a straight line and took a southerly direction from a potato patch owned by Mr. Monaghan and "went for" a field on the other side of the street. Hundreds were crushed by passers-by on the sidewalk.

GRATIFYING TO ALL.—The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrates the value of the qualities on which its success is based, and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Company.

TO THE PUBLIC.—We have not been in business long enough to advertise a discount sale, nor have we any necessity to do so, as our goods are all new and have been bought low for cash, and we have marked them at prices that do not require large discounts to make them sell. We wish further to state that we will not be undersold by any house in the trade.—Fennell & Chandler.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best-known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. 17r

HAMILTON, April 20, 1892.

I was doctoring for years with physicians for a scaly and scurvy affliction of the scalp. They told me it was eczema, but gave me no permanent relief. I was also troubled with excessive dandruff, which would drop from my head like snowflakes. Hearing of Anti-Dandruff, I used it, and from the third application felt more relieved than for years; when half the bottle was used the eczema and scaly eruptions disappeared and have not returned since; dandruff was thoroughly removed, the itching of the scalp stopped, and for an elegant, clean and useful hair-dressing Anti-Dandruff has no equal.

J. S. GRASMAN, Mgr. Hamilton Branch Kemp, Jones & Peck, Manufacturers of Cider, Toronto.

AFTER THE STORM.—The Summerside correspondent of the Guardian writes: Mr. Stavert's house at Schurman's Point which was struck by lightning on Wednesday night was visited by a large number of sightseers yesterday. The house is a new one and had just been finished. The lightning struck the chimney and then seems to have run down the gutters of the look-out on the south side of the roof as well as running down the north side in a straight line. The south side of the house is terribly torn, the windows being all smashed and the mouldings all torn off. At the head of the bed where Mr. Stavert was sleeping, six feet square of the wall was torn out. The front door on the east side was also shattered and all the glass broken. In fact there is no part of the house which has not been torn, and the half acre of ground near the house is strewn with pieces of brick, zinc, glass and wood. Mr. Stavert was alone in the house and when found in the morning of Thursday was lying on the floor unconscious. The pillow on which his head was lying had been torn and the bed generally shaken up, and it is supposed he was thrown to the floor. His left elbow and the palm of his left hand are slightly burned. All the hair was taken off his head but, strange to say, the scalp is hardly burned at all. He was moved to his father's residence and at this writing had regained consciousness, but cannot speak or hear.

The Star

THE BEAUTIFUL STAR

Has vindicated her right to be called Beautiful from the universal admiration of our patrons for the Beautiful in Art. This is evidenced by the good taste they display in patronizing the Star Tailoring Establishment when they want something particularly nice and artistic. Our success in filling the bill has passed into a proverb, namely, when you fail to get suited at the Star Tailoring Establishment you are too fastidious for this yere world.
