to the front of all competitors, in CLOTHING, HATS, &c.

He does not advertise to sell goods at cost, but he guarantees to sell from 10 to 25 per cent less than those who do advertise to sell at cost.

He does not try to deceive the people by making a big blow and offering paltry rewards, but tries to do things right and has the goods to back him up in what he advertizes.

He has now about 6,500 HATS and $4,000 worth of CLOTHING, which he guarantees to sell from 10 to 25 per cent less than any house in the trade. A lot of this Clothing was bought less than half price, and will be sold less than half price.

He does not ask the people to believe his advertisement until they see his prices; he knows then they will believe, and knows that the goods and prices back him up every time.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

The "Standard" Speaks.

LONDON, June 7.

The Standard discussing the fisheries dispute, says: "We deprecate precipitate and offensive action with regard to the fisheries controversy. There is certainly no desire in London and, we think, none in Washington to have two friendly but interested nations involved in a quarrel over a rather trifling dispute between fishermen on the Atlantic coast. However, while the treaty of 1818 remains in force the Canadians have a right to demand its strict observance. It is not to be supposed that Canadians will yield their valuable rights without some equivalent. Concessions on both sides are necessary. The matter does not directly concern England, but we are bound to show firmness in our decisions. Canadians look to us for support and they ought to receive it. We would rather that the dispute had not occurred, but as it has arisen we cannot help ourselves. Anything would be better than leading our Colonies to believe that they cannot rely upon the assistance and moral support of Great Britain."

Liberal-Conservative Mass Meeting.

HALIFAX, June 7.

The great Liberal-Conservative mass meeting took place in the Academy of Music on Saturday night last. The house was packed, and the greatest enthusiasm was manifested. Stirring addresses were delivered by Hon. Mr. Thompson and Hon. Mr. McLelan, who thoroughly ridiculed the cry of "Secession," and effectually exposed its utter hollowness and hypocrisy. Whilst Mr. Thompson confined himself largely to proving the soundness of his party's policy, Mr. McLelan delved into elaborate financial arguments, by which he proved that Nova Scotia had already obtained from the Dominion Government two million dollars more than her share of debt, and that Grit politicians are prepared to sacrifice their present inter-provincial trade of twenty million dollars for the uncertainties of Reciprocity with the United States. Mr. McLelan also made the announcement that the "Short Line" railroad from Montreal to Moncton would be running in eighteen months hence.

Orange Riot.

SERIOUS TROUBLE BETWEEN BELFAST SHIPYARD EMPLOYEES.

Orange workmen employed on Queen's Island shipyards, Belfast, Ireland, on Friday last, attacked the navvies employed by the harbour commissioners, and after overpowering them and beating them badly drove them into the water. It was with the greatest difficulty that the injured, exhausted and struggling navvies were rescued. Six were found to be so seriously hurt that they had to be removed to hospitals. One navvy is still missing, and it is believed he was drowned. The Orangemen made the assault because the navvies, it was alleged, had previously attacked some Loyalists for aspersing the Home Rule movement.

insist on the fulfilment of the Terms of Union in the matter of Winter Communication; and in the expenditure of the public funds the Government will be guided by principles of economy and retrenchment, while guarding all branches of the public service against inefficiency. So that the bugbear of taxation cannot, so far as it is now possible to foresee, be ever again trotted out to frighten the electors of this Island into buttoning up their pockets against the evil day when the assessor and taxgatherer may be seen, hand in hand, roaming over the land.

On the other hand, the opposition have enunciated no new policy, so that we are left to infer that they will follow their old policy—namely, the raising of a considerable part of the revenue by direct taxation; and that they will employ the most extravagant methods in the disbursement of the public money. Intelligent electors, which will you support? S. M. BENT.

PROVINCIAL ELECTION!

Liberal-Conservative Candidates for the City:

HON. NEIL McLEOD, PATRICK BLAKE, ESQ.

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JUNE 7, 1886.

The Opposition Platform.

The Patriot of Saturday evening contains a string of propositions on the strength of which it asks the electors to vote for the Opposition candidates and place Hon. Mr. Yeo in power.

The most of these propositions refer to the finances of the Province; and the Patriot states that on the 31st December last the Sullivan-Ferguson debt was over $120,000.

This is not true. But suppose we admit that it is,—How much better off would the people of this Province be if the Opposition were in power? This is the question for the electors to consider. It is not whether or not the Province is in debt; it is whether or not the debt would be larger or smaller if the other party were in power?

The Province was in debt when the Opposition left office, though they wrung from an unwilling people taxes to the amount of many thousands of dollars.

The Province is in debt now, but—the Sullivan-Ferguson Government having remitted all taxes—the money remains in the pockets of the people, and the people are so much the better off on account of it.

The Expenditure of the Sullivan-Ferguson Government last year was less than that of the Opposition, when they were in power, by $67,815.54—though the Sullivan-Ferguson Government paid for education $43,766.72 more than their predecessors.

In view of this indisputable fact, is it to be supposed that the people would have been better off, or the debt of the Province smaller than it is, had they permitted the opposition to remain in power?

Or would it be wise to drive out of office the economists of the present administration, in order that the spendthrifts and taxionists of the former administration may again be invested with power to spend and tax?

What farmer, having discharged a servant whom he found he could not trust, and obtained a careful and trustworthy one, would turn the latter off and again employ the former, on the plea that he was getting getting into debt? Any prudent farmer would say, "that is a good reason why I should hold on to my careful, trustworthy and economical man." And what the prudent farmer would say with respect to his servant, the prudent people of Prince Edward Island will say with respect to the Government, and will accordingly vote for the candidates who support the Sullivan-Ferguson administration.

But, it may be said, Mr. Yeo is a more prudent man than Mr. Davies. That probably is true; but the self-same political harpies who obtained fat pickings from Mr. Davies remain to obtain fat pickings from Mr. Yeo, should he, unfortunately for the Province, obtain a majority in the Legislature as a result of the impending election.

The hero of the big bill for stationary and pen knives is on hand, the political carpenter is to the front, the manipulators of marble ranges and Chances glass are as ready as ever to take advantage of their opportunities; and Mr. Yeo, owing his position to these men, and depending upon them for it, would have to yield to their demands for "political spoil"—spoil obtained at the expense of the taxpayers!

After all, though the taxes have been remitted, the Province is not now running into debt as rapidly as it was when the Oppositionists were in office. In 1878 the deficit was $21,448.95—though $34,216.32 were taken from the people in taxes. Last year it was $18,095.31—though the present Government did not take from the people, in taxes, a single cent.

And what does the debt of the present Government amount to? As we have already demonstrated the sum which would annually be saved if the Legislature were reduced to one chamber would more than pay the interest of it!

But it puzzles the Opposition mind to find out how Mr. Sullivan is going to make ends meet by obtaining payment of debts due the Province. The Opposition were puzzled in precisely the same way concerning the pier money. They couldn't understand how it was to be obtained, particularly ly as it was not specially granted by Parliament; but it was obtained nevertheless. Reasoning from this fact, the electors will probably conclude that the additional amount which Mr. Sullivan hopes to secure will also be forthcoming. If it is not forthcoming, the people will know who to blame: those who are striving, with all their might, to prevent the Government from obtaining it,—those who take pains to let the Dominion Government know that the people of Prince Edward Island do not expect to get it.

Range Lights.

In compliance with a petition forwarded to the Department, the Agent at Charlottetown has been instructed to report with reference to the erection of range lights at the port of Grand River, in King's County. It is considered that one light placed at Red Point, and the other at the point of the beach, would meet the requirements of the place. As Mr. Lord is an efficient and painstaking officer, we have no doubt but the proper site will be selected. Properly located range lights at this Port would prove of great advantage, especially to those engaged in the fisheries. We hope to see, also, steam communication established between Murray Harbour, Montague, Georgetown, Cardigan, Dundas, Annandale, and other eastern ports.

More Savings Banks.

We are informed that it is the intention of the Dominion Government to establish Post Office Savings Banks at Souris, Cardigan, Montague and Murray Harbor. We are glad to hear this. Farmers and others in the eastern part of the Island are prospering; and taking the large business done at the recently established Summerside Savings Bank as a criterion, we are led to believe that not only are our farmers and artisans able to earn a comfortable livelihood, but are also able to lay by a portion of their earnings for a rainy day. In view of this fact, we hope to see Savings Banks established at various industrial centres throughout the Island.

Shame!

We do not know who is responsible for the proper maintenance of the old burial ground on the Malpeque Road; but we believe the lodge was built by public subscription for a man who is supposed to keep the graveyard in decent order. This sacred spot is woefully neglected and desecrated. Railings serve for clothes-lines, rank vegetation is unchecked, disorder reigns supreme! Whoever is responsible should see that the place is put in order, for as it now exists it is a disgrace to any decent community.

A Wise Selection.

At a Convention of Liberal Conservative Delegates, held at Murray Harbor Road School House, on Saturday, ALEXANDER MARTIN, ESQ., and WILLIAM McLEAN, ESQ., were unanimously chosen candidates for the representation of Belfast. We heartily congratulate our friends in Belfast on the choice they have made.

It is stated that Mr. L. H. Davies is engaged in a personal canvass on behalf of the leading candidate of the Local Oppositionists. Think of it, electors of Queen's County! The hero of Inch-Arran—he who has recently laid bare the moral rottenness of the Dominion Government and its officials—our modern Hercules returned from cleaning out the Augean stables at Ottawa—soliciting votes for Mr. Thomas Morris!

We learn that all the debentures advertised by the City Corporation have been readily sold at par. This shows (1) that the credit of the city is good; (2) that there is no lack of money for investment in good security.

Arming the Ulstermen.

A Free Press representative claims to have been informed by the master of an Orange Lodge in the Eastern Ontario District that to his knowledge there were now being sent over 30,000 stand of firearms to Ulster from anti-Home Rule sympathizers in Canada. The article continues: "These arms were purchased in the United States and were Martini Henri rifles. An effort was made to obtain them in Canada, but they only could get Snider rifles and these were not suitable on account of the difficulty in getting ammunition. The arms were made up in small cases and forwarded to private parties in Ulster by the Allan Line. He expected they would be safely landed there before now. Pulling a drill book out of his pocket he said: 'That is the manual we are studying at present.'"
