

CANCER (JUNE 21 to JULY 22)
 Don't be too shy this week and you will find that someone who you never even thought of before could become very important to you. You never know, do you? Your home is very important to you but you should try to get out more. Go to the library to study instead of being holed up in your room, for example.

LEO (JULY 23 to AUG. 22)
 This week is going to be fun, fun, fun. Do not miss any parties this week if you can possibly help it. This week starts off depressing, but if you keep your work in check and immerse yourself in fun, it will end off with a bang.

Virgo (AUG.23 to SEPT. 22)
 If you can possibly swing it, this is the week to pay back as many of those loans as possible. As hard as it is, don't lose control this week. You will be glad you kept your collar by the week following. If emotional pressures are ready to explode, go to a friend who will listen and you will feel much better.
