A FACT that all men with gray and many shaded whiskers should know, that Buckingham's Dye always colors an even brown or black at will.

LEAGUE OF THE CROSS.—Don't forget the entertainment in St. Patrick's Hall this evening. Doors open at 7.30; Concert will begin at eight o'clock. Let there be a full house.

OPENS TO THE PUBLIC.—The Commissioners are continuing their investigation into the affairs of the Land Office. The investigation is being held in the House of Assembly Room, and is open to the public.

SOCIAL.—The social and entertainment in J. D. McLeod's Hall, to-morrow night, promises to be a social success. Everybody that can possibly attend should go, as it will be something new.

POTATOES FOR NEW YORK.—Potatoes have lately been sent by the shipload from the Annapolis Valley. Nova Scotia to New York direct. Two schooners left with 8,000 bush in all, intended to test the market.

ALL those itching and itching humors of the scalp, so troublesome to many persons, are effectually cured by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. If not attended to in time, these diseases are very liable to result in loss of the hair.

VALUABLE TROTTER STOCK.—The Canning, N. S., Gazette says: Dr. Cunningham, of Annapolis, owns several head of trotting stock, including a fine colt and several fillies by Sunolo, a full brother of Sunol, 2.10 1/2. Sunolo 9900 foaled 1885, bred at Pala Alto, bay, white hind ankles, weighs 1020 lbs., 15-2 hands, got by Electioneer, dam Waxana, by Gen. Benton, sire of Sally Benton, 2.17 1/2, sec. dam Mazy, said to be by Lexington, but denied by Wallace.

CURSED GOD AND BECAME DUMB.—A Pottstown (Pa.) despatch reports: "John Chana, a hopeless paralytic, aged thirty-five, was found dead this forenoon on the floor of his hotel, with a leather strap loosely fastened around his neck. Suicide is the generally accepted theory. Until recently, he was a fine specimen of physical manhood. It is related that one day he cursed his Creator in a most terrible manner, when he fell over a struck limb, and paralyzed from head to foot."

LECTURE IN ST. JAMES HALL.—The lecture of the Rev. W. W. Brewer in St. James Hall last evening, on "The Idiocy of Great Men," was fairly well attended, notwithstanding several other attractions. T. C. James, Esq., occupied the chair. The great men referred to by the lecturer belonged to every age of civilization and to every exalted sphere of human exertion; it was in chaste language, well delivered. Altogether, it was a splendid lecture.

THE LYCEUM.—"Under the Gaslight" was performed by the Boston Comedy Co. last night, and, as usual, attracted a big audience. The piece was carefully played and well set, the pier scene being very effective, and the railroad train going thundering over the stage very realistic, undoubtedly the best ever seen here. Of the cast, Miss Grey's Laura was smoothly and neatly done; Mr. Mills was a good Ray Trafford, as was also Mr. Benn's Snorkley. Miss Mathes was an amiable Pearl, and Mrs. Clifton filled the part of Judas very acceptably. Mr. Webber repeated his successful impersonation of Byke. To-night, the company make their last appearance for the season in "Fanchon, the Cricketer," give them a bumper house.

PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY.—The practices of the Philharmonic Society are marked by deep enthusiasm; and at last night's gathering, with the valuable addition of Miss McDonald, Messrs. Vinnicombe, Fletcher and Watson—the latter gentleman presiding at the organ—much excellent work was done. This flourishing society, which is now so full of promise, gained largely by the addition to its active members of Mr. H. S. Heartz, the brilliant and thoroughly musician-like young organist of the Methodist Church. The society's concert, which is to be held on the 19th inst., promises to be very good. We understand that an orchestral practice, in preparation therefor, is to be held in the Philharmonic Hall on Thursday night at 8 o'clock. The conductor is hoping to begin work upon the magnificent sacred cantata by Sir Richard Stendale Bennett, "The Woman of Samaria," as soon as possible after the society's first concert, with a view of producing it at the final concert of the season.

From J. W. Fetherston, Esq., Organist Queen's Avenue Methodist Church, London: R. S. WILLIAMS & SON.—Dear Sir,—I have much pleasure in again being able to testify to the great excellence of your Pianos. I have now been using them for almost three years, and am more than satisfied with them in every respect. The tone is fine, and the workmanship and finish excellent. I recommend your pianos above all our Canadian makes.—J. F. Willis & Co., McEachern's Building, Queen Street.

WE RUN. WE RUN. COMPETITION! WE RUN. WE RUN. WE RUN AWAY FROM COMPETITION.

It's a well-known fact that we run away from every competitor in every contest in OVERCOATS, REEFERS and SUITS. Competitors come along puffing behind, but never catch us. We are always before them in every line, but in quantity and quality we are away ahead of everyone. No firm dares or dreams of giving so much for a dollar as we do. It's an assured fact that we are the Cheapest. Everyone don't test quality. Few can tell the difference in quality, but everyone knows the difference in One Dollar and One Dollar and Thirty Cents. That's the difference in our prices, and competitors. We advise every honest, hard-working man to patronize the WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN, as they can get more Clothing there for $5 than they can in any other Store in Charlottetown for $6. We guarantee every Garment as represented. PROWSE BROS., 144 Queen Street.
