PLUMBING AND HEATING
Now is the time to have your house heated and plumbed, for in the fall it will be too late, as everybody will be in a rush then and it will cost you a great deal more.
So if you are contemplating having any of the above work done, we are prepared to do it to your satisfaction in all its branches at a very low figure. Remember we do all our own work, and can afford to do it cheaper than any others in the business. We thoroughly understand every detail of our business. Jobbing done at short notice. Lawmowers and other machinery repaired. We also handle the National Dish Washer, washers, rinsers and driers the dishes perfectly of either large or small family in from one to five minutes. No labour, no mess, no soap, no wetting of hands or spoiling of clothes; no broken or chipped dishes, no wiping necessary. Will produce a fine polish that can be done by hand. It is well and durably made of sheet steel, galvanized making it strong and substantial. Best of references.

FACTS

It is a fact that we have the best assortment of Midsummer Readymade Clothing in the City This stock has been selected from nice new patterns of tweeds. Made up in the latest styles, and are being sold at prices that leave hard times out of the question.

It is a Fact

That we have these goods also in youth's and boys' sizes. Prices corresponding to size—and size for everyone. Our advice would be to see these goods. We are satisfied that for design and price they are not equaled in the city.

It is also a Fact

That if Readymades are not good enough for you we can turn out to your order, the leading custom made goods of the city. Our custom department excels all others in the newness and amount of cloths shown, and in the class of workmen employed.

THE NEW MAN.

BY HAL OWEN.

The new man is not here yet, but he is on the way. More properly, he is the outgoing man. He cannot be made up, like a hurry, but he can be made over, like last year's dress, by being turned and newly bound. Man is not so easily adjusted when you count right down to it.
From his very nature of strength and dominion he is firm and determined.
The only way to attain to a new man is to make him out of the present boy.
This is certainly no more current subject than boys, no more absorbing subject.
As a first requirement in the making of the new man, nothing is more important, more indispensable, in fact, than a father and mother—a really good father and mother.
There are many most excellent men and women who have boys, but they confine their excellences to other departments, assuming to take the ground that a boy ought to be thankful for all his benefits, parents included, no questions asked as to quality.
This does not refer to the great unwashed population, but to the washed and polished, among whom it is so often happens that where the parents are not good enough the boy is too good.
A boy's hands and his shoes are almost always dirty; they must be. How can a boy get along in the world and keep clean? If he is ever to have any length of time he is engaged with "Do's" and "Don't's" till he is apt to become perfectly colourless.
It is to take off your hat. Don't throw it down. Wipe your feet. Don't perch about like a monkey. Do sit down like a Christian. Go wash your hands.
Don't make a noise. Do get something to do.
"What?" Ah, there's the question—What?
A boy should be kept busy every moment of his waking life, not working, of course, but busy. Tradition and experience teach no truer lesson than that of the broad scope of the devil's employment. To keep about the arts, to anticipate his wiles, requires eternal vigilance.
Give a boy some regular, responsible occupation, something to do that must be done; something that has continued interest; something to do the first thing in the morning—blackings shoes, tending cows, cleaning a cellar, porch or walk, carrying milk or papers.
Give him hammer, nails and all kinds of tools. He will soon learn to handle himself, and to send the boy into the making things—playhouses, boxes, carts, derrick. Give him a garden to cultivate, pets to take care of. Again, give him something to do that must be done, that he will do because he is interested.
How often arises that question—what to do—such a big question that it is difficult to send the boy into the street, bidding him not to keep "running in." So he stays out until his boy's appetite—his big appetite—brings him in.
Then, how is he met on that ground?
Is there not a continuance of more or less nagging during the meal to insure good nourishment?
There is really no greater point in the temperance work than in feeding the boys. They should have good, strong, pounding food and plenty of it. Let the meals be something to be remembered, something to be anticipated.
Feed the boy, feed him well and plenty.
Make a man of him.
Keep him at home also; interest him in home plans for the evening, for rest and recreation. Let there be something to do, somebody coming, somewhere to go. Hold the boy from making too freely of his own pins or following those of some questionable comrade. The devil is abroad after dark—don't let him catch our boys out!
A boy should so far as practicable select and buy his own clothes—at least furnishing goods. He should make out and check off his list of laundry lists, lay out his mending and be able to do it.
He should be often required to care for his own room and to cook a simple meal, as incident, when the cook fails to materialize, or Sunday supper.
These are all mainly accomplishments —anything is mainly in a man that better himself, when the cook fails to materialize, or Sunday supper.
—anything is mainly in a man that bet-
terialize, or Sunday supper.

Gloom

Of ill health, despondency and despair, gives way to the sunshine of hope, happiness and health, upon taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it gives rest to life and vitality to the blood, and through it imparts nerve strength, vigor and energy to the whole body. Read
this letter:
"Hood's Sarsaparilla helped me wonderfully, shining. No pen can describe what I suffered.
I was weakly sick, had sick headaches every few days and those terrible tired, despondent feelings, with heart troubles so that I could not go up and down stairs without clapping my hand over my heart and resting. In fact, it would almost take my breath away. I suffered so I did not care to live, yet I had much to live for. There is no pleasure in life if deprived of health, for life becomes a burden. Hood's Sarsaparilla does far more than advertised. After taking one bottle, it is sufficient to recommend itself." Mrs. J. E. SMITH, Beloit, Iowa.
