IN MEMORIAM

JOHN A TOOMBS

The death occurred in the Prince County Hospital, Summerside on Friday evening, March 9th of John A Toombs an aged and highly respected citizen of Cape Traverse following a short illness in his 86th year.

Mr. Toombs was born at Mayfield, P. E. I., a son of the late John and Annie MacDonald Toombs. His passing removes the last son of a large family of eight sons and three daughters.

Following Mr. Toomb's marriage 55 years ago to Maria Muttart of Carleton, he purchased a farm property on Searletown where through hard work and thrift he carried on farming operations successfully for over twenty years. When he disposed of this property he purchased a larger farm in Bedeque, where his son Irving now resides, and continued farming successfully until his retirement.

The late Mr. Toombs was highly regarded for his honesty, uprightness and as a good neighbour. He was an extensive reader and possessed an exceptional memory for retaining what he had read.

Mr. Toombs was a regular adherent of the Church of Scotland, Cape Traverse. There is left to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father: his widow: three sons and two daughters; namely: Gordon, Summerside; Irving, Bedeque; Lea, Charlottetown; Florence, Mrs. Norman Campbell, Charlottetown; Hazel, Mrs. William Nicholson, Bradalbane. Also one sister, survives, Mrs. Albert Muttart, Carleton; and several grandchildren.

A short funeral service was held Sunday, May 11th from the Bowness Funeral Home, Summerside, where a large number of relatives and friends gathered to pay their last respects.

This service was conducted by Rev. Donald MacKay, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Summerside; this was followed by service at the Church of Scotland, Cape Traverse, conducted by Rev. J. H. Bishop, who paid fitting tribute to the Christian life of the deceased.

The pallbearers in Summerside were W. K. Lellewellyn, Duncan MacDonald, Allie MacNeill, T D. Carruthers, Donald Baker and H. F. Morrison. At Cape Traverse, W. K. Llewellyn, Duncan MacDonald, Allie MacNeill, Charles Crossman, Harold Cutcliffe and Edwin MacWilliams. Burial in the Church Cemetery.

There were many beautiful floral tributes and messages of sympathy.
