The grand prize was presented to the hostess, who also had the choice of another lovely gift. Following the demonstration refreshments were served, after which the evening was spent in entertainment. At the close of the evening, a gift was presented to each lady present. The next demonstration will be held at the home of Mrs. John Clair.

HIGH-PRICED HELP GUNBERRA - (CP) - P. H. Allen, new official dingo destroyer in Australia's Northern Territory, figures on an average of 100 dingos scalps a week. With his salary, camping allowance and bounties at that rate he would make about $8,000 ($18,600) a year—twice as much as the administrator of the Territory.

*ATTENTION Cardigan, Eldon and Bridgetown. Your show this week is "The Bride Goes Wild", with Van Johnson, June Allyson and that freckle-faced, mischief maker Butch Jenkins.

Double Wedding

BRUCE-DIXON - BRUCE-DIXON

*On the evening of May 10th a double wedding of much interest to friends far and near, was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy R. Dixon, Bothwell, when their daughters, Thelma Dorothy was united in marriage to Norman Stuart Bruce, and Ruby Edith, became the bride of Kermit Young Bruce, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bruce, East Baltic.

The ceremony was performed by their pastor Rev. H. R. Bell of Kingsboro Baptist Church.

The brides descended the stairs to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, played by Mrs. Clinton Stewart, and took their places beneath a beautifully decorated arch.

The youthful brides looked radiant in their street length dresses, fashioned on similar lines. Thelma wearing Queen's blue taffeta with navy accessories, a wreath of blue flowers in her hair, and her only ornaments a necklace and earrings, the gift of the groom.

Ruby was dressed in pink taffeta with navy accessories and a wreath of pink flowers in her hair. She wore a pearl necklace and earrings, the gift of the groom.

After the ceremony the bridal parties received congratulations from those present, after which a delicious wedding supper was enjoyed. The dining room was tastefully decorated for the occasion with pink and white streamers and bells. A dainty supper was served by girl friends of the brides, after which the two, lovely three-tiered wedding cakes, were cut in the traditional manner.

For travelling Thelma wore a suit of ice blue gabardine with navy and white accessories and Ruby's suit was of navy English gabardine with pink and navy accessories.

The happy young couples will reside at South Lake, where the groom is a prosperous farmer.

Relatives and friends join in wishing them many years of happy wedded life.
