Three Charged In Car Thefts

TORONTO (CP)—Three men, one from Halifax, were arrested here and charged with conspiracy and conversion of stolen vehicles. The charges date back to 1958.

Charged were Ronald James Gray, 30, of Halifax, William Zedic, 50, and William Victor Rudyk, 30, both of Oshawa.

Test Ban Treaty Made Effective

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Anglo - American - Soviet treaty banning nuclear weapons testing except beneath the surface of the earth went into effect at 1 p.m. Thursday.

Simultaneous government action in Washington, Moscow and London formally bound the three nations—and more than 100 other countries which have added their signatures — to abide by the pact negotiated last summer. Canada signed the treaty.

PM TO VOICE

does the SIU, four other Canadian unions and a Canadian shipping firm whose vessels have been harassed in American ports by U.S. allies of the Canadian SIU.

"This has been the chief stumbling block," Mr. Pearson said.

"For instance, the insistence of the AFL-CIO negotiators that there should be no provision in any private trusteeship arrangement to ensure that the majority of trustees be Canadian was indeed a major issue on which negotiations broke down."

BACKED CLC STAND

The Canadian government from the start had given a strong support to this CLC stand because "any other course would have been unthinkable."

Mr. Pearson said another surprising fact in the American attitude is the failure to realize that the SIU of Canada, chief target in a blistering inquiry report by Mr. Justice T. G. Norris, had failed to arrest "progressive destruction" of democratic unionism.

Labor Minister MacEachan had called the American International Union's conduct shocking, Mr. Pearson recalled, and he hoped that Mr. Meany's support for the SIU of Canada "is not to be interpreted as an invitation to violence on the part of members of unions."

"The Canadian government and the Canadian people will not—I can assure Mr. Meany if he needs the assurance—be intimidated, let alone impressed by any such statements."

The prime minister appealed for responsibility by all concerned, in both countries.

Mr. Diefenbaker said he shared Mr. Pearson's views.

The vote on second reading drew dissent from only two Conservatives and two New Democrats, all with some union connection either personally or among constituency populations.

VOTE AGAINST MOVE

Voting against the trusteeship were Donald MacInnis (PC—Cape Breton South), a member of the United Mine Workers of America (Ind.) with a large industrial vote; Erik Nielsen (PC—Yukon), a member of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (Ind.); Arnold Peters (NDP—Timiskaming), a member of the International Woodworkers (CLC) and H. W. Herridge (NDP — Kootenay West), who has had political support from Mine-Mill membership.

Mr. MacEachen told the Commons earlier that three Canadians will comprise the federal trusteeship.

The Canada-U.S. wheat dispute also got an airing—although no new U.S. criticism has come directly to Ottawa.

Mr. Sharp drew support from all parties in defending the Canadian wheat board's policy of selling wheat for a fixed price for delivery over a period of several months.

Former agriculture minister Alvin Hamilton said this forward pricing practice—which irritated the U.S. in the case of a recent sale to Japan—was known to the U.S. from the time it was started with the 1961 sale to Red China. No protest had been made until now.

"We have set an example (in wheat-pricing policies) to nations which produce surpluses of other types in a way in which they also can bring the rule of law into their marketing," Mr. Hamilton said.
