Gentle Laxative — Mild Antacid

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Stephen L. Thompson, who passed away April 26th, 1950.

No one knows how much we miss you
No one knows the bitter pain.
We tried so hard to save you
Although it was in vain.

In grief we watched life fading
As you slowly went away
Only God knows how much we miss you
As it dawns one year today.

Lovingly Remembered by Jim, Sadie and Family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our Father, Stephen L. Thompson, who passed away April 26th, 1950.

One year has passed, dear Father,
Since you were called away;
How well do we remember,
That sad and weary day.

We watched beside your bedside,
As the lonely hours passed,
And how our hearts were breaking,
When we saw you breathe your last.

Always Remembered by Son Herb and Daughter-in-Law Ruth.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our Grandfather Stephen L. Thompson, who passed away April 26th, 1950.

God knew that he was suffering,
That the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed his weary eyelids,
And whispered, "Peace be thine."

Away in the beautiful hills of God,
By the valley of rest so fair,
We will meet our dear Grandfather,
In heaven some day up there.

Always Remembered by His Grandchildren Lloyd and Stuart Thompson.

TEACHERS' STUDY GROUP—The regular monthly meeting of the Teachers' Study Group of School Unit No. 1 was held in Parkdale School, Tuesday, April 10th. An interesting and lively debate by the pupils of Spring Park School and Parkdale School was thoroughly enjoyed. Mr. Claude Wood acted as chairman. The subject of the debate was: "Resolved that country life is preferable to city life." The pro side was ably upheld by Arthur Cauty, Kathryn

Beck and Richard Ruthart of Spring Park School; the con side by Kaye Weir, Lucie Sims and Foster Burke of Parkdale School. The judges were Miss Villett of Winsloe Station, Miss Inman of East Royalty and Mrs. MacDonald of Central Royalty. The con side was victorious but by a close margin. The thanks of the teachers was extended to the pupils and it was hoped to have another one at the May meeting. The pupils of Central Royalty and East Royalty will participate. After the debate the business session followed. A delicious lunch was served by Winsloe Station and East Royalty teachers. The next meeting is to be May 8th.
