Proceeds for new church, St. Paul's Schoolroom, Thursday, March 7th, at 8 p.m. Tickets at Messrs. Hazzard & Moore's, or at Mr. John Evans' grocery store, Prince Street.

A DERELICT.—In a postscript to a letter written on board the steamer Eturia on the 8th of February, when 34 miles from Queenstown, Mr. James Paton says:—"Since writing we have been delayed about an hour assisting a vessel that has been out for 165 days. Our captain sent them 1 lb. pork, 1 bag potatoes, 2 lbs. biscuit, and several other things." The name of the derelict is not given.

ACCIDENT.—We regret to hear that Mr. John Good, an employe in Mark Wright & Co's. factory, met with an accident early this afternoon, as a result of which he will be laid aside for some time. The accident occurred while Mr. Good was operating a rotary saw. A splinter from the wood he was sawing jumped off and struck him with great force, knocking him down and breaking his arm and cutting his head.

SUCCESSFUL ENTERTAINMENT.—A fair audience attended the entertainment in the W. C. T. U. parlors on Thursday night, and the splendid programme prepared for the occasion was well rendered. The "O's" Lament was a leading feature of the entertainment. Mrs. R. C. Goff gave a reading. Misses Lewis and Johnson gave a vocal duet, Miss Tillie Brown and Miss Laura Howard each a vocal solo, and Messrs. Newson and Mitchell an instrumental duet.

BURGARS AGAIN.—There seems to be a number of burglars operating in this city. A few days ago we noted the fact that the grocery stores of David Blake and John Evans were burglarized, and today we have to state that the Soap Works on Weymouth Street was also entered. The burglars got into the building through a second-story window, which they reached by the aid of a ladder stolen from some other place. After getting inside they ransacked the premises and broke open a desk. They did not get very much for their trouble.

A SUCCESS.—The 52nd Battalion Band entertainment at Craquad on Thursday night proved most successful. The hall was well filled, and the programme throughout most interesting and entertaining. The baskets were auctioned off by Mr. O. B. Wadman, and very good prices were obtained. The funds go towards the temperance division and the public hall. A vote of thanks was tendered the band. After the musical part of the programme and the auctioning of the baskets the hall was cleared and a really jolly hop began. The boys speak in glowing terms of the hospitality of the Craquad people.

HELPING HAND ENTERTAINMENT.—It is scarcely necessary to say that the social given by the Helping Hand Society of St. James' Church last night was a success in every sense of the word. The excellence of these entertainments has become proverbial and this one was no exception to the rule. After an enjoyable programme consisting of piano solos by Misses Laphors and Miss Allan and Mr. Harry Stirling, readings by Misses Ruby Keatley and Minnie Wellner, and solos by Miss Edith Brown, Mr. Charles Bell, Miss Jean Stewart and Miss Minnie Anderson, all of which were well rendered and met with enthusiastic applause, coffee and cake was passed around. About ten o'clock the gathering broke up, everyone having spent an enjoyable evening and hoping that there would be another social in the near future.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

A cable from London to the New York Times says: Russia is apparently forcing the pace of other Powers in the matter of intervention between Japan and China, all the Russian official and inspired papers declaring that it can be no longer delayed, and some even declare that it must be done within the next week or two. Beyond the statement in the Queen's speech, that England is cordially co-operating on this point with Russia, nothing can be learned about it here.

METHODIST HYMN BOOK.—We have been shown a copy of the new Methodist hymn and tune book just issued just issued by the Methodist Book and Publishing House. It contains all the Methodist hymns with music for each and sets at $1 each. Respecting this book the Toronto Guardian says: "Altogether we have a book for Methodism to be proud of, and it is the hope of the committee that not only the choir should promptly adopt this book, but that one copy, at least, should be found in every pew. WHERE POVERTY EXISTS.—A lady engaged in evangelical work writes from Portage, Wisconsin, to a friend in Halifax and says: "God help the poor widows here. Depression has swept this country and thrown thousands out of employment, and turned thousands out of homes of wealth and ease, and to-day these latter are living in tenements. Servants, carriages and horses gone, doing their own work. Yesterday I spoke to over 100 men in jail in Wisconsin, not for crime, but to save them from starvation and cold. You could have heard a pin fall whilst I spoke, notwithstanding they were crowded into a little jolly almost like sardines in a box. It is the same all over these states, and the county buildings are not nearly large enough for those unfortunate men, who must be cared for in this way or perish."

Talk About Styles.

Some people, talking about Nobby and Stylish Hats, reminds us of a young man not a thousand miles away from this city, on hearing the fire bell one very dark night, jumped out of bed, and without lighting the lamp attempted to get on his clothes in a hurry; but after pulling and tugging for some 10 or 15 minutes to get into what he thought was his pants, decided to light up, and to his astonishment found it was his coat! Now that is the way with —. They may pull and tug, holler and shout Styles, till no person can have them but themselves; but when they get the light of 15 years' experience turned on them, they find that Hats are made to suit the people and not the people to suit the Hats. Now we claim, after making Hats our specialty for 14 or 15 years, to know what the styles are and what the people want in this line, always taking particular care not to sell a man a Hat that does not suit him. We cordially invite inspection of our new stock, and if the styles, qualities and prices do not suit we will not ask you to buy, but will consider you have done us a favor in looking them over.
