Ramsey-MacDonald Wedding

Borden United Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday June 24 at 1:30 o'clock when Margaret Joyce MacDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph MacDonald of Borden was united in holy matrimony to Eric Leslie Ramsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ramsey of Borden. Rev. Burton Crowe performed the ceremony and Mrs. Ralph Toombs was in charge of the wedding music. The soloists for the occasion were Mrs. Eriand Ramsey of Conway, who sang "I Love You Truly" and Mrs. Gordon MacDonald of Summerside who rendered the Wedding Hymn.

The church was decorated for the occasion with white lilac, honey suckle, and apricot, and miniature nosegays of white honey suckle marked the pews.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father chose her wedding gown of satin and Chantilly lace fashioned with stand-up collar, buttoned front and fitted sleeves tapering to points over the wrists. The shirt was bouffant style with tiers of filmy nylon net over satin. Her head-dress was a halo of ruffled rayon net with a fingertip veil of silk net bordered in lily-of-the-valley design. She carried a cascade bouquet of American Beauty roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Marion Deegan of Amherst wore a gown of mauve net over taffeta with broad-shouldered and matching Juliet cap. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses. The best man was Mr. Arnold Ramsey of Conway, brother of the groom, and the ushers were Mr. Ernest Deegan and Mr. Cecil Palmer.

Mrs. MacDonald chose for her daughter's wedding a pale mauve afternoon dress with white hat and accessories and a corsage of white carnations, and the groom's mother was attired in a navy blue afternoon dress with matching hat and a corsage of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception for 70 guests was held in the church hall. The bride's table with its artistic arrangement of mixed flowers and lighted tapers was centered with a three-tier wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom under an arch of blossoms. Presiding were Mrs. John Deegan of Amherst, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Donald Smith of Poplar Grove, aunt of the groom. Toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Mr. Crowe and the groom responded.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey left to spend their honeymoon touring the Maritimes; the bride travelling in a burnt orange suit with yellow hat and accessories, and corsage of yellow roses. On their return they will reside in Moncton where the groom is employed with the Modern Construction Company. The bride prior to her marriage was on the staff of the Borden Pharmacy.

Previous to her marriage a miscellaneous shower was held in Borden Legion Hall in honor of the bride when she received many beautiful gifts. At the regular Thursday evening choir practice at the Borden United Church, the choir was read to her by Mr. Harold Cogins expressing regret that the choir was losing a valued member but wishing her all the joy of a happy wedded life. On behalf of the choir, the presentation of a gift was made by O. S. George Toombs.

—With the vibrant Shelly Winters and Ricardo Montalban in its pivotal roles, "My Man and I," new M-G-M attraction at the Capitol Theatre, tells an absorbing, down-to-earth and warmly human story of a girl who has lost all joy in life but who is given a fresh perspective through the love of a simple, kind-hearted Mexican farm laborer.
