KNITTING SILKS just received at Young's.

L. B. ARCHIBALD, Esq., is at present in St. John, N. B.

HEAR the Holman Opera Company's rendition of Pinafore this evening.

IF Mr. Wasell's tender No. 2 be accepted, the city will not be called upon to pay land damages!

THE letter of Hon. D. Davies received too late for insertion to-day will appear to-morrow.

DOMINION ALLIANCE.—Rev. Thomas Gates, Secretary of the Dominion Alliance, will hold a temperance convention for the whole Island, in this city on the 19th of July.

PINAFORE, at popular prices, in the Academy of Music this evening.

To get the best value for your money in all kinds of Groceries, and the highest price in cash or goods for your eggs, go to R. K. BRACE. Also fresh Turnip seed just received. jly 16

KNITTING SILKS in all the leading colors at Young's.

THE steamer "Edgar Stuart" arrived from Halifax this morning with a small cargo of merchandize. She will sail to return this evening with a large cargo of hay, oats, etc.

BILLEE TAYLOR went to sea, "all on account of Eliza," at Academy of Music to-morrow night.

MR. JOHN NEILSON, of West River, brought into the city over forty head of fine cattle which he intends shipping to the Newfoundland market. They were selected by Robert Brydges, Esq.

CAPT. FLAPPER lost his heart "all on account of Eliza"—to-morrow evening.

A CORNER loafer attempted to display his pugilistic abilities on a verdant countryman this forenoon, opposite the EXAMINER office, but he, in return, received a castigation which he will, with pains and bruises, remember for weeks to come.

IT is said that a new branch, to be called the Banking Branch, will be formed in the Finance Department, Ottawa, in which will be grouped all the employes at present engaged in the issuing and cancelling of Dominion notes and other operations of a banking nature. The new branch will be under the superintendence of Mr. Toller.

MANITOBA WHEAT.—A special cablegram to the Toronto Telegram says: "A cargo of Manitoba wheat sent to Liverpool has been carefully examined by leading millers and importers. It is pronounced the finest in the market, and three pence per bushel more is offered for it than for the finest California.

PHOEBE FAIRLEIGH became a sailor "all on account of Eliza."

THE schooner "Isaac Goodwin," McKinnon, master, from Gaspe for Boston, lumber laden, went ashore at North Cape, P. E. I., prior to the 10th inst. She came off after discharging deckload. The vessel is now on the marine railway at Port Hawkesbury. She lost boats, two jibs, and part of keel.

THE ever popular "Pinafore," by the Holman Opera Company this evening.

WE are requested to state that the congregation of St. James' Episcopal Church, Fort Hill, intend having a tea party at that place on the 14th of next month. Due notice will be given in the usual way. Fort Hill is a pleasant part of the country to visit on an excursion and when the people undertake to get up a church festival, they just do the business first-class.—Pioneer.

NEW bonnet and hat shapes just opened at Young's.

HYMENEAL.—Our popular young shipping merchant, Mr. Geo. E. Berteaux, was united in marriage this morning with Jessie, youngest daughter of the late James Quinton. The ceremony was performed at an early hour, and the happy couple left by the morning train for P. E. Island, after which they will visit Montreal before returning home. Again we have pleasure in extending congratulations. —St John News.

ALL the Charlottetonians will go to the Academy of Music to-morrow night "all on account of Eliza."

MR. T. O'CONNELL, a day or two ago, issued a search warrant for goods recently stolen from his store, and the police found a quantity of goods described by him in the possession of C. A. Rochford. The matter came before the Stipendiary Magistrate this forenoon, and Rochford appeared with a lawyer in defence. Mrs. M. P. Rochford being placed on the stand swore that the goods found by the police, consisting of papers, vases, etc., were in their possession for five years. The case was dismissed, but the goods were held by the Court for a short time.

LAST Tuesday morning a full-fledged Grit, while in the Diamond bookstore in this city, shouted the praises of Carmichael, and maintained that he would be elected for Pictou County with a large majority. After he had concluded his eulogy, the proprietor of the store, who was a good Liberal-Conservative, offered to make an even bet that McDougald would be at the head of the poll, and thereupon placed the money in a friend's hand. Our Grit friend at first showed a desire to accept the challenge, but almost simultaneously tied up his pocket book. In order to fully test his sincerity an offer of two to one was made on the Conservative candidate. Considering that discretion was the better part of valor, the wager was declined by the supporter of Carmichael. Truly, the Grits in this town are not over sanguine.

The Opera.

"THE Chimes of Normandy" were beautifully rendered last evening. The Holman Opera Troupe improve on acquaintance. The choruses of last evening were grand, and the solos were very good indeed. The acting, too, was capital. Our readers should all hear this fine troupe play "Pinafore" to-night.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND.

LONDON, June 14.

All Lorillard's horses, except Iroquois, Passaic, Wallenstein, Mistake and Seneca, have been scratched for all engagements during the Ascot meeting, which begins to-day. Passaic was scratched for the Prince of Wales stakes to-day, and Barrett was scratched for the Royal Hunt Cup to-morrow.

A number of unimportant amendments to the Land Bill were defeated in the Commons yesterday by large majorities.

It is stated that McKevitt is willing to turn Queen's evidence. Important disclosures are expected from both prisoners

The race for the Prince of Wales stakes was won by Lorillard's Iroquois; seven ran.

The News understands that Mr. Gladstone does not intend to ask urgency for the Land bill.

DIED.

On the 15th inst., at her father's residence, Charlottetown, Hannah V., fourth daughter of John Sullivan, aged 16 years. Funeral from St. Dunstan's Cathedral to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock.

At Monaghan Road, on Wednesday, the 11th ult., Mary, the beloved daughter of James and Ellen Lynn, in the 29th year of her age. She was an estimable young woman, in the prime of life, beloved and respected by all.

The Angel of Death, with fatal breath,
Has called a damsel away,
In her youth and bloom, to the silent tomb,
To lie and moulder in clay.

Too good and fair for this world of care,
God chose her in her youth
To possess a place with those who grace
The ways of wisdom and truth.
