IN MEMORIAM

MRS. GERTRUDE S. BELL

The death of Mrs. Gertrude Stevenson Bell, wife of Rev. Henry R. Bell, occurred suddenly at her late residence, at Red Point, P. E. I., on Friday, November 28th, after an illness of little more than a month. One week before her death her family and friends were reassured by her return home from the Souris Hospital. A son and a daughter who had been called home during her illness had returned to their respective homes in Halifax and Montreal; every- one entertained hope for Mrs. Bell's recovery. When suddenly she passed away, shortly after partaking her dinner meal, her death came as a great shock to all members of her family and to her many friends. With her, at the time of her death, were her husband, also one of her sisters, Mrs. Allan Campbell, Mrs. Bell was 79 years of age. She is survived by her husband, two daughters, Katherine (Mrs. Morrow) of Souris, P. E. I., and Marcella (Mrs. William F. MacCrae, R.N.) of Montreal; a son, Robert, of Halifax, N.S.; two sisters, Mrs. Allan A. Campbell, of Long River, P. E. I., and Mrs. John A. Murchison of New York (former of Saint John, N.B.); also several grandchildren, including Mrs. Clyde Fiander, of Louisbourg, Cape Breton. One daughter, the late Mrs. W. Cox, of Charlottetown, had predeceased her.

The funeral was held on Monday, December 1, with prayers at the home, followed by service in the East Point United Baptist Church, Kingsboro, of which Mrs. Bell was a beloved member. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. F. W. Molins, assisted by Rev. Bryer Jones. Mr. Molins expressed the sympathy of the congregation and community to the bereaved family and spoke of Mrs. Bell's consistent Christian faith and service, referring in particular to her fidelity to the two Churches and to the two Women's Missionary Societies in the pastorate where she and her husband had ministered some twenty-one years, namely, the East Point

Church and the South Lake Church of Christ Disciples.

It was fitting that the deacons of both churches were named Honorary Pall-bearers, while the acting bearers were: Alvan Ching, Kenneth MacGregor, Bernard Mossey, Boswell Robert - son, Ervin Robertson and Clinton Stewart.

A large number of flowers bore silent testimony to the high esteem in which Mrs. Bell was held by the community at large. Two favorite hymns, "Beyond The Sunset" and "Going Down The Valley," were sung by the Male Quartette of the Kingsboro Choir, with Mrs. Clinton Stewart at the organ. Interment was in the Kingsboro Cemetery.

Relatives and friends present from outside points included: Mrs. Katherine Morrow and sons, David and Beverly, of Souris, P. E. I.; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. MacCrae, and son Donald, of Montreal; also, a grand-daughter, Miss Barbara MacDonald, of Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bell and their three children, John, Heather and Ann Marie (grandchildren); Mr. and Mrs. C. Fiander and little son, Wayne Fiander, of Louisbourg, N.S.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cox and children, of Charlottetown; Mrs. Allan A. Campbell, of Long River, P. E. I.; Miss Annie MacLeod, of French River, P. E. I., and Rev. Bryer Jones of New Glasgow, P. E. I.

IN MEMORIAM

MISS THURSA COSTAIN

The funeral of Miss Thursa Costain formerly of Miminigash, and later of Summerside, took place on Sunday, November 2nd from the Funeral Parlor of the Bowness Home where a brief but fitting service was read. Thence to the Little Methodist Church of Miminigash, the centre of her youthful life-work, as a Sunday School manager and teacher, and from there to the Community cemetery.

She was not wisely known because of her retiring nature. Her early youthful life was given to assisting her mother at her home and teaching Sunday School, a task for which her home environment served to fit her specially.

Her musical education enabled her to supervise the music and singing in church while regular prayer and Bible reading in the home provided material for successful teaching.

Finally, at a mature age, unable to continue independent housekeeping, due to failing health, she came to Summerside to reside with relatives with whom she remained, until the "final call" which necessitated her removal to the hospital. A few days prior to her passing, a few immediate relatives attended the service at the funeral home and then proceeded to follow by car to the cemetery at Miminigash where interment took place.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Augustine McKinnon of Miscouche. Mr. McKinnon passed away at the Prince County Hospital, Summerside, and the funeral took place on Saturday morning from St. John The Baptist Church, Miscouche, was celebrated by Rev. Theodore Gallant of Moncton, N.B. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Friends of Mrs. Edna Gaudet of Miscouche are glad to know that she recently returned to her home after having undergone surgery in the Prince County Hospital.

The Miscouche firemen recently held a bingo in the parish hall. A large crowd attended and a good rum was realized.

Springhill Miner Begins New Career In Manitoba

'BRANDON, Man. (CP) - Ken Smith, a survivor of the Springhill mine disaster, his wife and son arrived here by air Thursday to start a new life.

The husky, ruddy - checked miner, who celebrated his 34th birthday Thursday, was greeted by a welcoming committee, 25-degree temperatures and a 25-mile - an - hour wind when he stepped from a plane at Brandon airport.

But the Smiths were prepared for the cold. He and his 12-year-old son Donald were bundled in station wagon coats while his attractive wife, Revoña, wore a fur coat.

"I had heard about the weather in Brandon," said Smith, who is making his first trip west. "It's cold in Springhill but not this cold."

GOOD OPPORTUNITY Asked why he had accepted the offer to relocate here, Smith said he thought it would be a "good opportunity."

"There's no future in Springhill anymore. Nothing else was in sight in our district so I decided to move west."

The board, authorized under parliamentary legislation passed last August, will have five members who will make automatic periodic reviews of the cases of prisoners serving two or more years.

It will take over from the present remission service on the justice department which has over many months gradually established a system of automatic review, in preparation for the time when the board would come into being.

The rule that a prisoner becomes eligible for parole after serving half his sentence is not expected to be changed.

There is no speculation about possible appointees, but if the government follows the recommendations of the Fauteux committee on remissions the board will be made up of a judge as
