The Hawks, who managed to win only two of their last 12 regular season games, never were behind. They led 2-1 in the first period, lengthened it to 5-2 in the second and yielded a couple of counters by the Red Wings in the last 20 minutes.

RAGGED GAME

This was a game that either club could have won. It was wide open and ragged and, at times, the usually - volatile Black Hawk fans even hooted at their own heroes.

The Wings, who closed out the NHL season with a pair of back-to-back victories over the league champion Toronto Maple Leafs, yielded two power-play goals to the Hawks.

Full scoring in the first period while defenceman Pete Gogean was sitting out a holding penalty and Ab McDonald netted one in the second while Howe Young also was off on a holding infraction.

Altogether, eight players figured in the scoring.

Besides Hull's pair and McDonald's single, other Hawk goal-getters were Eric Nesterenko and Red Vay.

Marcel Pronovost, Vay, Stasiuk, Alex Delvecchio and Gordie Howe, the league scoring champion with 86 points, looked after the Red Wings scoring.
