As will be seen by reference to our telegraphic despatches, Joe Lannon, the Island pugilist, succeeded in knocking out Frank Hearld, in the fight in Boston last night. Hearld is the pugilist who had the fight with Sullivan a few weeks ago. A fight between Lannon and Sullivan is now in order.

THE steamer M. A. Starr, Capt. Ferguson, arrived from Halifax, via intermediate ports, at eight o'clock last evening with the usual general cargo and Miss McIntosh as a passenger. She sailed on return at half past ten o'clock this morning with a full cargo of lobsters, oats, potatoes, etc. Mrs Smith, Miss McLeod and Miss Johnstone were passengers.

THE steamer Merrimack, Capt. Crowell, sailed for Boston at half-past four o'clock yesterday afternoon with a general cargo and the following passengers:—Mr W J Baldwin, Miss M McGrath, Miss A Mullins, Miss Mary Dillon, Mrs Scott, Mrs T K Gay, Miss S McLeod, Miss R McAulay, Miss E Doland, Mrs James Brown, Miss M O Brown, James Welch, Miss G Small, Miss F L Stewart, Mrs E Lee, Albert Lee, Miss Mary Martin, Miss S Martin, Mr John Furlong, Mr Connolly, Miss M Gibson, Miss S Gibson, Mrs William Talcott, Miss L B McPhee, Miss S Brown, Miss J Robinson, Mr John McLeod, Mr E McFarlane, Mr Wm Robinson, Miss M Worth, Mrs M Mathews.

At the station they were met by a torchlight procession and a band of music, and were escorted to the Market Hall, where the monster salvation meeting was held. On arrival at Market Square, the General delivered a short address, after which he was escorted to the Hall, which was so over-crowded as to be uncomfortable. General Booth spoke for an hour and a-half on the Army and its work, after which Colonel Dowdie made a few remarks and the meeting was brought to a close. All are well pleased with the Island and its people.

THE Stipendiary Magistrate's Court was thronged this morning to hear the Scott Act trials, and to witness the expected triumph of Mr. Otto S. Weeks. Mr. Weeks was not present, and there was much disappointment among the spectators in consequence. The first Scott Act case called was that of one of the Richmond Street coterie. The evidence taken at the previous trial was read over for the information of counsel. On application the case was further adjourned for one week, so that the counsel for the defence could hold a personal consultation with counsel from abroad. The remaining seven or eight cases were for the same reason also adjourned for one week. In the case of Mrs. Offer His Honor delivered judgment (which we will publish to-morrow) overruling the objection raised by the defendant's counsel, that he (the S. M.) did not have jurisdiction in the case as the defendant was out of the jurisdiction of the Court when the offence was committed as well as when the information was laid. This case also stands over till Friday for further hearing. Three drunks and disorderlies were then attended to, and a man arrested for being too near Gen. Booth's wigwam last night was dismissed.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.]

FARMERSVILLE, Ont., Oct. 7.

Three masked men entered a house occupied by Rebecca Day, who has a very bad reputation, and commenced throwing the furniture out of the house. She instantly sent for her son-in-law, Burton Carr, who, while trying to stop the masked intruders in their work, was shot dead by one of them. Two of the murderers were captured, but the other, who it is thought did the shooting is at large.

The Eastern Difficulty.

SOFIA, Oct 7.

The Government has notified foreign consuls at Sofia that General Kaulbars has ordered the military commander at Rustichuk to release political prisoners in his custody, threatening the vengeance of Russia if he disobeyed, and promising him a commandership in the Russian army if he complied with the order. He declined to obey, and all soldiers of the army praised his decision. M. Karaveloff has resigned as regent.

Fate of Anarchists.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.

Judge Gary has given a decision overruling a motion for a new trial for the eight Anarchists who are condemned to death. This evening the Anarchists were asked if they had anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon them. Nearly all of them made defiant addresses, justifying the course they had pursued, and all declared they would die bravely as martyrs.

The Ring.

BOSTON, Oct. 7.

A rattling eight round glove fight took place to-night between Joe Lannon, of South Boston, and Frank Hearld, of New York. Six rounds were fought, Hearld having if anything a slight advantage, when Lannon rallied, and with a savage blow knocked his opponent in a heap and won.

FOOT RACE.—The following letter has been received by Mr. D. J. Macdonald, of this city:—

ST. JOHN, N. B., Oct. 6, 1886.

DEAR SIR,—I see by yesterday's Telegraph a reply from you to my challenge, saying you would run me at Pictou on the 18th of Nov. In reply I would say that I would not care to go to Pictou, also the date mentioned by you I consider too late in the season.

Yours, &c.,
FRED SCOTT.

As Mr. Macdonald is champion 100 yards runner of the Provinces he has a right to name the place where the race should take place; but for the accommodation of Mr. Scott who, it appears does not mean business, Macdonald will meet him at Moncton any day this month, provided Scott deposits a forfeit of $25 during next week.

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites

FOR LUNG TROUBLES AND WASTING DISEASES

Dr. J. Simond, New Orleans, La., says: "Scott's Emulsion is the finest preparation of the kind ever brought to my notice. In affections of the lungs and other wasting diseases, we may consider it our most reliable agent. In a perfectly elegant and agreeable form."

Exhibition Notes.

MR. H. LONGWORTH'S EXHIBIT.

As usual, Henry Longworth, Esq., of Glyewood, was a leading exhibitor of cattle and sheep; and, perhaps, the most successful. Of twenty-one sheep exhibited by him, thirteen won prizes, amounting to $37; and out of twelve cattle, nine won prizes, amounting to $36—in all $73. In view of these facts any special commendation of Mr. Longworth's herd and flock is unnecessary.

THE MUSIC.

The exhibition music of this year was better than ever before. The Band of the 82nd Battalion won golden opinions from lovers of music in town and country; and St. Peter's Boys' School Band attracted as much attention on account of their sweet harmonious playing as their youthful appearance. Gentlemen from the United States were heard to say that they never heard so small a band play so well. Every stranger who heard them was surprised and pleased.

MAMMOTH SQUASH.

Mr. James Burke's mammoth squash, which took first prize at the Provincial Exhibition, was on sale at the Market today. It weighed 115 pounds.

Another New Society.

SIR,—You may not be aware that a society has been formed in this city, composed of married men only, the members of which bind themselves to be home in their own houses at 9 o'clock every evening. Although the membership is yet small, it is hoped that the object, being a good one, will induce a large number of married men to join. A similar society of bachelors would be a grand thing, if it could be formed—but it s no use talking.

Yours, etc.
DOWN EASTER.

Ch'town Oct. 8. 1886.

SUFFERERS from lung diseases should read the following:—

HALIFAX, Sept. 18, 1886.

The Antiseptic Inhaler Co.:

SIRS,—I have been using your Inhaler two weeks for affection of the lungs, having had one severe hemorrhage, and must say that I have received benefit, so much so as to give me hope of a cure, my sleep being more tranquil and appetite improved, and the collection of phlegm much easier to raise; it has changed color also, being more healthy looking. My case is one for which the most experienced physicians seemed to be able to do but little, and in fact I was told that nothing more could be done and no medicine they could give would cure, after having been under their treatment for over a year. The hacking cough which, before using the Inhaler, was almost incessant, now troubles me but little except in the mornings, and even these times I hope after continued use to overcome. I would not like to part with the instrument, and would recommend it to any similarly affected.
