

Northern Affairs Minister Seen One Of Tougher Cabinet Members

By MICHAEL GILLAN
OTTAWA (CP)—In a government of critics for ministerial weakness, British Columbia's Arthur Laing stands out as one of the toughest members of Prime Minister Pearson's cabinet.

The northern affairs minister has acquired the reputation among critics as a sort of abominable no-man. His strong stands on tricky political issues have even resulted in attempts by some colleagues to undermine him.

Most Primitive People Found In S. Viet Nam

PLEI HO DRONG, South Viet Nam (AP)—Searching for Communist guerrillas in a tribal village, United States paratroopers ran into some of the world's most primitive people.

The suspenseful encounter Friday ended in a round of handshakes.

The 28-man unit from the 1st Battalion of the 173rd Airborne Brigade went in helicopters to check out the Montagnard village south of contested Route 19 in the highlands. Route 19 connects Pleiku and the besieged special forces camp at Duc Co.

Forty grass shacks sat on stilts about four feet off the ground. Two of the huts had been set afire by rockets from an armed helicopter flying support.

Then there were shouts from the head of the column. Incredibly, two hands appeared from a hole in the ground, followed by long bushy hair. Finally a man appeared clad only in an old French military coat and a loin cloth.

HID IN BUNKER

In all 11 tiny figures emerged from the bunker. Three were children and one an old man. The old man extended his left hand as if to shake hands and was holding it with his right. This is an ancient tribal gesture to show that his feelings came from the heart.

The Montagnards are mountain tribesmen dismissed as savages by the people of both North and South Viet Nam.

COMPOSER DIES

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Thomas P. Whitney, 45, Russian-born composer and recording artist and wife of a former Associated Press correspondent in Moscow, died Friday night in hospital. She had been ill for a year of cancer. Born Yulya Alexandrovna Zapoiskaya, she was widely known as an interpreter of Russian folk and popular music outside the Soviet Union. Professionally she used the name Yulya.

JEAN MEQUILLET (1736-1822) MADE A FRENCH GENERAL BY MISTAKE IN AN APPOINTMENT INTENDED FOR HIS BROTHER, CHARLES. REFUSED TO RESIGN, SO BOTH BROTHERS BECAME GENERALS.

He returned to the House of Commons in the 1962 general election and was given the northern affairs portfolio when the Pearson government took power in 1963.

IS LONGFELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
