Beer Bros. for Dress Goods
ADVERT.—Yesterday was the first Sunday in Advent.

COMMITTED TO JAIL.—Hugh Hennessy was on Saturday evening committed to jail for two months in default of payment of a Scott Act fine.

AN OMISSION SUPPLIED.—The names of Mr. Fred Mitchell and Miss Lottie Brecken were omitted from the lists published who assisted to make the floral canopies of Thanksgiving night a success.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE.—At the meeting of the Teachers Institute on Saturday evening Principal Seaman read an excellent paper dealing with the dangers of examinations.

SAINTE ANDREW'S DINNER.—The members of the St. Andrew's Club will meet at the Club Rooms this evening at 8 o'clock, sharp, with plain and bonnet, and after the installation of officers for the ensuing year, will march to the Hotel Davies, headed by the pipe, to celebrate the time-honored festival of Saint Andrew.

DELICATE ENTERTAINMENT.—Preparations for the Christmas and delicate entertainment are going on, and a party is being given by the young ladies and gentlemen of Charlottetown. The date fixed for the entertainment is Thursday, December 10th.

THEATRICAL NOTES.—The Ethel Tucker Company closed its third engagement this season in St. John on Thursday evening, and on Saturday morning left for Buckleport, Me. The Opera House record was broken on Thanksgiving day when the house, with a seating capacity of about 1,200, had 2,023 paid admissions.

Malene Altsch had a crowded house in St. John on Friday night and the papers are loud in their praise of the entertainment furnished.

PELDER COURT.—This forenoon Alexander Darrach and Henry Josy were each convicted of first infractions of the Scott Act and fined $50 and costs.

WELL WORTH SEEING.—The Gold Medal given by the Windsor Salt Co. for the best fancy cheese shown at the exhibition last autumn, has been received by the secretary and is now on exhibition in the window of Messrs. Dohd & Rogers' shop.

METROLOGIC.—Hunter and Crossley, the evanagelists, are at present in Sydney, C. B., and St. Andrew's church, in the latter place, is filled to overflowing every evening.

AN EXTENSIVE REVIVAL is being experienced on the Buctouche circuit, and a large number have been united with the church.

THE LOST TRIBES.—Quite a large audience assembled in the York Hall on Wednesday evening to hear Mr. John R. Lee lecture on the "Identity of the British Nation with the Ten Lost Tribes of Israel."

It leads directly to our doors. Throng of buyers traverse it day after day. Shows that we are strengthening the friendly relations between the public and ourselves, without which there can be no success.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS
L.O.F.—Meeting of Court Avoudele tonight at 8 o'clock.

C. M. B. A.—Members will please remember the adjourned meeting this evening at 8 o'clock.

CANTATA.—A Christmas Cantata will be given by the children of the Copelaitz Mission Band at their concert next Thursday evening. Admission 10 cents.

THE ELLIOTT arrived here yesterday afternoon with a cargo of Sydney coal—part round and part slack—for the owner, Captain Ronald McMillan.

BOGOT THE STOCK.—The Summerside correspondent of the Guardian says: Messrs. Beer Brothers of Charlottetown have purchased from Mr. R. C. McLeod the stock in the Wright, Schurman & Co. store.

A CORRECTION.—The Temperance Division at Brackley Point, to which reference was made by THE EXAMINER a few days ago, was organized by Provincial Deputy J. A. Lawson, and not by J. A. Hanson, as inadvertently printed.

EXCURSION.—Tomorrow afternoon a number of the members of Charlottetown and St. John Lodges of Good Templars of this city intend taking a special train to Summerside and paying a formal visit to Summerside Lodge. The train will leave here at 4:10 (local time) and will leave Summerside on return about midnight. Tickets may be obtained at W. N. Tanton's Jewelry store at $1.00 for return. A few tickets must be sold yet to warrant the engagement of the train.

Anybody wishing to spend an evening in the Western capital may get their tickets at the above price.
