M.M.H.L. Tosses Out New Icing The Puck Rule

SYDNEY N.S., Nov. 4 — (CP)—The Maritime Major Hockey League, meeting here today, tossed out the new icing the puck rule which required a player to work the puck up to his own blueline.

This decision is in agreement with the Quebec Senior Hockey League, the only other circuit in major play this season, which voted against the new rule more than a week ago.

Only opponent to the change was playing coach peanuts O'Flaherty of league-leading Saint John Beavers. He moved that the rule stand for another two weeks but his amendment was not seconded.

The session was presided over by Judge J. Elliott Hudson of Halifax with all clubs in attendance. Playing coach John Horeck of Moncton Hawks came by air and was unable to land. He was back in Moncton before the meeting was over.

Drop Overtime

Horeck, however, did get in one good point, via a long distance telephone conversation after he returned to Moncton. He asked for the abolishment of the 10-minute overtime period. The idea was unanimously passed.

Another important league decision was that two more top-flight referees be imported so that all six clubs could play the same nights.

This, it was felt, would mean that clubs would have more resting nights, and the present heavy travelling could be reduced. It would mean, too, that the heavy travelling burden on referees would be lessened considerably.

Glace Bay, Halifax, Saint John and Moncton asked more Saturday nights. This was approved by the meeting and on a new schedule to be released later this month this will be taken into consideration.

Sydney and Glace Bay agreed to one change. The game slated for Glace Bay Nov. 12 with Millionaires will be played Nov. 17.

Gray-Bonhomme Case

The Gray-Bonhomme case, still a sore point with Glace Bay Miners, was brought into the open. Don Gillis of the Glace Bay executive asked the M.M.H.L. to request the M.A.H.A. if they could learn from the C.A.H.A. whether any additional evidence had been presented when they changed their decision. This matter will be passed over to the M.A.H.A. for action.

The Sydney club also asked the meeting why it was necessary for all clubs visiting Cape Breton to make the first stop in Sydney. "We're softening the clubs up for Glace Bay", one Sydney official remarked.

Roy Duchemin, president of Sydney Millionaires, made his point regarding the demands of Glace Bay executive Campbell, president of the National Hockey League, who had asked for the playing rosters of all clubs in the Maritime major circuit.

"The C.A.H.A. is our authority, and that alone", he said. The meeting felt that if Mr. Campbell wanted any business with Maritime major clubs he should deal through the C.A.H.A.

Considerable discussion was held on conditions in some rinks, and the league president was urged to have all rinks "pep up" their conditions.

The 10-cent travelling cut on children's tickets was dropped, unless the price of admission is over 35 cents.

19 Year-Old Girl Is British Pilot

LONDON, Nov. 3—(CP)—One of the newest recruits, the youngest pilot in the Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve is 19-year-old Barbara Pickett of London, who saved hard to earn the money for flying lessons.

Barbara decided she wanted to be a pilot a few years ago but she was not earning much money as a typist and needed £120 to pay for flying lessons. She cycled to work to save train fare, went without new clothes, and took holiday jobs to earn more money.

Eventually the day came when she had enough to pay for a flying course. That was 15 months ago, and from civil aircraft to the Royal Air Force was a logical step. When the Air Ministry ruled that persons with flying licences might join the volunteer reserve, Barbara was among the first to apply. She has just flown an R. A. F. Tiger Moth for the first time, after 40 hours flying.

ASHFORD, England—(CP)—One of Britain's finest locomotives, the "William Shakespeare", broke down here while pulling a continental boat train. The engine was back in regular service after being on exhibition all summer at the Festival of Britain.
