Abegweit IODE To Hold Anniversary Tea In May

Mrs. Claude Ives, regent of the Abegweit Chapter IODE was hostess for their March meeting held recently when 17 members were in attendance. Immediately after the meeting was called to order, Mrs. Robert Romcke and Mrs. Kenneth Walker of the Northumberland Chapter paid a surprise visit and presented a bouquet of yellow roses to the members to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Abegweit Chapter. Mrs. Claude Ives, acknowledged the thoughtful gesture on behalf of the Chapter.

An interesting film was shown depicting a tour of the United Nations building and activities in certain parts of the building. Mrs. Regina D. Pope arranged for the showing of this feature.

Committees were appointed to organize the forthcoming Red Glove Revue which will be held the latter part of October in Summerside. It was decided to hold a tea the first of May, commemorating the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Abegweit Chapter IODE, and a further report was given by Mrs. W. A. Currie, stating that the marathon bridge was progressing favourably. Refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

ELLEN'S DIARY

The Stock Show Provided Interest For This Family

"Now for next spring's show," we overheard Mack say to his one sister when they chatted together this evening about the Fat Stock Show and Sale just past. It proved to be always an interesting event for this family, the continuing spell of fine weather with passable breezes, contributing a goodly share towards its success, in that no spring storm, no precipitation of snow or rain occurred to mar the days set aside for the receipt of the animals, the show, or sale. There have been occasions before this when it was a trying experience on the part of the farmers to get their offerings to the scene of the show, Mack and his father having trudged the mile to the

UCW To Hold Afternoon Tea This Month

An interesting report on the United Church Women's Workshop held recently in Hearts Hall, Charlottetown, was given by the president, Mrs. Weirum MacKay, at the April meeting of the New London United Church Women held in the church recently.

The devotional period was led by Mrs. William Cotton on the theme, "Darkness and Light (Easter). The hymn "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" was sung. Selections were read by Mrs. Louis MacLeod and Mrs. Edward MacMurdo. Meditation and prayer followed and the hymn "The Day of Resurrection" closed the worship period.

The president presided and opened the meeting with the UCW Purpose in union. Twelve members answered roll call with an Easter Thought. The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. James M. Campbell and the treasurer, Mrs. R. A. MacLeod, gave the financial report. Mrs. Harold Mayhew led the Missionary Prayer. The Friendship report consisted of 34 cards, 17 home calls, 33 hospital calls, 12 treats and one letter. A letter was read regarding the United Church Women's Conference to be held at Stanhope in September.

The Easter Thank offering envelopes were distributed to the members of the congregation.

Company good cake or pie topping: fold one half cup crushed after-dinner mints into whipped cream.

GUIDES SERVE DINNER

A dinner was held at the Montague Legion Home on Tuesday, sponsored by the Retarded Children's Association. A highlight of the dinner was the serving of the meal by the Montague Girl Guides. Above, Linda Carpenter, Guide, is pictured serving Rev. and Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Lorne

WI To Plant Trees Or Shrubs At Cenotaph

Mrs. Cora Ling was hostess to the members of Wheatley River Women's Institute at their April meeting, when 11 members and one visitor answered roll call by giving a recipe using an "Island Product". The meeting opened by singing of Oh Canada, followed by repeating the creed.

Correspondence was read and discussed and a questionnaire was filled out. School committee reported a kettle had been purchased for the school. Visitation committee reported three treats sent.

It was decided to order some trees or shrubs to be planted at the Cenotaph, also to arrange for a play or concert to be put on in the hall.

Mrs. Preston Rackham entertained with a contest.

The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alfred Stead. New school visitor is Mrs. Preston Rackham, and on visitation will be Mrs. Fred MacRae. On the refreshment committee are Mrs. Harold Buntain and Mrs. Fred MacRae. The meeting closed by singing the Queen, after which refreshments were served by the hostess and committee in charge.

Kilmuir WI Finalizes Plans For Concert

Mrs. M. N. MacGowan, was hostess at the recent meeting of Kilmuir Women's Institute. Eleven members and one visitor answered roll call by giving their opinions on "Were Our Grandmothers happier than we are?"

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Margaret MacPhee, and the treasurer reported a balance on hand. The visitation committee reported making several calls. Mrs. R. Campbell and Mrs. M. MacPhee were re-appointed for next month.

Final plans were made to hold a variety concert in Cambridge hall in the near future. A social evening was held recently at the home of Anne MacDonald and gifts for her kitchen were presented by WI members and friends. Miss MacDonald and her brother John K. lost their home and all its contents, last month by fire.

Entertainment consisted of a penny sale and a contest conducted by Mrs. Marjorie Campbell and won by Mrs. Dot Campbell.

The meeting adjourned and refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ronald Rowe.

PRaise PIANIST
MOSCOW (AP) — Canadian pianist Ronald Turini, who performed in Moscow again after a two-year interval, is being praised here once more as one of the best young pianists in the world. The Montreal pianist performed in Russia difficult works such as Strybin's Fourth Sonata and Debussy's Prelude, Sarabande and Toccata.

FEAR CULTURE LOSS

OTTAWA (CP)—The city of Eastview made plain Thursday it wants no part of any joint form of municipal government in the Ottawa area for fear it would lead to destruction of the city's French culture. The predominantly French-speaking city of some 25,000 persons, surrounded by Ottawa, presented its views to an inquiry set up by the Ontario government into the form of municipal government in the Ottawa region.
