It has now been proved that the bicycle affords the most rapid locomotion over long distances by the power of human muscles that is known. It can tire out any horse on a suitable road.

Dyspepticure.—Is not a palliative, but a cure; it first relieves, then controls, and finally entirely subdues the irritation and inflammation of the stomach that causes indigestion and dyspepsia.

BOSTON PRICES.—We learn from an official circular of the 5th, that the prices of eggs and potatoes have declined somewhat under the liberal offerings. The fish market is reported firm and there is no change in the provision market.

THE CAMPAIGN.—A correspondent reports from King's County: "The grists are overwhelmed by Blake's resignation and Archbishop O'Brien's letter. We are glad to get THE DAILY EXAMINER in the day on which it is issued."

SPECIAL SERVICE.—Remember the special service in the upper Methodist church to-night. We are glad to see that the position of the choir has been changed. It now occupies a platform in the centre of the church, and the singing will have a better effect and will add much to the interest of the meeting. Rev. Mr. Shepherd of Zion church gave an earnest address last night. Mr. Sutcliffe will speak to-night.

RUNNING AWAY FROM HER HUSBAND.—Police Marshal Foster received a despatch from Fagway, requesting him to arrest a Mrs. Rogers and two sons, who were running away from that place. The woman, it appears, has been away from her home for a number of years living in the States. She came back recently, secured possession of the children and cleared out. The husband only desires to get the children back.

SENT UP FOR TRIAL.—A young woman named Lavinia E. McNevin, belonging to West River, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of fraudulently obtaining a letter from the Post Office, addressed to John Kelly, and taking a Post Office order for $1 therefrom, which, under an assumed name, she tried to have cashed at the Post Office. She was brought before His Honor yesterday afternoon, and sent up for trial in the Supreme Court.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for children's teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as bright as a button. It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. ap11890lyeodwkyly

SIR PHILIP MILLER, the great English horticulturist, writing in 1740, says: "The best method to have cabbage good is to procure fresh seed from abroad every year, for it is apt to degenerate in England in a few years." The above is a simple illustration of the fact that the best seeds will rapidly degenerate under unfavorable conditions. The wise will take heed, therefore, and buy their seeds of D. M. Ferry & Co., Windsor, Ontario, whose world-wide reputation as the best and most reliable, as well as the most extensive seed growers and dealers, is due to the fact that they take advantage of every circumstance of climate, soil, methods of culture, selection of seed plants, etc., to procure the best possible seeds and keep them up to that high standard. Send your name to the firm's address, and you will receive a copy of their Seed Annual for 1891, free. Feb 311 w/m

THE CAMPAIGN. OPENING MEETING

Market Hall Crowded.

Some Rattling Speeches

The Prospects Bright.

THE meeting of Liberal-Conservative electors in the Market Hall last night was a great success. The building was crowded—a somewhat remarkable thing at the first meeting of the campaign—and excellent order was maintained throughout.

W. E. DAWSON, Esq., President of the Liberal-Conservative Association, occupied the chair. In opening the meeting, he announced the result of the convention, viz., the nomination of Messrs. Ferguson and Blake as the standard-bearers of the Liberal-Conservative Party, and expressed the hope that they would be handsomely returned on the 5th of March. He expressed the pleasure it gave him to preside over such a large and representative meeting, but was sorry that one of the candidates, Hon. Mr. Blake, was not able to be present owing to illness. However, it was pleasing to learn that Mr. Blake's health was improving, and that he would be able to be about and take part in the fight in a few days.

HON. NEIL McLEOD was the first speaker. He regretted very much the absence through illness of one of the candidates, his colleague in local politics, Mr. Blake; but hoped that in a short time he would be able to take his place in the battle. He knew Mr. Blake intimately, and never knew a more honorable and upright man. Mr. Ferguson was also a good man, a native of the place, active and talented. These are the men the Liberal-Conservatives of this County have chosen as their candidates, the men who will look after our rights at Ottawa as well as any two men that could be sent there. The Liberals have nominated the old ticket, Davies and Welsh. Mr. Davies, we are told, is an able man. But the ablest man is, as has been amply demonstrated in the past, often the greatest source of danger to the Province, as the great aim of the Opposition is to find fault with the Government, to pick holes in their administration. What have the six Grits accomplished for you in the past? Absolutely nothing. Davies is the only one that is heard from. It is true that Mr. Welsh speaks occasionally; but his remarks are not at all creditable to the people who sent him there as their representative. Let us take a look at the policies of both parties. Sir John comes out fairly and squarely in favor of the re-adoption of the reciprocity treaty of 1854, changed to suit the altered circumstances of the Dominion. The Opposition propose Unrestricted Reciprocity, which means that the trade barriers between Canada and the United States shall be removed, while goods from Great Britain and other foreign ports shall be taxed. The policy of Sir John is the one for us; that of the Opposition militates against Great Britain and would reduce Canada to the abject position of a vassal to the United States. If the trade barriers are removed how are we to raise a revenue? At present we derive a revenue of about $7,000,000 in duties upon goods imported from the United States. If the trade restrictions were removed, this amount would not only be lost, but about as much more, making a total loss in revenue to the country of about $14,000,000. How, he asked, would the country prosper under such a state of affairs? How will our public works be maintained? How is this loss in revenue to be made up? The Opposition propose to raise the amount by direct taxation. We had a taste of taxation here under the Davies Government, and all know how it worked. But under the trade policy of the Opposition the tax would be many times greater, and the burden would be correspondingly hard upon the people. Under the present arrangement, the tax, in the shape of duties on goods, does not bear heavily upon the poor man; but it would under the policy of our opponents. But Laurier says he will raise this revenue by cutting down expenditures—by applying the pruning knife. This means that this Province will get no branch railway or tunnel from the Liberal party. The success of the tunnel scheme was, in his opinion, of more importance to us than any other thing. If we had access to the foreign markets all the year round we could ship as suited, as the prices were up. He believed that the tunnel would be in full operation within the next ten years if the Liberal-Conservative party were returned. Even if it cost $9,000,000 or more, there would be no difficulty in the way of its construction. The only difficulty in the way of securing the tunnel is in our not sending men to Ottawa to support Sir John, whose Government is sure to be returned. The leading men of the Liberal party have become disgusted with its policy, and are dropping out one by one. Blake has already left it, and it was currently reported at Ottawa that Mills was to retire shortly. Free Trade was not the policy of the Liberal party. Their policy was protection run mad. Unrestricted Reciprocity meant the erection of a high Chinese wall between every country except Canada and the United States—Great Britain, Canada's protector, included. This policy was a disloyal one, and he felt sure it would not meet with the approval of the people.

DR. McNEILL, of Stanley, followed. He urged upon the electors the necessity of doing their duty in the present contest,—of supporting the nominees of the party. Blake and Ferguson. The duty of the hour was to elect supporters of Sir John. He believed that great undertakings could be obtained better from Sir John's Government than from the present Opposition—and Sir John's administration was sure to be returned. He did not believe in the trade policy of the Opposition. It would be highly injurious to the farmers of P. E. Island. Geographical unity is what we want. Sir John Macdonald has done much in that direction already, and with the tunnel we will have it here in this Province.

This Island has a greater man than L. H. Davies. That man is Senator Howland. It was he who has given us all the light we have on the tunnel question, and he should be elected for any County in the Province by acclamation. We must have the tunnel. Any man who opposes it will be so badly snowed under on election day that his bones will never be resurrected. Free trade, experience has shown, has never created a new market. It is the development of our own resources that opens up new markets. In conclusion, he called upon the electors to be up and doing, to work night and main to send six men to Ottawa to support Sir John in order that nothing should stand in the way of getting the tunnel and branch railways to the populous districts of the Province. If we did our duty, he believed we would have the tunnel begun inside of a twelve month.

HON. DONALD FERGUSON, in his opening remarks, spoke of the pleasure it gave him to see so many electors present, and referred to the excellent prospects there were for the election of the Liberal-Conservative candidates all over the Province, and the return to power of the party led by Sir John. There are two very important questions before the people of Canada at the present time. These are (1) fulfillment of the claims of P. E. Island for continuous communication and public works; (2) the trade question as it relates to Canada and the Mother Country. Davies and Welsh have in the past ridiculed Senator Howland's subway project, speaking of it as a "stov-pipe scheme." Are these the men, he asked, to send to Ottawa to get the tunnel and other favors for you? For years they have sat in opposition as your representatives, but they have done nothing for you. Laurier, while speaking here, did not say anything on the tunnel question, although invited by one of our city papers to do so. This was significant. He did not think that Davies and Welsh were the men to send up to Ottawa to get a branch railway to Belfast, the tunnel, or any other boon for this Province. After some further references to the tunnel and branch railways, and dealing with some of Mr. Davies' utterances in reference to the $20,000 received by this Province on account of our claims upon the Dominion Government, he took up the trade policy of the Government and contrasted it with that of the Opposition. In a masterly manner he showed the inconsistency of the Liberal leaders, showed how they talked protection in the Upper Provinces, while down here they tried to repudiate it, and preached free trade. A worse policy, a more disloyal policy than that of the present Opposition could not be presented by any body of men. Some of the Opposition candidates deny that their policy discriminates against Great Britain and other countries. But the facts are against them. Proceeding, he dwelt at length upon the loss of revenue the adoption of "unrestricted reciprocity"—a policy which Mr. Davies said at the Board of Trade meeting was "impracticable"—would entail upon the community, and the direct taxation that must follow as a natural consequence. The trade policy of the Opposition was a disloyal one, and was supported by a disloyal party. He was sorry that it was necessary to meet and fight this disloyal party. But in the end the right would prevail. He believed in the trade policy of Sir John, viz., the renewal of the treaty of 1854 altered to suit our changed circumstances, because it was the best for us; and because the policy of our opponents means the ultimate annexation of Canada to the United States. The MacKenzie-Brown treaty of 1874 did not discriminate against Great Britain. To-day Alexander Mackenzie stands side by side with Sir John A. Macdonald in condemning the Grit policy, and Mr. Blake has retired without even opening his mouth; to-day the Grit party are adrift on the political breakers without a compass and without any hope of coming to land. The Opposition policy is nothing short of treason to Canada, treason to Great Britain and ruinous to the best interests of the Province. He asked the electors to organize for the contest. The party that had the best organization was going to win.

DR. JENKINS and Maurice Blake, Esq., also addressed the meeting. The latter gentleman paid particular attention to Mr. William Welsh, and showed up some of his recent inconsistent utterances. After ringing cheers for the candidates and the tunnel, the large audience dispersed.

GRAND OPPORTUNITY PUBLIC AUCTION

Blood, Speed, Style and Beauty.

SEALED TENDERS will be received by the undersigned up to MARCH 1st, 1891, for all or any one of the following Horses: Sleighs, Wagons, etc., etc.:-

Stallions (PRINCIPAL, 5629, WESTLAWN, 5038,

Buggy, 1 Road Cart, 1 do. Sulky, 1 Trotting Sleigh, 1 Driving do., 2 sets Harness, 2 sets of harness, 1 worst blanket (new), 1 suit Blanket (new, worth $10), 1 set Ralls, 1 pair skelpers, 1 pair quarter Boots.

PRINCIPAL, w. h. s., small star, very black points, foaled 1884, 155 hands, by Hambletonian Prince, 819, he by Kys y's Hambletonian, is Hambletonian Prince's dam is by Cassius M. Clay, 18. Principal's first dam is Bay Fanny (sister to Kitty Cook, 226), by Abraham, 333, he by Daniel Lambert, 102; second dam Fanny Allen (dam of Kitty Cook, 226), sister to Daniel Lambert and Fanny Allen, 475; third dam Fanny Cook by Abilalah, 1; fourth dam by Stockholm's American Star; fifth dam by Red Bird, by Bishop's Hambletonian. Bydyk's Hambletonian, 10, who crossed with the Chief, has found no eq. in reproducing. Clay mares have produced Electioneer, George Wilkes, Dauntless, Victor, Von Bismarck and Hambletonian Prince (sire of Principal). During the past few years the Hambletonian-Morgan cross has become very popular, many of the most successful turf performers having this combination of blood, principal who inherits these two strains, has very fine, easy gait and action, with lots of style, and with proper handling he would make a fast trotter.

WESTLAWN, ch. s., 154 hands, small star, little white on hind legs, foaled 1884 by Woodlawn, 1568, he by Hero of Thorndale, by Thordale, w. odlawn's dam is the renowned brood mare W. growth (dam of five in 225 or better), First dam Minnie West (trial 5.5) by Allice West, 74 (recors 225) Allice West (by Allice) is sire of the dam of Allice Wilkes, 224, which sold lately for $20,000; also sire of the dams of five others that have trotted in 230 or better. Westlawn's second dam is by the world-renowned sire of brood mares, Alibion Patchen, whose blood flows in 100 that have entered the 230 list during the past season. It will thus be seen that Westlawn is made up of the very richest of producing and reproducing blood. In the Dominion we doubt if he can be excelled in his maternal line of ancestors. Just look at what Waterwitch, Old Dolly, Heroine, Lady P-triot and others have done. Westlawn, although never handled for sport, was given a public exhibition at Charlottetown, during the Exhibition races there in the fall of 1889, by a man who never saw him previous to that day. The time made for a half-mile was 1:12.5. Westlawn, having lot of vim and nerve, would not surprise us if, with proper handling, he yet paced his mile in 2:30 or better. This speed, combined with his style and beauty ought to make him a very valuable sire and a good investment. The get of both these stallions—low size, style, action and finish that stamps them as successful sires.

Having other business which require all our time and attention, we have decided to close out our stallions, so that bargains may be expected. The stock, etc., may be seen at all times, and all information given by the undersigned on application. All mares served last season not proving in foal can be returned free up to the date of opening the tenders, or so long as the horses remain in our possession.

Terms either cash or one-half cash, and the balance in one or two years on approved security, and this to be stated in the tender. We do not bind ourselves to accept the lowest or any tender.
