$25,000 Sought In Damage Action

SUMMERSIDE — An action for damages in the amount of $25,000 was commenced in Supreme Court at Summerside Friday before Mr. Justice R.R. Bell.

After evidence and argument were completed the case was adjourned for judgment to a date to be announced later.

Elton Waite, Springfield is the plaintiff in the litigation and Harry Lewis, Woodstock P.E.I. the defendant.

The plaintiff is asking for $5,000 costs and $20,000 for permanent injuries as the result of an accident three miles west of O'Leary about two years ago when a station wagon alleged to have been driven by Lewis struck the plaintiff who was walking on the highway.

Evidence revealed that the plaintiff was in a cast for eight months and is still unable to work.

J. Watson MacNaught QC was counsel for the plaintiff and Alexander B. Campbell for the defendant.

Tractor, Bob-Sled Towed From Bay

MALPEQUE — A Ford tractor and a set of bob-sleds were recovered from 16 feet of water in Malpeque Bay Saturday. The tractor was owned and driven by Charles Taylor of Malpeque, which went through the ice Wednesday while Mr. Taylor was driving to Curian Island.

He was rescued from the chilling waters by Kenneth Owen and his son, Earl Taylor. Skin divers were engaged from the RCAF station to put a chain on the submerged tractor which landed upside down on the bottom with the bob-sled on top of it.

Several men chopped a narrow path and William Hunter of Baltic, with the help of his ice cutter, cut a path towards the shore until they reached shallow water.

Then the tractor, with the aid of a block and tackle, was landed.

At this point a large hole had to be cut in order that the tractor could be brought up to the surface, which proved to be none the worse for its three days on the bottom of Malpeque Bay. This was proven Saturday when the tractor was started and worked satisfactorily.

ment of playing with a bunch of amateurs in a minor league for nothing."

Gaudette says Canada could finish third at Colorado Springs, behind Czechoslovakia and the United States.

"Mind you I'll bet on my team. But I wouldn't bet my house on it."

He says the Czechs showed their potential by walloping Port Arthur 10-1, and the U.S. have seen good Canadian players who figured prominently in the scoring race in their individual leagues.

"Don't forget there are also the Russians and the Swedes," he added.

The Terriers, with ability and team spirit, still need "breaks" to win, says Gaudette.

"And perhaps the biggest break we have had so far is Sloan's signing."

The team leaves next week for a three-game tour of the Maritimes and will visit Western Canada starting Feb. 18. They'll play in Squaw Valley March 3 and 4 and their first game at Colorado Springs is scheduled against East Germany March 8.

Molotov, 3 Other Leaders Are Disgraced With Stalin

MOSCOW (Reuters) — Four former Soviet leaders, including one-time foreign minister Vyacheslav Molotov, Saturday suffered the same fate that disgraced Josef Stalin.

By a decree of the Supreme Soviet (parliament), the names of Molotov, former president Kliment Voroshilov, former first deputy premier Lazar Kaganovich and former prime minister Georgi Malenkov are being erased throughout the Soviet Union.

The four have all been named as leaders of the "anti-party" group, charged with a variety of sins in their opposition to Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

The erasure of Molotov's name was one more step in the massive machinery used by the Soviet government to downgrade an official, but his ultimate fate was still unknown.

STILL MISSING
Nothing official has been heard of his whereabouts since the foreign office announced earlier this month that he would be returning to his post as Russian delegate at the International Atomic Energy in Vienna and then announced his departure had been delayed. The decree officially revoked 84 previous decrees over the last 30 years naming towns, villages, regions, factories, schools, universities, army units and ships after the four men.

Most of them were issued during Stalin's "personality cult" era when the Soviet leader and his top officials were glorified throughout the country.

The largest number—35—referred to Molotov and was issued between 1931 and 1943.

Kaganovich was referred to 27 times. His name had been given to stretches of railroads and subway stations.

Voroshilov had 20 references, a number of them to army units and military academies, and Malenkov only one—a factory named in 1940.

OTTAWA (CP) — The federal government has agreed to install safety seat belts in all 1962 vehicles, it was announced Wednesday. The decision also will apply to future vehicle purchases. Department heads will insist that all drivers use the seat belts.

More Trouble Than Cloud Delayed Slated Orbit Shot

By HOWARD BENEDICT
CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Why the long delay until at least next Thursday, in the attempt to shoot John H. Glenn Jr. into orbit around the earth?

The immediate factor which caused the postponement Saturday, while Glenn waited out the countdown in his space capsule, was a heavy cloud layer 7,000 to 8,000 feet above the launching area.

Officials want clear skies for the launching to assure camera and other optical tracking of the Atlas booster rocket during the powered portion of flight.

Lt. Col. John A. (Shorty) Powers, Project Mercury spokesman, said weather alone could not be entirely blamed for the postponement.

"It was a combination of factors," he said. "Weather was the imminent factor, but it got that way because of technical holds earlier in the countdown."

HAD OTHER TROUBLES
Powers referred to the fact that at the scheduled 7:30 a.m. EST launching time, the sky overhead was clear. But this time slipped by because of the troubles.

Several hours later, National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced the delay until Thursday or Friday at the earliest, "depending on technical evaluation of the spacecraft and launch vehicle servicing requirements."

"It's not the same as it used to be but it is a lot of fun to be once again one of the boys," he says. "Besides, I'm getting into shape and feel really good."

Sloan gets paid seven cents a mile for driving from Toronto and picking up two members of the team who live in the area.

"It is an honor to represent Canada in the world championship. This way I can do something for hockey, a sport which has been good to me."

Terriers' manager Leonard (Jet) Gaudette is pleased with Sloan.

GAUDETTE IMPRESSED
"He's the finest individual I have met on or off the ice," he said. "Imagine a fellow who could have finished his hockey career right on the top and instead is taking all the punishment of amateurs in a minor league for nothing."

Gaudette says Canada could finish third at Colorado Springs, behind Czechoslovakia and the United States.

The secretary stated in her report that a new communion service, offering plates and a portable typewriter had been presented to the church in the past year.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served and fellowship enjoyed.

Powers gave this example of what might have to be done. "One thing we might have to do, and I'm only saying 'might have to do', is to change the carbon dioxide absorbing material in the space capsule since it has been used so much in pre-flight checkouts."

If it must be replaced, he said all pre-flight checks involving that equipment must be made. This would take a day.

Also the Atlas must be checked carefully for any trouble which may have developed as a result of its fueling and de-fueling operation Saturday.

After all checks have been completed, the two-day split count-down must start again.

Then there is the need of rest for the technicians and the launching crew, who have been working round-the-clock to prepare for the firing.

If the launching is not accomplished by Friday, the Atlantic recovery fleet will become a problem factor.

The navy has 24 ships on station for the shot. Rear-Admiral John L. Chew, commander of the recovery forces, said the ability to go beyond Friday without re-supplying the craft will depend on circumstances at the time.

Now he has foreseen his $16,000 - a year professional career for a seven-cents-a-mile expense account with the amateur Galt Terriers, Canada's representatives for the world title at Colorado Springs in March.

"It's not the same as it used to be but it is a lot of fun to be once again one of the boys," he says. "Besides, I'm getting into shape and feel really good."
