School Concert Is Presented At Kensington
KENSINGTON - The Rev. E.H. Bean was chairman for the elementary school concert held in the Kensington High School Auditorium on Monday evening. The program included a monologue by Allan Harding; solo Margo Clark; recitation, Sarah Campbell; reading, Beverley

Mr. Bean spoke with appreciation of the interest in the church evidenced by many of the older folk who can no longer attend public worship because of infirmities and cited Mrs. Wm. Toombs, the donor of the communion table, as an example. Mr. Bean called upon the people of the church in the prime of life, abilities, and possessions for the service of the Lord. Christmas hymns and carols were sung throughout the service and Mrs. Harry Underhill presided at the organ.

Geddie Memorial Special Service Held On Sunday
FRENCH RIVER - Geddie Memorial Church at French River was the scene of a special Christmas communion service Sunday. The communion service held in conjunction with the Christmas worship service was for the purpose of dedicating a new communion table.

The table was a gift to the congregation of Geddie Memorial Church from Mrs. William A. Toombs now residing in Summerside. The table was received on behalf of the session by the Rev. E.H. Bean, the interim-moderator, and dedicated with a prayer. At the communion service Rev. Mr. Bean was assisted by the elders of Geddie Memorial, Frank Brown and Elmer Paynter.
