Players della Settimana

Matthew Thomson: Male

Jennifer Pickering: Female

The male player of week nine of the sports season is Matthew Thomson. Matthew was a clutch performer in the AUS championship, as he score two of the most important goals in his AUS soccer career over the past weekend. He score the game winning goal in the semifinal game against Saint Mary's, which UPEI won 1-0, and score the game winning goal in overtime against Dalhousie, as UPEI won the AUS championship. Matthew is a graduate from Bluefield High School, and is currently in his second year of the Science program. In his spare time Matthew enjoys film making and playing his guitar.

The female player of week nine of the sports season is Jennifer Pickering. Jennifer played a solid game for the women's volleyball team over this past weekend. Jennifer plays very well both offensively, as she had 5 kills, and defensively with 10 digs. Jennifer is a graduate from Bluefield High School, and is currently in her third of the Science program. In her spare time Jennifer enjoys hanging out with friends, and she hope to one day enter into the medical field.

UPEI Women's Hockey Team Earns Victory

The UPEI Women's Hockey Panthers celebrate after defeating Mount Allison 5-2 in league action on Sunday in Crapaud.

The Panthers now hold a record of 1 - 1 and will see action on the road this Saturday against a powerful team from St. FX.
